He and his female detective partner investigate a decades-old cop killing and uncover an old trail of deadly secrets while generating secrets of their own. Roy's wife Amber is newly graduated from the LAPD academy and her probationary training leaves her with little time to be concerned about her home life, which hangs by a thread. Her first noteworthy arrest uncovers a trail of clues leading to a mystery centered on a stripper and her brother. As personal implications and consequences mount, the shocking revelations may end everyone's career if not their lives.

For the two LAPD officers, anger and fear replace the cordial relationship they'd crafted during their separation. Bitter resentment ignites as the investigation reveals they were both culpable in their son's disappearance. Word on the street reveals a notorious pimp is selling young children to the highest bidder. Roy and Amber must delve into the depraved world of child trafficking and prostitution to have any chance of saving their son. Can they beat the clock before their son is gone forever?

Cheap Land Colorado. Ted Conover, 2024-07-30. From Pulitzer Prize finalist and National Book Critics Circle Award-winning author of Newjack: a passage through an America lived wild and off the grid, where along with independence and stunning views come fierce winds, neighbors with criminal pasts, and minimal government and medical services. In these dispatches, Conover invites readers to ride shotgun along an unraveling edge of the American West where sepia-toned myths about making a fresh start collide with modern modes of alienation, volatility, and exile. In a nation whose edges have come to define its center, this is essential reading.

Jessica Bruder, author of Nomadland. Surviving America in the Twenty-First Century. In May 2017, Ted Conover went to Colorado to explore firsthand a rural way of life that is about living cheaply on your own land and keeping clear of the mainstream. The failed subdivisions of the enormous San Luis Valley make this possible. Five-acre lots on the high prairie can be had for five thousand dollars sometimes less Conover volunteered for a local group trying to prevent homelessness during the bitter winters He encountered an unexpected diversity veterans with PTSD families homeschooling addicts young and old gay people people of color lovers of guns and marijuana people with social anxiety most of them spurning charity and aiming and sometimes failing to be self sufficient And more than a few predicting they ll be the last ones standing when society collapses Conover bought his own five acres and immersed himself for parts of four years in the often contentious culture of the far margins He found many who dislike the government but depend on its subsidies who love their space but nevertheless find themselves in each other s business who are generous but wary of thieves who endure squalor but appreciate beauty In their struggles to survive and get along they tell us about an America riven by difference where the edges speak more and more loudly to the mainstream
