spends the weekend scandalized by but drawn to the people who move in and out of Sylvia's orbit celebrities whom Doris has seen in the pages of Jet and Ebony civil rights leaders such as Coretta Scott King and Diane Nash women who dance close together boys who flirt too hard and talk too much atheists And even more shocking Mrs Lucas seems right at home From the guests at a queer kickback to the student activists at a SNCC conference Doris suddenly finds herself surrounded by so many people who seem to know exactly who or what they want Doris knows she doesn't want a baby but what does she want Will this trip help her find out These Heathens is a funny poignant story about Black women's obligations and ambitions what we owe to ourselves and the transformative power of leaving your bubble even for just one chaotic weekend New Land Otto
