Waters Of Siloe Harvest Or Hbj Book:

Journey Into Depth Mary Wolff-Salin, 2005 Journey into Depth is about the experience of initiation as it plays itself out in two domains the monastic and the training to become a Jungian psychoanalyst The very disparateness of these fields from an external point of view highlights the deeper level of similarity in their initiatory experiences A few major anthropological guidelines concerning initiation provide a framework of reflection as to what is really going on when a person passes through this kind of adult rite of passage Conclusions as to the human importance of such experiences follow with special emphasis on their spiritual consequences in terms of growth BOOK JACKET The Waters of Siloe Thomas Merton, 1979-10-09 From the author of The Seven Storey Mountain this book looks at an order of Catholic monks dating back to eleventh century France The word Trappist has become synonymous with ascetic and definitely indicates a monk who leads a very hard life But Penance and asceticism are not ends in themselves If monks never succeeded in being more than pious athletes they do not fulfill their purpose in the Church If you want to understand why the monks lead the life they do you will have to ask first of all What is their aim In his bestselling memoir The Seven Storey Mountain Catholic poet theologian and mystic Thomas Merton chronicled his journey to becoming a Cistercian monk of the Abbey of Gethsemani Kentucky In The Waters of Siloe he provides an enlightening account of the Cistercian Order better known as the Trappists With clarity and wisdom Merton explores the history of the Cistercian Order from its founding in 1098 its development and waning and the seventeenth century reforms by the Abb de Ranc which began the second flowering that continues today Throughout Merton illuminates the purposes of monasticism and its surprising resurgence in America and elsewhere Only Thomas Merton could have written single handed this history of Trappist monks for it is a work of diverse gifts and skill an ardent collaboration of scholar and story teller priest and poet The New York Times Thomas Merton Marquita Breit, Robert E.
