Thinking of Heaven Sophie Piper, 2008 This collection of prayers is intended as a gift for the bereaved child and to provide the kind of comfort and hope that grown ups find hard to put into words Prayers old and new combine with words from the Christian faith to offer words of consolation comfort hope and reassurance The collection can be dipped into or if read in its entirety it will take the child on a journey of accepting the change and loss in nature seasons plants creatures through to a deeper acceptance of death and the belief in the enduring nature of love The collection is simply but appropriately illustrated with line drawings throughout

Saying Goodbye Jean C. West, 2015-10-30 Saying Goodbye My Spiritual Journey through Death and Dying dares to face the basic reality that so much of modern culture strains itself to deny everyone who lives will die The hope and the encouragement come not in pretending that death will not happen but in shaping the way in which one says goodbye to friends and family Jean C West who sat with her husband and her siblings as they died draws upon both her experiences and her research to present a guide to assist all who find themselves in the position making or witnessing end of life goodbyes Her advice covers the circumstances of those who are dying and of others who accompany loved ones in their dying Saying Goodbye describes the common landmarks one encounters in a journey through death and dying It presents special guidance for circumstances in which children are dying It talks through the sorts of plans one can make in advance of death It consoles and supports individuals during the time after a loved ones death Saying Goodbye My Spiritual Journey through Death and Dying recognizes that while each persons circumstances and perspective are unique the common elements of the human experience of death and dying can provide the foundation for saying goodbye and for journeying through times of human mortality
