Off to War Deborah Ellis, 2008-08-05 Society of School Librarians International Honor Book Deborah Ellis has been widely praised for her gripping books portraying the plight of children in war torn countries Now she turns her attention closer to home to the children whose parents are soldiers fighting in Afghanistan and Iraq In frank and revealing interviews they talk about how this experience has marked and shaped their lives The children who range in age from 7 to 17 come from all over North America They were interviewed on military bases in the streets in their homes and over the phone The strength of Off to War is that the children are left to speak for themselves with little editorial interference beyond a brief introduction Includes a glossary a list of organizations and websites and suggestions for further reading WHAT IS IT

Senese, John A. Vasquez, 2008-08-10 The question of what causes war has concerned statesmen since the time of Thucydides The Steps to War utilizes new data on militarized interstate disputes from 1816 to 2001 to identify the factors that increase the probability that a crisis will escalate to war In this book Paul Senese and John Vasquez test one of the major behavioral explanations of war the steps to war by identifying the various factors that put two states at risk for war Focusing on the era of classic international politics from 1816 to 1945 the Cold War and the post Cold War period they look at the roles of territorial disputes alliances rivalry and arms races and show how the likelihood of war increases significantly as these risk factors are combined Senese and Vasquez argue that war is more likely in the presence of these factors because they increase threat perception and put both sides into a security dilemma The Steps to War calls into question certain prevailing realist beliefs like peace through strength demonstrating how threatening to use force and engaging in power politics is more likely to lead to war than to peace The Illinois Medical Journal ,1915 What it is Like to Go to War Karl Marlantes,2011 Offers insight into the combat experience drawing on the author s background as a decorated Vietnam War veteran to raise awareness about how inadequately troops are prepared for battle related psychological and spiritual trauma The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States United States.
