The Worship Sourcebook:

Worship Sourcebook, The John D. Witvliet, Emily Brink, 2004-07-01 It can be difficult to find fresh new resources for the traditional church's worship planning needs Every new book and resource seems to have a contemporary spin on it So what is a traditional church to do The Worship Sourcebook is the newest and most substantial resource available for the traditional or liturgical church's worship service needs Filled with beautiful prepared prayers stirring liturgies and useful service plans The Worship Sourcebook is an essential tool for any church looking to freshen up its resources without changing its worship style The companion CD contains the entire text of the 800 page book for easy cutting and pasting into bulletins overheads and orders of worship The Worship Sourcebook is a global resource aimed at evangelical churches open to prepared prayers and service plans in their worship planning

Caring Worship Howard D. Vanderwell, 2017-11-06 In a perfect world we might expect that all worshipers would be ready for a worship service of thorough praise and adoration But that is not the case Those who come for worship bring with them all the cares anxieties and stresses of life in this broken world All are needy people Some will find help for those needs in the pastor's office during a one on one conversation some may find it in a pastoral call but many will never experience either of those The opportunity to minister to their needs will occur during that special time when all are gathered for worship The sermon has received much attention as the avenue for help with their hurts but what about the liturgy This book takes a new and fresh look at the worship liturgy It insists that the liturgy regardless of denomination or style is not merely preparatory to the main event the sermon but is rather the time in which the worshiper can be healthily cared for The worshiper who comes before the face of God should be able to expect help care and healing Blessed are the Pastors and worship planners who develop a sensitive concern for the care that worshipers come expecting
