The Measure of Faith Randy Osenbach, 2013-06 How do you measure your faith Is it by your standards the world s standards or by God s standards God has written His words to us in Scripture that we can know His thoughts and know His ways and thus live by His standards alone All too often mankind makes God after their own image and concludes that He thinks and acts just as they do But it is not a sign of wisdom to try to second guess God What is the true meaning of faith Learn how to improve your relationship with God Wake up to a vibrant Christian life that reveals how close and real God truly is Invite God to come into your life and to be a true blessing that carries you through the best and worst of times God s love for us is as close as our consent to love Him in return Allow Him to be an intrinsic part of who you are Allow this miracle to come true in your life

Image, Word and God in the Early Christian Centuries Dr Mark Edwards,2013-02-28 Christianity proclaims Christ and the incarnate word of God the Bible is described as the Word of God in both Jewish and Christian tradition Are these usages merely homonymous or would the ancients have recognized a more intimate relation between the word incarnate and the word proclaimed This book investigates the concept of logos in pagan Jewish and Christian thought with a view to elucidating the polyphonic functions which the word acquired when used in theological discourse Edwards presents a survey of theological applications of the term Logos in Greek Jewish and Christian thought from Plato to Augustine and Proclus Special focus is placed on the relation of words to images in representation of divine realm the relation between the logos within reason and the logos without speech both in linguistics and in Christology the relation between the incarnate Word and the written text and the place of reason in the interpretation of revelation Bringing together materials which are rarely synthesized in modern study this book shows how Greek and biblical thought part company in their appraisal of the capacity of reason to grasp the nature of God and how in consequence verbal revelation plays a more significant role in biblical teaching Edwards shows how this entailed the rejection of images in Jewish and Christian thought and how the manifestation in flesh of Christ as the living word of God compelled the church to reconsider both the relation of word to image and the interplay between the logos within and the written logos in the formulation of Christian doctrine

The Faithful Librarian Garrett B. Trott, 2019-09-18 What do Christianity and librarianship have in common Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper's lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A Smith's notable Christian Librarianship 2002 Building on Smith's work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship

Deleuze, Guattari and the Machine in Early Christianity Bradley H. McLean, 2022-07-28 Expanding the impact of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's philosophy to the disciplines of Christian Origins and Christian theology this original study makes the case for understanding early Christianity through such Deleuzioguattarian concepts as the rhizome the machine the body without organs and the multiplicity using the theoretical tool of schizoanalysis to do so The reconstruction of the historical emergence of early Christianity Bradley H McLean argues has been constrained by traditional assumptions about its historical and transcendental origins These assumptions are ill suited to theorizing the genesis change and transformation of early Christianity in the first three centuries of the Common Era To capture the dynamism of early Christianity McLean applies Guattari's concept of the machine to the analysis of early

Christianity Arguing that machines are both an unnoticed dimension of early Christianity and a major analytical tool for the discipline McLean highlights the potential of the philosophy of Deleuze and Guattari to challenge and reconfigure not just our knowledge of early Christianity but all aspects of Hellenistic Judaism and the Greco Roman world as well as our understanding of Jesus of Nazareth and the Jesus movement By subverting the concept of a single transcendental or historical origin of Christianity this book facilitates new forms of dialogue and cooperation between Christians and co religionists The Way to Heaven Neil Macaulay,2013-05-02 This book shows the clear presentation of the Gospel which Dr

Neil Macaulay always presented and saw thousands come to know the Lord through his faithful teachings Dr Neil Macaulay 1919 1993 was an evangelist who traveled throughout the world holding large crusades in the late 1940s and 1950s He was instrumental in encouraging his son in law John Ankerberg to go into Christian television which he did in the late 1970s and continues to do today Letting Go Of Your Past John Loren Sandford,Paula Sandford,2013-10-22 The third book in The

John Colet on the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy of Dionysius Daniel J. Niles,Daniel Lochman,2013-09-26 The commentary of John Colet 1467 1519 on Dionysius the Areopagite s Ecclesiastical Hierarchy adapts a work widely neglected by medieval theologians to the early sixteenth century Dionysius s apostolic model allowed Colet to set ecclesiastical corruption against the ideas for re forming the mind as well as the church The commentary reveals Colet s fascination with the Kabbalah and re emergent Galenism but it subordinates all to harmonizing Dionysius and his supposed teacher Paul This first new edition in almost 150 years and first edition of the complete manuscript is edited critically translated expertly and provided with an apparatus that advances historical theological and rhetorical contexts It resituates study of Colet by identifying a coherent center for his theology and agenda for reform in Tudor England Revelation Allen Daves,2013-12-12 The book of Revelation offers us an interesting theological dilemma It states Rev 22 16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches Revelation also states it is the true sayings of Jesus and that it is the testimony of Christ If this is not the gospel of Jesus Christ then what is it and should we consider it accursed testimony of an angel If it is not to be considered accursed then it cannot be some other gospel message then what was already given previously However this is the conundrum for if this is the gospel message then why do so few understand it There is a possibility which few consider but is the overall thesis of this apology The reason people don't understand revelation is because they never understood what the gospel message was in the first place In that case where does that put those who claim it is not essential for salvation Do you not find it quite curious that the most Personally given NT book By Jesus himself is the least understood and given the least importance for Salvation in Christendom There are numerous preachers and bible exegetes but as Paul said I bear them record that they have a zeal of God but not according to knowledge Most who profess the name of Christ are feeding on doctrines of devils and the ignorant There are without question many qualified teachers and scholars with many years of dedication and solid education However teachers no matter how well lettered or numbered in degrees if obtained from others who are just as equally ignorant in such matters are just blind leaders of the blind And if the blind lead the blind both shall fall into the ditch

Reincarnation & Hyperlink Theory Carlos Ruiz Poleo, 2013-03-28 A vision type dream on someone so far unknown to him and a series of personal experiences shatter the religious convictions of the author of this book as he struggles for more than twenty years to find a logical explanation for inter connected events and premonitory dreams In the search for his possible connection with the man in the dream an ex president of the USA he analyzed several theories and finally found one that suggest another world and the existence of one life or many others beyond this one Straining against all that he had previously believed he initially discounts the possibility of reincarnation but after countless discards and rejections he finally accepts it as being the only rational explanation to the doubts presented In a process of past life regression inexplicable new evidence and memories appear which are later corroborated However he blatantly refuses to accept these memories as being his own because there is no scientific approach to justify their existence in his mind as there had been no regular inputs or physical recording process in the brain which could account for their presence As a result of this a theory forms in the authors mind which he refers to as Hyperlink which could offer a rational explanation for the possible access to remote memories of past lives and opens in the process a window on a world without the limits of time or space one in which reincarnation links all

Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection However since the Second World War Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today s Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God It then goes onto suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully By bringing Pentecostalism s function in South African society to the fore this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity As such it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as those working in African Studies

Hospitable God Allen Smith, Professor George Newlands, 2013-06-28 Exploring the hospitality of God and its implications for human thought and action this book examines the concepts of hospitality as cognitive tools for reframing our thinking about God divine action and human response in discipleship Hospitality is imagined as an interactive symbol changing perspectives and encouraging stable environments of compassionate construction in society Human rights are of crucial importance to the wellbeing of the people of our planet But there is a sense in which they will always be an emergency measure a response to evils as they are happening The authors argue that a hospitable comparative theology reaches out to bring Christian hospitality into the dialogue of world religions and cultures It will respect the identity of particular groups and yet will strive for a cosmopolitan sharing of common values It will respect tradition but also openness to reform and re imagining It will encourage convergence and development in a fluid stream of

committed hospitalities
