Woman On The Terrace Korean Voices:

Woman's Work for Woman ,1903 Missionary Voice ,1914 Woman's Missionary Friend ,1919 Classical Writings of Korean Women Kim Keum-Won & Others,2016-12-30 This work is a collection of essays travelogues written by women during the Joseon Dynasty 1392 1910 The work ranges from a eulogy for a broken needle to a travelogue describing various trips to scenic spots on the Korean peninsula including to the Keum Gang Mountains Now available in English this collection gives us a sampler of pre modern women s literature of Korea Woman on the Terrace Chŏng-hŭi Mun,2007 Moon Chung hee is a poet of wild nature vigorous energy and sparking passion One Human Family and Other Stories Yŏn-hŭi Chŏng,2008 Haunting stories of the aftermath of war Creative Women of Korea Young-Key Kim-Renaud,2004 This book introduces important contributions in the humanities by a select group of traditional and modern Korean women from the 15th through the 20th centuries The literary and artistic works of these women are considered Korean classics and the featured artists and writers range from a queen to a courtesan to a Buddhist nun to unknown women of Korea Although women s works were generally meant only to circulate among women these creative expressions have caught the attention of literary and artistic connoisseurs By bringing them to light the book seeks to demonstrate how Korean women have tried to give their lives meaning over the ages through their very diverse yet common artistic responses to the details and drama of everyday life in Confucian Korea The stories of these women and their work give us glimpses of their personal views on culture aesthetics history society politics morality and more Tales of a Korean Grandmother Frances Carpenter,2011-12-20 This multicultural children s book presents classic Korean fairy tales and other folk stories providing a delightful look into a rich literary culture The Korean people possess a folklore tradition as colorful and captivating as any in the world but the stories themselves still are not as well known to Western readers as those from The Brothers Grimm Mother Goose or Hans Christian Andersen In her best selling book for young readers Frances Carpenter collects thirty two classic Korean children s stories from the Land of the Morning Calm the woodcutter and the old men of the mountain the puppy who saved his village from a tiger the singing girl who danced the Japanese general into the deep river Why the dog and cat are not friends and even a more familiar tale of the clever rabbit who outsmarted the tortoise The children of the Kim family sit at their beloved Grandmother s knee to listen to these and other traditional folk tales which are rooted in thousands of years of Korean culture Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i Heui-Yung Park,2015-12-16 Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i examines such self representing genres as lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs written by Korean and Korean Americans from the early twentieth century to the present in order to explore how these people have shaped their individual or collective identities Their representations produced in different periods by successive generations reveal how Koreans in their diaspora to Hawai'i came to terms with their ethnic and local selves and also how the sense of who and what they are changed over the years both within and beyond the initial generation Looking into their individual and collective identities in lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs reveals how the earliest arrivals their children and their grandchildren have come to terms with their national ethnic and local selves and how their sense of identity changes over the course of time both within and beyond the initial generation In the lyric poems found in Korean language periodicals of the native born generation we can trace the significance of the motherland and Hawai i for these writers sense of identity The oral histories of first generation women most of whom arrived as picture brides also represent another us often vulnerable Koreans who define themselves in relation to both the present culture and to Korean men The self developed by the second third and in between generation Koreans diversifies because their identity is not defined exclusively by their ancestral land extending to Hawai i and to America This study focuses on three main areas of emphasis Hawai i Korean language and culture and life writing By tracing how identity changes with each generation this study reveals how identity formation for Hawai i diasporic Koreans has evolved
