Theology Against Religion Constructive Dialogues With Bonhoeffer And Barth:

Theology against Religion Tom Greggs, 2011-10-27 This book asks the question what is religion from a theological perspective In an age in which religion has reasserted itself on national and international stages Theology against Religion argues that we should take seriously the critique of religion and engage with that critique theologically The book argues that theologizing the critique of religion was central to the theological purposes of Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer and that Barth and Bonhoeffer should be seen as traveling along the same trajectory in terms of their theological approaches to religion It is this trajectory that this book seeks to explore in thinking with and beyond Bonhoeffer and by identifying a series of themes around which construction engagements can take place The result is an exciting series of discussions which take seriously the interplay of the religious the secular pluralism and the concept of God with chapters on salvation the church the public square and other faiths Bonhoeffer and Christology Matthias Grebe, Nadine Hamilton, Christian

Schlenker, 2023-05-18 The key question this volume addresses is how does Bonhoeffer's thought help to rediscover the doctrine of Christ's two natures and one person and understand and renew it in its significance for a modern post metaphysical and secular world The volume takes a fresh look at Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christology and brings it into a fruitful dialogue with current Christological debates In a multi perspectival pluralistic world Bonhoeffer's thinking offers a productive basis for conceptually incorporating the openness required for this task into academic theology Bonhoeffer's theology offers a starting point for the recovery of a productive Christology that reflects the plurality of the globalized world as Bonhoeffer's Christology begins precisely with this integration into worldly reality whereby the world is understood in its plurality and polyphony In this way he characterizes his enterprise as follows What keeps gnawing at me is the question what is Christianity or who is Christ actually for us today DBWE 8 362 Accordingly it opens itself up not only to inner Christian discussion but also to non Christian worldviews from which a basic ethical demand follows Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Refuting Carl Schmitt's Decision Karola Radler, 2025-06-26 Radler examines Bonhoeffer's and Schmitt's intellectual paradigms of thought of theology and jurisprudence Whilst both thinkers encounter constitutional institutional models they arrive at opposing conclusions and actions This book tackles how they approach the indicators for a decision of choices between alternatives the urgency of resolving the problems at hand the intended goal and the following active manifestation in Christ Radler reveals how Schmitt's form of Decision resting on a linear model of history abstracts metaphysical content from objective normative evaluation and in support of a human personality representing the idea of Christ elevates the significance of the self over content and subject in structural analogy to theological dogma On the other hand Bonhoeffer's theology repudiates Schmitt's political jurisprudential position contesting that history ultimately focuses on leading to human wholeness through reconciliation Karl Barth in Conversation W. Travis McMaken, David W. Congdon, 2014-02-18 Karl Barth was an eminently conversational theologian and with the Internet revolution we live today in an eminently conversational age Being the proceedings of the 2010 Karl Barth Blog Conference Karl Barth in Conversation brings these two factors together in order to advance the dialogue about Barth's theology and extend the online conversation to new audiences With conversation partners ranging from Wesley to Hick from Schleiermacher to Jenson from Hauerwas to the Coen brothers this volume opens up exciting new horizons for exploring Barth's immense contribution to church and world The contributors who represent a young new generation of academic theologians bring a fresh perspective to a topic the theology of Karl Barth that often seems to have exhausted its range of possibilities This book proves that there is still a great deal of uncharted territory in the field of Barth studies Today more than forty years since the Swiss theologian's death the conversation is as lively as ever

Reframing Personalism in Karl Barth Sara Mannen, 2025-10-13 Sara Mannen in her book rejects the notion that Karl Barth's theology makes God in the image of the modern autonomous subject and argues that his concept of divine personhood is best understood when reframed through the intellectual context that resulted from the Pantheism Controversy which explicitly revolved around issues of the knowledge and nature of God and divine personhood The work of Mendelssohn Jacobi Fichte Herder and Schelling created an environment that necessitated theologians address the concepts of divine personhood divine absoluteness and modern questions of theological epistemology Mannen argues that Barth's distinctly modern conception of divine personhood reflects and responds to this environment by providing the necessary divine ontological foundation that establishes God is capable of self-revelation without detriment to God's absoluteness and that Barth's motivation for the occasional use of counterfactual language is to maintain God's personal nature and identity

