War Patrols Of The Uss Trigger Ss237 Submarine Combat Patrol Reports Book 1:

Red Scorpion Peter Sasgen, 2012-04-15 The USS Rasher had an extraordinary record in World War II she sank 18 enemy ships and destroyed 99 901 tons the second highest tonnage of the war Her fifth war patrol is the stuff of legends In August 1944 during a single night surface attack on a Japanese convoy off the Philippines she sank the escort carrier Taiyo and three marus and later during that same patrol she sank another ship Reading more like a novel than an operational history this book covers all aspects of the Rasher s combat history in a way that both the general reader and veteran submariner will appreciate Author Peter Sasgen is the son of a Rasher crew member and from his father s perspective he follows the sub from the builder s way through eight action packed patrols to war s end His richly detailed descriptions of submarine operations include lively commentary by former shipmates and excerpts from patrol reports along with a close examination of patrol procedures communications life guarding and other topics rarely covered in such detail Sasgen also explores the essence of submarine combat aggressive leadership and its role in the Rasher s success U.S.S. Cod (SS-224) J. T. McDaniel, 2005 Today tied up on the Cleveland Ohio waterfront U S S Cod is the lowest numbered surviving World War II American fleet submarine During the war Cod made a total of seven war patrols operating from Australia Hawaii and Guam This book contains the complete text of the war patrol reports submitted by her three wartime commanding officers Commander James C Dempsey Commander James A Adkins and Lieutenant Commander Edwin M Westbrook Jr Also included is an Introduction and notes by popular submarine novelist and historian J T McDaniel U.S.S. Tang (SS-306) J. T. McDaniel, 2005 During five war patrols under the command of Richard H O Kane the Balao class fleet submarine U S S Tang was credited with sinking a total of 31 Japanese ships for a wartime total of 227 800 tons The victim of a circular running torpedo during her fifth war patrol only eight members of her crew including O Kane survived to spend the rest of the war in Japanese captivity This volume contains the complete text of Tang s five official war patrol reports Also included is an Introduction notes and additional reference material American Submarine War Patrol Reports U. S. S. Wahoo (SS-238) J. T. McDaniel, 2003-10 The American fleet submarine may well have been the single most successful naval weapon of World War II While the submarine forces never made up more than 2% of the Navy submarines sank more than half of all Japanese tonnage sunk during the war in the Pacific One of the most successful boats U S S Wahoo was credited with sinking 20 enemy ships for a total of 60 038 tons This volume the first in a projected series contains the text of the actual reports submitted by her two commanders Marvin G Kennedy and Dudley W Morton Subs on the Hunt Richard Sheffield, 2009-05-12 On December 7 1941 the order was issued to the U S Navy EXECUTE UNRESTRICTED AIR AND SUBMARINE WARFARE AGAINST JAPAN On that order the subs flooded out of Pearl Harbor and towards the Japanese Empire Those that returned came back with tales of unbelievable heroism hard won victory crushing defeats faulty equipment deadly mistakes unexpected humor and haunting decisions Starting with the story of the brave little S 44 It was very questionable as to whether or not she would even survive the crossing to Japanese waters Despite the fact that she left a continuous oil slick wherever she went she carried the fight to the enemy and sunk the 8800 ton Kato the first Japanese warship to be sunk by a lone submarine Continuing with stories from the Silversides Wahoo Trigger Harder Bowfin and finishing with all five war patrols of the unmatched Tang here are all the details and insights straight from the men who fought the battles     U.S.S. Wahoo (SS-283) J. T. McDaniel,2005     U.S.S. Barb (SS-220) Everett P. Weaver,J. T. McDaniel,2006 Among the most successful of all American fleet type submarines U S S Barb made a total of twelve war patrols During the course of the war Barb was credited with sinking a total of 26 enemy ships including the escort aircraft carrier Unyo During her final five war patrols under the command of Eugene B Fluckey Barb set a record for innovation and aggressiveness unmatched in the submarine service In a series of rocket attacks during Patrol 12 Barb became the first American submarine to launch rockets in combat During the same patrol volunteer saboteurs slipped ashore and blew up a coastal train in the process becoming the only Americans to invade Japan during the war An incursion into Namkwan Harbor on the China coast during the eleventh war patrol earned the Medal of Honor for Fluckey This volume contains the complete text of the 12 war patrol reports filed by Barb s wartime commanding officers Also included is a Foreword by former Barb officer Everett P Weaver an Introduction and extensive notes     Nothing Friendly in the Vicinity ... Claude C. Conner,2013-09-25 As chronicled in Silent Victory Clay Blair s monumental history of United States submarine operations in World War II the submarine war against Japan was a relatively little known war within a war It was waged by an initially small but expanding force of boats that eventually made more than 1 400 war patrols and sank almost 1 400 Japanese merchant ships and naval vessels Many American submarines carved out enviable records including USS Guardfish the subject of Claude Conner s remarkable memoir of service aboard a US fleet boat as an enlisted man Conner who served as a Radar Technician weaves a compelling tale of his service during several war patrols in the Pacific Theater against the Japanese His firsthand account spans the spectrum in detail and emotion describing everything from humorous personal incidents to the boat s bone crushing battle against the sea the thrill of sending an enemy ship to the bottom of the deathly terror of being trapped in a flooding conning tower A significant portion of Conner s reminiscence describes the friendly fire sinking of USS Extractor which came about when Guardfish s skipper mistook the ship for a Japanese submarine Along with the tragic sinking Conner offers important information about Extractor and her crew several detailed firsthand recollections of survivors and an engrossing account of the Court of Inquiry that followed and for which Conner testified as a witness Nothing Friendly in the Vicinity is a fresh and compelling account of an enlisted man s experiences during the hellish submarine war against Japan and recognized today as a classic of the genre     War Patrols of the USS Flasher ,1994 Inside view of the costly war conducted by America s silent service which sacrificed 52 submarines and most of their crews in the war s single most effective campaign against the Japanese Dust jacket     U.S. Submarine War Patrol Reports, 1941-45
