The Business School Approach to Writing Your Novel Lecturer in English Michael Davies, Sol, 2010-11 One of the hardest things in the world to accomplish is getting a book written This manual describes a methodology adapted from well tried business principles and has been used with great success in schools both senior and primary with seniors classes and with informal groups It will get you over the hurdles of developing a plot creating powerful characters and controlling the process right through to the magical moment when you write The End on the final page It is not a regular creative writing manual but a methodology to get a book developed and written

ABOUT THE AUTHOR The author Michael Davies is a retired IT executive with a writing career spanning two decades He has a Masters Degree in Business Administration and is the founder of the Mickie Dalton Foundation a literary funding organization for writers Since 2002 he has lived in New South Wales

100 Great American Novels You've (Probably) Never Read Karl Bridges, 2007-09-30 From Elizabeth Stoddard s The Morgesons and Anzia Yzierska s The Bread Givers to Laurie Colwin s Shine On Bright and Dangerous Object and Chet Raymo s The Dork of Cork here are some of the forgotten gems of American literature Bridges has compiled a diverse list of 100 American novels published between 1797 and 1997 and worthy of the title great Although the idea is to bring light to the obscure these titles are physically accessible to readers either in print or represented in library collections and available through library loan

The Lawyers Reports Annotated, Book 1-70, 1905

Fin-de-Siècle Splendor Dewei Wang, 1997 The reigning view of literary historians has been that the May Fourth movement of 1919 marks the division between the traditional and the modern in Chinese literature This book argues that signs of reform and innovation can be discerned long before May Fourth and that as China entered the arena of modern international history in the late Qing it was already developing its own complex matrix of incipient modernities It demonstrates that late Qing fiction nurtured a creative innovative poetics one that was spurned by the reformers of the May Fourth generation in favor of Western style realism The author recognizes that a full account of modern Chinese fiction needs to ask why so many genres styles themes and figures found in late imperial fiction were repressed by modern Chinese literary discourse He focuses on four genres of late Qing fiction that have been either rudely dismissed in pejorative terms or simply ignored depravity romances court case and chivalric cycles grotesque exposés and scientific fantasies The author shows that in spite of the realist orthodoxy that has dominated Chinese literature since the May Fourth movement these unwelcome genres have continually found their way back into mainstream discourse their influence being increasingly evident in recent decades This first comprehensive study of late Qing fiction discusses more than sixty works at least half of which have rarely or never been dealt with by Western or Chinese scholars Richly informed by contemporary literary theory this book constitutes a polemical rethinking of the nature of Chinese literary and cultural modernity
