Theory and Method in Religious Studies Frank Whaling,2012-10-25 This paperback edition contains selected articles from the original clothbound editions of Contemporary Approaches to The Study of Religion Vol I The Humanities Vol II The Social Sciences Religion and Reason 27 28 Theory and Method in the Study of Religion Carl Olson,2003 This anthology provides students with a useful collection of theoretical essays concerning the nature of religion and the methodological means by which scholars analytically approach the subject Organized in a point counterpoint fashion this volume will foster in class discussion and the honing of a student s own critical perspectives The Sacred and Its Scholars Thomas A. Idinopulos,Edward A. Yonan,1996 This volume of essays is devoted to a careful examination of the importance of methodology in the study of primary religious data The essays focus on the Sacred as an ultimate object of descriptive analysis and critical scrutiny on the part of a select number of North American and European methodologists in the study and teaching of the history of religions and its allied disciplines The central question to which the contributors respond are these What is the Sacred Is it a being or a concept of a being is it a mental state or an objective reality or something else entirely Can the Sacred be described as an empirical fact or as a formal rule for religious inquiry If the Sacred is a valid category in the study and teaching of religion then what can be said about the antithesis of the sacred namely the profane or the secular This volume probes these questions with great care in order to justify a number of ways the Sacred can be construed as an indispensable notion for the study and teaching of religion Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion Jacques Waardenburg,2017-01-23 Waardenburg s magisterial essay traces the rise and development of the academic study of religion from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century outlining the establishment of the discipline its connections with other fields religion as a subject of research and perspectives on a phenomenological study of religion Furthermore a second part comprises an anthology of texts from 41 scholars whose work was programmatic in the evolution of the academic study of religion Each chapter presents a particular approach theory and method relevant to the study of religion The pieces selected for this volume were taken from the discipline of religious studies as well as from related fields such as anthropology sociology and psychology to name a few My Revision Notes: AQA AS Religious Studies: Religion and Ethics and Philosophy of Religion Richard Gray,Peter Cole,2013-02-08 Unlock your full potential with this revision guide which provides both the key content you need to know and guidance on how to apply it for better grades My Revision Notes AQA AS Religious Studies Religion and Ethics and Philosophy of Religion helps you to stay motivated and focused during your revision and gives you the opportunity to practise and refine your skills to achieve the best grade in your exam Breaks down all topics into short sections easy to read and revise from Exam style practice questions help confidence with the exam Issues arising section specifically helps prepare for AQA AS RS AO2 questions Concise notes clear layout and colourful features keep you engaged You can check your learning with the test yourself questions and tick box design Muslims as Actors

Jacques Waardenburg, 2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourses to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such Theological Encyclopaedia and Methodology George Richard Crooks, John Fletcher Hurst, Karl Rudolf Hagenbach, 1894 Understanding Theories of Religion Ivan Strenski, 2015-02-09 Featuring comprehensive updates and additions the second edition of Understanding Theories of Religion explores the development of major theories of religion through the works of classic and contemporary figures A new edition of this introductory text exploring the core methods and theorists in religion spanning the sixteenth century through to the latest theoretical trends Features an entirely new section covering religion and postmodernism race sex and gender and religion and postcolonialism Examines the development of religious theories through the work of classic and contemporary figures from the history of anthropology sociology psychology philosophy and theology Reveals how the study of religion evolved in response to great cultural conflicts and major historical events Student friendly features include chapter introductions and summaries biographical vignettes a timeline a glossary and many other learning aids

Methodological Issues in Religious Studies Wilfred Cantwell Smith, 1975 The Cumulative Book Index, 1912 A world list of books in the English language Religion, Theory, Critique Richard King, 2017-07-18 Religion Theory Critique is an essential tool for learning about theory and method in the study of religion Leading experts engage with contemporary and classical theories as well as non Western cultural contexts Unlike other collections this anthology emphasizes the dynamic relationship between religion as an object of study and different methodological approaches and openly addresses the question of the manifold ways in which religion secular and culture are imagined within different disciplinary horizons This volume is the first textbook which seeks to engage discussion of classical approaches with contemporary cultural and critical theories Contributors write on the influence of the natural sciences in the study of religion the role of European Christianity in modeling theories of religion religious experience and the interface with cognitive science the structure and function of religious language the social scientific study of religion ritual in religion the
