The writer's presence Donald McQuade, 2000 Teaching Creative Writing to Second Language Learners Ryan Thorpe, 2021-12-20 This timely and accessible book offers engaging guidance to teachers of second language students on teaching creative writing in their classrooms Creative writing is a tool that can inspire second language learners to write more play with language and enjoy and improve not only their writing but also their speaking listening and reading skills Addressing the expectations and perceptions of writing in another language Thorpe demonstrates how to foster successful creative writing environments and teach and assess creative writing in a way that is tailored to the distinct needs of non native speakers Covering key topics such as cultural storytelling voice genre and digital composition assessment and more Thorpe shares successful creative writing instructional practices informed by current research in creative writing and second language education Each chapter includes insights advice and student examples that can help new teachers take their first steps in more reflective second language creative writing classroom An invaluable resource for instructors of non native students and an ideal text for pre service teachers in courses in TESOL writing instruction and applied linguistics this book invites you to use creative writing not only as a successful method for teaching L2 writing but also as a way to improve student motivation and output for more effective language learning

Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy JAC ,2005 The Writer's Presence Donald McQuade,1999-06-01 Crafting Presence Nicole B. Wallack,2017-06-01 Essays are central to students and teachers development as thinkers in their fields In Crafting Presence Nicole B Wallack develops an approach to teaching writing with the literary essay that holds promise for writing students as well as for achieving a sense of common purpose currently lacking among professionals in composition creative writing and literature Wallack analyzes examples drawn primarily from volumes of The Best American Essays to illuminate the most important quality of the essay as a literary form the writer s presence She demonstrates how accounting for presence provides a flexible and rigorous heuristic for reading the contexts formal elements and purposes of essays Such readings can help students learn writing principles practices and skills for crafting myriad presences rather than a single voice Crafting Presence holds serious implications for writing pedagogy by providing new methods to help teachers and students become more insightful and confident readers and writers of essays At a time when liberal arts education faces significant challenges this important contribution to literary studies composition and creative writing shows how an essay centered curriculum empowers students to show up in the world as public thinkers who must shape the knowledge economy of the twenty first century Southern African Linguistics and Applied Language Studies ,2007 Reading and comprehension academically speaking. How to find and make connections between the lines. Per le Scuole superiori Margaret Percy,2005 Our Times Robert Atwan,1998-02-15 Like its best selling predecessors the fifth edition of Our Times is built entirely around very contemporary selections from a wide variety of very recent periodicals on intriguing topics of very current interest more than ninety percent published since 1996 With a new profile of the Class of 2000 based on UCLA s national survey of college freshmen the fifth edition of Our Times does even more to get students talking about where they stand in relation to their peers as well as to professional writers And with plenty of selections that can be used as models and an even stronger focus on writing in the unique apparatus Our Times shows students how to turn lively discussion about personal and public issues into effective writing *Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ...