Karl Barth's Theology as a Resource for a Christian Theology of Religions Sven Ensminger, 2014-08-28 This book uses Karl Barth's theology as a resource for Christian theology of religions For this purpose it examines Barth's theology under the doctrinal aspects of revelation revelation and religion theological anthropology and election addressing questions such as the possibility of and context for revelation Barth's understanding of religion the theological approach to the human being and soteriology Furthermore Barth's thought is put into conversation with other approaches in the field of theology of religions notably Karl Rahner's inclusivism and John Hick and the pluralist paradigm It is shown that Barth's theological system as a whole can serve as a resource for the Christian approach to and interaction with those of other faiths or no faith at all This is achieved through maintaining a balance between the commitment to the own faith and the openness to the sovereignty of God impacting the whole of creation Central to Barth's approach is the challenge to the Christian community to see their presuppositions challenged in the most unexpected circumstances while looking beyond human categories to affirm the dignity bestowed upon all of humanity through the divine Yes in the person Jesus Christ Barth's theology with its starting point in the person of Jesus Christ is advocated as a framework for the members of the Christian community as they live alongside those with a different faith from their own

Postcolonial Theology of Religions Jenny Daggers,2013-07-18 This original and ambitious book considers the terms of engagement between Christian theology and other religious traditions beginning with criticism of Christian theology of religions as entangled with European colonial modernity Jenny Daggers covers recent efforts to disentangle Eurocentrism from the meeting of the religions and investigates new constructive possibilities arising in the postcolonial context In dialogue with Asian and feminist theologies she reflects on ways forward for relations between the religions and offers a particularist model for theology of religions standing within a classical Trinitarian framework

Karl Barth on Prayer Ashley Cocksworth,2015-08-27 Ashley Cocksworth presents Karl Barth as a theologian who not only produces a strong and vibrant theology of prayer but also grounds theology itself in the practice of prayer Prayer and theology are revealed to be integrally related in Barth s understanding of the dogmatic task Cocksworth provides careful analysis of a range of key texts in Barth s thought in which the theme of prayer emerges with particular interest He analyzes Barth s writings on the Sabbath and uncovers an unexpected theology of contemplative prayer the doctrine of creation of the Church Dogmatics and explores its prioritization of petitionary prayer and the ethics of the doctrine of reconciliation in which a turn to invocation is charted and the final resting place of Barth s theology of prayer is found Through the theme of prayer fundamental questions are asked about the relation of human agency to divine agency as conceived by Barth and new insights are offered into his understandings of the nature and task of theology pneumatology sin baptism religion and sanctification The result is a rich engagement with Barth s theology of prayer an advancements of scholarship on Karl Barth and a constructive contribution to the theology of prayer

Bearing Sin as Church Community Hyun Joo Kim,2022-07-28 Hyun Joo Kim claims that Bonhoeffer transforms and reconstructs the Augustinian doctrine of original sin by shifting the hamartiological premise from the doctrine of God to the doctrine of the church based on his Lutheran resources In Bonhoeffer's view Augustine's doctrine of original sin does not fully relate the doctrine of sin to the responsibility of the saints In order to reform Augustinian hamartiology Bonhoeffer appropriates Augustine's notion of the church as the whole Christ totus Christus which is located in Augustine's ecclesiology Kim explicates how Augustine relates his epistemological premises in his Christianized Platonism to his formulation of the doctrine of original sin and examines how Luther's Christocentric standpoint transforms Augustine's anthropology and ultimately leads Luther to his relational hamartiology Kim contends that Bonhoeffer's later hamartiology and ethics contain the most distinctive characteristics of Bonhoeffer's doctrine of sin in that he not only incorporates both the active and passive dimensions of sin but also intensifies his continuing notion of vicarious representative action towards the church community

Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier A. Garcia, 2019-10-14 In Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier Garcia explores the possibilities for Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology to revitalize interest in the ecumenical movement and Christian unity today. Although many commentators have lamented the waning interest in the ecumenical movement since the 1960s, the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in 2017 coupled with recent inroads such as the ecumenical efforts of Pope Francis have opened new possibilities for the ecumenical project. In this context, Garcia presents Bonhoeffer as a helpful model for contemporary ecumenical dialogue. He finds important points of convergence between Bonhoeffer and Calvin, thereby establishing potential areas of rapprochement between the Lutheran and Reformed traditions. Beyond examining the state of ecumenism and unfolding the ecumenical promise of Bonhoeffer's thought, Garcia assesses the future of ecumenical engagement in a secular age. Altogether, he proposes a recovery of the ecumenical Bonhoeffer for envisioning new possibilities for church unity in our day.

Theologically Engaged Anthropology J. Derrick Lemons, 2018-08-23 After years of discussion within the field of anthropology concerning how to properly engage with theology, a growing number of anthropologists now want to engage with theology as a counterpart in ethnographic dialogue. Theologically Engaged Anthropology focuses on the theological history of anthropology, illuminating deeply held theological assumptions that humans make about the nature of reality and illustrating how these theological assumptions manifest themselves in society. This volume brings together leading anthropologists and theologians to consider what theology can contribute to cultural anthropology and ethnography. It provides anthropologists and theologians with a rationale and framework for using theology in anthropological research.
