Theories Of Child Abuse And Neglect Differential Perspectives Summaries And Evaluations:

Handbook of Empirical Social Work Practice, Volume 2 John S. Wodarski, Bruce A. Thyer, 1998-01-29 Covers key social problems and practice related issues The last two decades in social work have seen tremendous strides in field research from the development of improved research designs to more accurate methods of problem measurement and outcome analysis Drawing upon these significant advances the two volume handbook of Empirical Social Work Practice brings together empirically validated interventions for many of the psychosocial problems most frequently encountered by social workers in their daily practice Unlike other books in the field that employ a theory based approach to treatment this handbook focuses on the best supported methods of helping clients with particular problems irrespective of theoretical biases offering clinicians a valuable compendium of practice guidelines for treatment Edited and authored by recognized experts in the field the Handbook of Empirical Social Work Practice is clearly written and organized for easy reference Volume Two covers key social problems and practice related issues including Crime homelessness and unemployment Domestic violence and sexual abuse Family conflict and preservation Practice approaches for older clients Empirically based supervision With information that is at once accessible and up to date the Handbook of Empirical Social Work Practice is a vital source of guidance for today's clinical social workers and other practicing mental health professionals as well as students One of the best tools to promote the values of the social work profession is that of empirical social work practice Telling the truth is one of these values and discovering the truth is something that empirical research is very good at This book presents credible reviews of contemporary empirical literature pertaining to selected behavioral affective and intellectual disorders and their psychosocial assessment and treatment That such a book is now possible is a striking affirmation of the merits of the approach to social work called empirical clinical practice from the Handbook of Empirical Social Work Practice

Theories of Child Abuse and Neglect Oliver C. S. Tzeng, Jay W. Jackson, Henry Karlson, 1991-05-30 This book was prepared under the impetus of desperate need in academic institutions and clinical and social services for a comprehensive introduction to the diverse theories about child abuse and neglect etiologies During the past three decades professionals in different occupational fields have been actively involved in the identification intervention treatment and prevention of child victimization and its detrimental consequences This book describes summarizes and evaluates more than 40 of the theoretical viewpoints that have been proposed in the literature and used for clinical practice as well as academic research

Assessing Dangerousness Jacquelyn C. Campbell, 2007-05-25 This updated edition of the classic book on risk assessment presents the latest research regarding the prediction of interpersonal violence In clear and accessible language the authors address the specific variables involved in the prediction of child abuse and homicide as well as intimate partner violence and homicide This edition also presents an important revision of Campbell's ground breaking intimate partner homicide lethality risk instrument the Danger Assessment All of the contributors to this multidisciplinary volume have faced the difficult task of assessing the risk of family violence in a wide variety of settings courts clinics shelters emergency rooms protective service offices schools batterer intervention programs violence prevention programs and more Their combined experience in research and practice makes this an indispensable resource for all clinicians required to make predictions about violent behavior Key features of this new edition include Coverage of a wide breadth of clinical and court situations requiring threat assessments A review of the latest assessment instruments New findings on predicting fatal child abuse Legal and ethical issues in risk assessment Psychology, Human Growth and Development for Social Work Emma Zara O'Brien,2020-04-09 This exciting new edition is an engaging and accessible introduction to understanding human behaviour and development from a psychological perspective Written by a psychologist with extensive teaching experience it offers a clear and systematic exploration of psychological concepts and research and discussion of their relevance for social work practice The psychological framework provides thematic coherence for a uniquely wide range of material from brain development to communication skills psychiatric diagnoses to forms of discrimination With a logical and intuitive structure it is perfect for Human Growth and Development modules and a range of other Social Work modules with psychological content enabling students to see how different elements of theory and research connect together for practical application

Motivation and Child Maltreatment David J. Hansen,2000-01-01 In this volume the concept of motivation is used to shed light on a range of complex issues surrounding the maltreatment of children Cathy Spatz Widom investigates the role of motivation in the intergenerational transmission of violence where victimized children themselves become perpetrators of violence as adults Joel S Milner looks at the way abusive parents process social information related to children The biological psychological and social contextual regulatory processes in maltreated children are considered by Dante Cicchetti and Sheree L Toth Deborah Daro discusses the current status of efforts to eliminate maltreatment of children and offers an alternative model for approaching the concept and practice of prevention John R Lutzker addresses the challenges of and procedures for applied research on the treatment of abusive parents In his concluding essay Ross A Thompson highlights the important themes focusing on child maltreatment that underlie this volume Advances in Child Abuse Prevention Knowledge Deborah Daro,Anne Cohn Donnelly, Lee Ann Huang, Byron J. Powell,2015-06-05 This book addresses new avenues in child abuse prevention research that will expand our capacity to protect children These new avenues result from the emergence of new research methods made possible through technologic advances an understanding of the benefits of cross disciplinary research and learning and the entrance of many young scholars in the field The book explores what these avenues produce in terms of clarifying the complex problems that continue to limit our progress in addressing child maltreatment and promoting optimal child development Specifically the book showcases individual contributions from emerging scholars and show how these scholars use the frameworks and advanced methods to shape their work apply their findings and define their learning communities The book highlights the benefits of creating explicit and extended opportunities for researchers to network across disciplines and areas of interest The primary authors are young scholars from universities across the U S who have worked together as Fellows of the Doris Duke Fellowships for the Promotion of Child Well Being seeking innovations to prevent child abuse Through this program the Fellows have engaged in a robust self generating learning network designed to create the type of ongoing professional linkages and decision making style that fosters an interdisciplinary and team planning approach to research design and policy formation Forensic Nursing Kelly M. Pyrek,2006-01-13 Written by an award winning investigative journalist with more than twenty years of experience Forensic Nursing takes an objective yet engaging look at a profession that according to the author is only for those with a strong stomach a pure heart and a quick mind It presents the personal experiences and perspectives of forensic nurses that w

Challenges of Living Elizabeth D. Hutchison,Holly C. Matto,Marcia P. Harrigan,Leanne W. Charlesworth,Pamela A. Viggiani,2007-04-20 This timely text draws on interdisciplinary theory and research to examine the multidimensional risk and protective factors for eight challenges of living frequently encountered by social workers The authors provide a working model for social workers to integrate the most up to date evidence about challenges of living they face in their daily practice Using a multidimensional biopsychosocial spiritual perspective the book examines etiology course and intervention strategies related to these eight challenges of living The Child in Child Welfare and the Courts ,2006 Assessing Dangerousness Jacquelyn Campbell,1995 Research and clinical expertise are brought together in this practical volume to examine whether the following violence can be predicted battered women being killed by their partners battered women killing their partners children being physically and or sexually abused and sexual offenders and batterers re offending Following an introduction to theoretical and clinical issues involved in the prediction of violence the contributors present research and theory in language that is accessible to clinicians They discuss accurate measurement using tested instruments the role of clinical observations and health and judicial implications Boston College Environmental Affairs Law Review Boston College.
