TDR., 1996 Sade's Theatre Thomas Wynn, 2007 Sade's rehabilitation as a major Enlightenment writer has hitherto not extended to a re evaluation of his dramatic works With a theoretical framework inspired by psychoanalysis and dramatic theory and attentive to eighteenth century theoretical debates Thomas Wynn demonstrates the value of these neglected works This is the first study to consider the nature and implications of Sade's dramatic aesthetic and to define the erotic quality of spectatorship in his experimental plays Challenging the assumption that the gaze is sadistic the author uses insights from film theory to argue that Sade adapts contemporary theatrical texts and practice to create an aesthetic distinct from that of his novels Rather than replicate the style of such works as Les Cent vingt journées de Sodome Sade's drama anticipates a masochistic model as theorised by Theodor Reik and Gilles Deleuze This analysis of Sadean spectatorship takes a thematic rather than chronological or text by text approach The author argues that Sade as an atheist materialist focuses on the structural elements of theatre to produce visual pleasure rather than moral improvement and that he elaborates an insistently visual dramatic aesthetic a mode analogous to the linguistic saturation of the novels tout dire With reference to eighteenth century obscene drama theatre architecture and the history of visibility the author explores the paradox that Sade's theatre is meant not for the stage but for the private imagination His visionary theatre is an example of the late eighteenth century sublime an aesthetic of the ineffable and the unrepresentable which in its emphasis on the survival of the demeaned individual structurally resembles masochism Without deforming his technique or strategy the author shows that Sade's voluptuous theatre like his fiction addresses an individual whose sovereignty in a godless world is intimately linked to the independent imagination This book will be of interest to all those working in eighteenth century drama and theory of spectatorship
