The Routledge Handbook of Literature and Space Robert Tally Jr., 2017-01-06 The spatial turn in literary studies is transforming the way we think of the field The Routledge Handbook of Literature and Space maps the key areas of spatiality within literary studies offering a comprehensive overview but also pointing towards new and exciting directions of study The interdisciplinary and global approach provides a thorough introduction and includes thirty two essays on topics such as Spatial theory and practice Critical methodologies Work sites Cities and the geography of urban experience Maps territories readings The contributors to this volume demonstrate how a variety of romantic realist modernist and postmodernist narratives represent the changing social spaces of their world and of our own world system today Research Methods for History Simon Gunn, 2011-11-30 The first guide to the sources techniques and concepts needed for effective historical research While historians have become increasingly sensitive to social and cultural theory since the 1980s the actual methods by which research is carried out in History have been largely taken for granted Research Methods for History encourages those researching the past to think creatively about the wide range of methods currently in use to understand how these methods are used and what historical insights they can provide The book covers sources and methods that are well established in History such as archival research together with those that are less widely known The themes of the different chapters have been selected to reflect recent trends in the subject Even with more established methods however the aim is to present new insights and perspectives and to open researchers minds to new methodological possibilities International

Encyclopedia of Geography, 15 Volume Set Noel Castree, Michael F. Goodchild, Audrey Kobayashi, Weidong Liu, Richard A. Marston, 2017-03-20 Zweifelsohne das Referenzwerk zu diesem weitgefächerten und dynamischen Fachgebiet The International Encyclopedia of Geography ist das Ergebnis einer einmaligen Zusammenarbeit zwischen Wiley und der American Association of Geographers AAG beleuchtet und definiert Konzepte Forschung und Techniken in der Geographie und zugehörigen Fachgebieten Die Enzyklopädie ist als Online Ausgabe und 15 bändige farbige Printversion erhältlich Unter der Mitarbeit einer Gruppe von Experten aus aller Welt ist ein umfassender und fundierter Überblick über die Geographie in allen Erdteilen entstanden Enthält mehr als 1 000 Einträge zwischen 1 000 und 10 000 Wörtern die verständlich in grundlegende Konzepte einführen komplexe Themen erläutern und Informationen zu geographischen Gesellschaften aus aller Welt enthalten Entstanden unter der Mitarbeit von mehr als 900 Wissenschaftlern aus über 40 Ländern und bietet damit einen umfassenden und fundierten Überblick über die Geographie in allen Erdteilen Deckt das Fachgebiet umfassend ab und berücksichtigt auch die Richtungen Humangeographie Physikalische Geographie geographische Informationswissenschaften und Systeme Erdwissenschaften und Umweltwissenschaften Führt interdisziplinäre Sichtweisen zu geographischen Themen und Verfahren zusammen die auch für die Sozialwissenschaften Geisteswissenschaften Naturwissenschaften und Medizin von Interesse sind Printausgabe durchgängig in Farbe mit über 1 000 Illustrationen und Fotos Online Ausgabe wird jährlich aktualisiert Negotiated Settlements Steven A Wernke, 2013-02-24 This multidisciplinary indeed transdisciplinary combination of archaeological historical and ethnographic research reveals how the Andean people of southern Peru's Colca Valley experienced and responded to successive waves of colonial rule by the Inka and Spanish empires from the fifteenth through seventeenth centuries While most research splits the prehispanic and post conquest eras into separate domains of study Steven Wernke's perspective explicitly combines archaeological and documentary sources to bridge the Spanish conquest of the Andes He integrates GIS based spatial analyses of documentary sources with archaeological survey and the only excavations of an early Spanish doctrinal settlement in the highland Andes to present a local perspective on how new communities and landscapes emerged as part of a continuous process of adapting to consecutive imperial occupations Wernke's findings show how Spanish ideals of urban order penetrated this rural provincial setting as early as the first generation after the conquest as well as the ways the integration of Spanish ideals depended on their resonance with prehispanic Andean precedents Through integration of empirical research and social theory this volume contributes to current debates on colonial and postcolonial theory historical anthropology and the growing field of colonial archaeology At ease whether examining religious practice at early Franciscan mission settlements or reconstructing prehispanic Andean land use Wernke argues that we should avoid thinking of relations within the Inka and Spanish states as a dichotomy between colonizers and colonized instead he traces how new kinds of communities and landscapes were co produced at the local scale

