Assessment in Christian Higher Education John D. Lee, 1994-05-31 This book poses the question being asked by many college administrators how can we know if the education promised in our mission statement is actually taking place Moreover both constituents and accrediting agencies are also asking colleges to demonstrate how and wherein goals are accomplished This volume in both practical and theological ways shows the current shape of this new area of scholarly concern It also takes some initial steps in charting the course of future research on assessment Back cover

CSSR Directory of Departments and Programs of Religious Studies in North America-1993 Edition David G. Truemper,1993-09 Beyond the Prosaic Stratford Caldecott,1998 Recent years have seen an unprecedented period of reform in the public worship of the Catholic Church Controversy over liturgical reform was focused in England by an international conference in 1996 which led to the formation of a Liturgy Forum and the issuing of the Oxford Declaration on Liturgy This book represents all the key elements from that important conference Encounter ,1993 Good Lord, Deliver Us Rowan Crews,2001 Coming to Christ Owen F. Cummings,1998 Coming to Christ provides a retrieval of the traditional Christian doctrine of eternal life through scripture and the history of theological reflection while presenting the liturgy as primary theology since it addresses God directly It traces back to Neanderthal man the reality of human hope that looks beyond death and demands final expression in eternal communion with God This book examines Christian eschatology which developed not only through the universal experience of mankind but through the Scriptures and in the reception of the scriptures in the tradition of reflection of the church The author discusses selectively representative Christian thinkers in the Patristic Medieval and Reformation periods exposing the similarities between them He then moves into the radically changed thinking of modern times beginning with Kant and the liberal nineteenth century Protestant theology as well as an examination of Protestant Catholic Anglican and Orthodox theologians to give a sense of range and scope of twentieth century eschatology Also addressed are the contemporary issues of reincarnation from a Christian perspective along with feminist and ecological eschatologies The Catholic Biblical Quarterly Wendell Stephen Reilly,1992 Includes various reports of the Association An Annotated Bibliography of Church Music Jason M. Runnels,2003 The purpose and scope of this bibliography is to survey the literature concerning church music primarily in publications from 1980 to the present while including materials that have been published and serve as primary resources earlier than that The emphasis is on Protestant church music largely those published in the English language The selected lists include over 700 titles and contain citations with annotations of reference works and bibliographies The annotations offer an indication of the scope content and special features of each work This study will fill the research and reference needs of music students scholars and church musicians as well as providing research and college libraries with a reference for building their church music collections CURRENT CONTENTS ,1994 The Biblical Archaeologist George Ernest Wright, Frank Moore Cross, Edward Fay Campbell, Floyd Vivian Filson,1992 Letter and Spirit Scott Hahn,2006 The extraordinary vision and panache of Scott Hahn s books have made Catholic theology thrilling and accessible for millions of readers inside and far beyond the boundaries of the Church In his new book Letter and Spirit

he goes further and deeper than ever before in revealing the meaning and power of both the Bible and the liturgy showing how in the Mass the saving truths of Scripture are not just proclaimed but actualised Old Testament Abstracts ,1992
