The St Martins Sourcebook For Writing Tutors:

The St. Martin's Sourcebook for Writing Tutors Christina Murphy, 1995 The St. Martin's Sourcebook for Writing Tutors Christina Murphy, Steve Sherwood, 2018-01-08 Online Teaching and Learning Carla Meskill, 2013-08-15 Online Teaching and Learning shows how learning through the internet depends on complex human interactions for success The text uses sociocultural theory as its foundational stance to empirically examine the dynamics of these interactions It seeks to understand meaning making in all of its social linguistic and cultural complexity Each chapter examines how it is that culturally and historically situated meanings get negotiated through social mediation in online instructional venues It extends the ways we think and talk about online teaching and learning Contextualizing English for Academic Purposes in Higher Education Ian Bruce, Bee Bond, 2022-07-28 This book highlights the centrality of political and ideological issues as they relate to the positioning and practice of English for Academic Purposes EAP demonstrating that EAP cannot flourish as a profession or a discipline without an awareness of the macro and meso level political shifts that impact the wider university The volume states that the practices of EAP are in fact political acts and examines these as yet unexplored power dynamics The volume begins by considering key influences that have shaped universities and their governance and management over the last three decades and how these relate to the role and practice of EAP These influences include neoliberal economic policies governmental demands for widening participation globalization entrepreneurial approaches to higher education students as clients and therapeutism in universities Following consideration of these broader contextual issues specific chapters focus on politics and policies surrounding the recruitment and participation of international fee paying students their positioning and identity within English medium universities including issues relating to English language standards and academic integrity Further chapters then consider more local influences that shape EAP programmes such as their strategic roles within universities their management their teaching and wider academic impact Facing the Center Harry C. Denny, 2010-03-15 In the diversity of their clients as well as their professional and student staff writing centers present a complicated set of relationships that inevitably affect the instruction they offer In Facing the Center Harry Denny unpacks the identity matrices that enrich teachable moments and he explores the pedagogical dynamics and implications of identity within the writing center The face of the writing center be it mainstream or marginal majority or minority orthodox or subversive always has implications for teaching and learning Facing the Center will extend current research in writing center theory to bring it in touch with theories now common in cultural studies curricula Denny takes up issues of power agency language and meaning and pushes his readers to ask how they themselves or the centers in which they work might be perpetuating cultures that undermine inclusive progressive education Cosmopolitan English and Transliteracy Xiaoye You, 2016-08-31 This book argues for a broad cosmopolitan perspective that emphasizes local as well as global forms of citizenship and identification and sees human connectedness as being deeply underpinned by various accents styles and uses of language in everyday practices Writing Centers and the New Racism Laura Greenfield, Karen Rowan, 2011-10-16 Motivated by a scholarly interest in race and whiteness studies and by an ethical commitment to anti racism work contributors address a series of questions related to institutionalized racism in American higher education especially in college and university writing centers Provided by publisher Teaching Writing in Middle and Secondary Schools Margot Soven, 1998 Handbook for English language arts teachers of students in grades 6 12 Expel the Pretender Eve Wiederhold, 2015-04-01 Political fights are not waged over who is speaking the truth but over whether any given claim seems to be authentic Expel the Pretender Rhetoric Renounced and the Politics of Style examines how rhetorical style influences judgments about how to communicate integrity and good will Eve Wiederhold argues that attitudes about style s significance to judgment are both undertheorized and over determined especially when style is regarded as an embellishment rather than as a constitutive aspect of language use Examining news reports covering controversial speakers including President Bill Clinton Linda Tripp and the Rev Jeremiah Wright she demonstrates how rhetorical style is both belittled and yet remains a focal point for assessing public figures who have been publicly rebuked and discredited Expel the Pretender claims style as a conflicted site of materiality critiquing contemporary rhetorical theories that configure style as a dependable resource for democratic inquiry Wiederhold argues that conceptions of style s significance to judgment must be reframed to understand how we make decisions about who and what to believe The Concise Guide to Teaching Composition Derek Soles, 2007 This concise guide for teaching college composition was written especially for writing teachers who are graduate teaching assistants or those whose academic preparation is in a discipline other than rhetoric and composition Completely research based and generously documented this practical guide boils down the most important composition theory and pedagogy into 17 brief practical chapters that will edify those who are new to the discipline and serve as a refresher to those who are more experienced Academic Futures iPED Research Network, 2009-05-27 This is a book of its time and one for its time So says Paul Trowler of Lancaster University in his Foreword to this edited collection of new work The book exemplifies the iPED Research Network s diversity exposing both the links and the boundaries between the higher education researchers involved their students and their institutions But as Professor Trowler goes on to say What all the chapters have in common is the rigorous and grounded approach based on evidence The fifteen contributed chapters are thematically divided into three sections Responding to Complexity authors from Australia Austria and the UK consider aspects of academic life as diverse as funding and intellectual pleasure Transforming Academic Identities views from the UK Eire and Denmark on evolving as an academic Pedagogy and Practice exemplars of approaches to teaching and learning that use innovative technologies and methods across varying educational contexts The Introduction by Professor Paul Blackmore of King s College London sets the scene Chapters are supplemented by commentary from critical friends providing alternative perspectives on the work by educational researchers from different disciplines institution types or nations Keywords are provided to encourage the reader to dip into the book according to their research interests On Location Candace Spigelman, Laurie Grobman, 2005 Classroom based writing tutoring is a distinct form of writing support a hybrid instructional method that engages multiple voices and texts within the college classroom Tutors work on location in the thick of writing instruction and writing activity On Location is the first volume to discuss this emerging practice in a methodical way The essays in this collection integrate theory and practice to highlight the alliances and connections on location tutoring offers while suggesting strategies for resolving its conflicts Contributors examine classroom based tutoring programs located in composition courses as well as in writing intensive courses across the disciplines Basic Writing in America Nicole Pepinster Greene, Patricia J. McAlexander, 2008 Basic Writing in America published three decades after Mina Shaughnessy's Errors and Expectations presents the kind of educational stories envisioned by The City University of New York's Patricia Laurence Each of these stories has its own unique setting conflict and outcome Yet together they give a powerful and dramatic portrait of basic writing in four year colleges and universities across the country In the Introduction the editors argue that basic writing programs involved a new concept of writing remediation Receiving impetus from the American civil rights movement these programs defined postsecondary education not in terms of an investment for society but as an individual right Indeed a major purpose of basic writing was to facilitate the integration of underrepresented groups into America's colleges and universities The chapters describe the often hostile responses to basic writing and its students the low status of basic writing programs within English departments and universities clashes within the basic writing field itself pedagogical developments in composition as applied to basic writing and the professionalization of basic writing faculty They also show as years pass the raising of college admission standards the elimination or downsizing of basic writing programs and the channeling of less qualified students to two year colleges But in a number of institutions there are also innovations and successes including the emergence of a new type of basic writing program one that is more integrated with the college or university and that offers learning support to a wider range of students Diversity and the Postsecondary Experience, 2015 Writing Analytically David Rosenwasser, Jill Stephen, 2000 Values Education Sourcebook Douglas P. Superka, 1976 Reading Student Writing Lad Tobin, 2004 Lad Tobin gets to the heart of teaching writing through a blend of humor memoir reflection classroom examples and student writing A Land We Can Share Paula Kluth, Kelly Chandler-Olcott, 2008 The how and why of teaching literacy skills to children with autism The Uses of Argument Daniel Farr, Ontario Society for the Study of Argumentation, 2005 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000
