What If Everything You Knew About Education Was Wrong:

What if everything you knew about education was wrong? David Didau, 2015-06-10 If you feel a bit cross at the presumption of some oik daring to suggest everything you know about education might be wrong please take it with a pinch of salt What if everything you knew about education was wrong is just a title Of course you probably think a great many things that aren't wrong The aim of the book is to help you murder your darlings David Didau will question your most deeply held assumptions about teaching and learning expose them to the fiery eye of reason and see if they can still walk in a straight line after the experience It seems reasonable to suggest that only if a theory or approach can withstand the fiercest scrutiny should it be encouraged in classrooms David makes no apologies for this why wouldn't you be sceptical of what you're told and what you think you know As educated professionals we ought to strive to assemble a more accurate informed or at least considered understanding of the world around us Here David shares with you some tools to help you question your assumptions and assist you in picking through what you believe He will stew findings from the shiny white laboratories of cognitive psychology stir in a generous dash of classroom research and serve up a side order of experience and observation Whether you spit it out or lap it up matters not If you come out the other end having vigorously and violently disagreed with him you'll at least have had to think hard about what you believe The book draws on research from the field of cognitive science to expertly analyse some of the unexamined meta-beliefs in education In Part 1 Why we're wrong David dismantles what we think we know examining cognitive traps and biases assumptions gut feelings and the problem of evidence Part 2 delves deeper Through the threshold looking at progress liminality and threshold concepts the science of learning and the difference between novices and experts In Part 3 David asks us the question What could we do differently and offers some considered insights into spacing and interleaving the testing effect the generation effect reducing feedback and why difficult is desirable While Part 4 challenges us to consider What else might we be getting wrong cogitating formative assessment lesson observation grit and growth differentiation praise motivation and creativity Exam Literacy Jake

Hunton, 2018-08-13 In Exam Literacy A guide to doing what works and not what doesn't to better prepare students for exams Jake Hunton focuses on the latest cognitive research into revision techniques and delivers proven strategies which actually work Foreword by Professor John Dunlosky Read highlight reread repeat if such a revision cycle sounds all too wearily familiar you and your students need a better route to exam success And in light of the recent decision to make all subjects at GCSE linear so that students will be tested in one-off sittings it will be even more important that students are well equipped to acquire and recall key content ahead of their exams In this wide-ranging guide to effective exam preparation Jake Hunton casts a careful eye over a wide range of research into revision techniques and details the strategies which have been proven to deliver the best results With plenty of practical suggestions and subject-specific examples Exam Literacy provides teachers with user-friendly advice on how they can make the content they cover stick and shares up-to-date evidence-based information on The nature of learning and the various types of memory How to improve students retention of knowledge and recall of content Why popular revision techniques such as rereading highlighting and summarising may not be as effective as you think How revision strategies that have been identified as being more effective such as interleaving elaborative interrogation self explanation and retrieval practice can be embedded into day to day teaching How students can be encouraged to make use of these winning strategies when revising independently The Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1903 The Academy and Literature ,1903 The Christian Work ,1925 Psychology ,1929 Orange Judd American Agriculturist ,1920 Gas Industry ,1916 Dicks' Complete Edition of Shakspeare's Works William Shakespeare, 1884 The College Courant ,1874 The plays of William Shakespeare, ed. by T.
