Farewell to Shulamit Carsten Wilke, 2017-04-10 The Song of Songs a lyric cycle of love scenes without a narrative plot has often been considered as the Bible's most beautiful and enigmatic book The present study questions the still dominant exegetical convention that merges all of the Song's voices into the dialogue of a single couple its composite heroine Shulamit being a projection screen for norms of womanhood An alternative socio spatial reading starting with the Hebrew text's strophic patterns and its references to historical realia explores the poem's artful alternation between courtly urban rural and pastoral scenes with their distinct characters The literary construction of social difference juxtaposes class specific patterns of consumption mobility emotion power structures and gender relations This new image of the cycle as a detailed poetic frieze of ancient society eventually leads to a precise hypothesis concerning its literary and religious context in the Hellenistic age as well as its geographical origins in the multiethnic borderland east of the Jordan In a Jewish echo of anthropological skepticism the poem emphasizes the plurality and relativity of the human condition while praising the communicative powers of pleasure fantasy and multifarious Eros

A Cultural History of Plants in Antiquity Annette Giesecke, 2023-12-14 A Cultural History of Plants in Antiquity covers the period from 10 000 BCE to 500 CE This period witnessed the transition from hunter gatherer subsistence to the practice of agriculture in Mesopotamia and elsewhere and culminated in the fall of the Roman Empire the end of the Han Dynasty in China the rise of Byzantium and the first flowering of Mayan civilization Human uses for and understanding of plants drove cultural evolution and were inextricably bound to all aspects of cultural practice The growth of botanical knowledge was fundamental to the development of agriculture technology medicine and science as well as to the birth of cities the rise of religions and mythologies and the creation of works of literature and art The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Plants presents the first comprehensive history of the uses and meanings of plants from prehistory to today The themes covered in each volume are plants as staple foods plants as luxury foods trade and exploration plant technology and science plants and medicine plants in culture plants as natural ornaments the representation of plants Annette Giesecke is Professor of Classics at the University of Delaware USA Volume 1 in the Cultural History of Plants set General Editors Annette Giesecke University of Delaware USA and David Mabberley University of Oxford UK