Zoomland Florentina Armaselu, Andreas Fickers, 2023-12-31 Despite a variety of theoretical and practical undertakings there is no coherent understanding of the concept of scale in digital history and humanities and its potential is largely unexplored A clearer picture of the whole spectrum is needed from large to small distant to close global to local general to specific macro to micro and the in between levels The book addresses these issues and sketches out the territory of Zoomland at scale Four regions and sixteen chapters are conceptually and symbolically depicted through three perspectives bird s eye overhead and ground view The variable scale representation allows for exploratory paths covering areas such as theoretical and applicative reflections on scale combining a digital dimension with research in history media studies cultural heritage literature text analysis and map modelling creative use of scale in new digital forms of analysis data organisation interfaces and argumentative or artistic expressions Zoomland provides a systematic discussion on the epistemological dimensions hermeneutic methods empirical tools and aesthetic logic pertaining to scale and its innovative possibilities residing in humanities based approaches and digital technologies Enter the Zoomland game here or watch the teaser

Literary Mapping in the Digital Age David Cooper, Christopher Donaldson, Patricia Murrieta-Flores, 2016-05-20 Drawing on the expertise of leading researchers from around the globe this pioneering collection of essays explores how geospatial technologies are revolutionizing the discipline of literary studies The book offers the first intensive examination of digital literary cartography a field whose recent and rapid development has yet to be coherently analysed This collection not only provides an authoritative account of the current state of the field but also informs a new generation of digital humanities scholars about the critical and creative potentials of digital literary mapping The book showcases the work of exemplary literary mapping projects and provides the reader with an overview of the tools techniques and methods those projects employ Emergence and Empire John Bonnett, 2013-11-01 Harold Innis was one of the most profound thinkers that Canada ever produced Such was his influence on the field of communication that Marshall McLuhan once declared his own work was a mere footnote to Innis But over the past sixty years scholars have had a hard time explaining his brilliance in large measure because Innis's dense elliptical writing style has hindered easy explication and interpretation But behind the dense verbiage lies a profound philosophy of history In Emergence and Empire John Bonnett offers a fresh take on Innis's work by demonstrating that his purpose was to understand the impact of self organizing emergent change on economies and societies Innis s interest in emergent change induced him to craft an original and bold philosophy of history informed by concepts as diverse as information Kantian idealism and business cycle theory Bonnett provides a close reading of Innis s oeuvre that connects works of communication and economic history to present a fuller understanding of Innis s influences and influence Emergence and Empire presents a portrait of an original and prescient thinker who anticipated the importance of developments such as information visualization and whose understanding of change is remarkably similar to that which is promoted by the science of complexity today

Mediated Geographies and Geographies of Media Susan P. Mains, Julie Cupples, Chris Lukinbeal, 2015-10-12 This is the first comprehensive volume to explore and engage with current trends in Geographies of Media research It reviews how conceptualizations of mediated geographies have evolved Followed by an examination of diverse media contexts and locales the book illustrates key issues through the integration of theoretical and empirical case studies and reflects on the future challenges and opportunities faced by scholars in this field The contributions by an international team of experts in the field address theoretical perspectives on mediated geographies methodological challenges and opportunities posed by geographies of media the role and significance of different media forms and organizations in relation to socio spatial relations the dynamism of media in local global relations and in depth case studies of mediated locales Given the theoretical and methodological diversity of this book it will provide an important reference for geographers and other interdisciplinary scholars working in cultural and media studies researchers in environmental studies sociology visual anthropology new technologies and political science who seek to understand and explore the interconnections of media space and place through the examples of specific practices and settings

Holodomor and Gorta Mór Christian Noack, Lindsay Janssen, Vincent Comerford, 2014-10-01 Ireland s Great Famine or an Gorta Mór 1845 51 and Ukraine s Holodomor 1932 33 occupy central places in the national historiographies of their respective countries Acknowledging that questions of collective memory have become a central issue in cultural studies this volume inquires into the role of historical experiences of hunger and deprivation within the emerging national identities and national historical narratives of Ireland and Ukraine In the Irish case a solid body of research has been compiled over the last 150 years while Ukraine s Holodomor by contrast was something of an open secret that historians could only seriously research after the demise of communist rule This volume is the first attempt to draw these approaches together and to allow for a comparative study of how the historical experiences of famine were translated into narratives that supported political claims for independent national statehood in Ireland and Ukraine Juxtaposing studies on the Irish and Ukrainian cases written by eminent historians political scientists and literary and film scholars the essays in this interdisciplinary volume analyse how national historical narratives were constructed and disseminated whether or not they changed with circumstances or were challenged by competing visions both academic and non academic In doing so the essays discuss themes such as representation commemoration and mediation and the influence of these processes on the shaping of cultural memory
