Chinese Outbound Tourism 2.0 Xiang (Robert) Li, 2016-02-03 Booming Mainland Chinese outbound travel is one of the most exciting phenomena in the world tourism industry s recent history From 2000 to 2010 Chinese outbound travel increased at a compounded annual rate of 18.5 percent and it is forecasted that by 2020 China will generate approximately 100 million outbound trips a year making China the fourth

Marketing Places and Spaces Antónia Correia, Juergen Gnoth, Metin Kozak, Alan Fyall, 2015-07-08 Marketing Places and Spaces brings context to the forefront for advancing theory and management sensemaking in understanding the influences of marketing on tourism behavior This book is for tourism professionals and educators seeking deep knowledge of how visiting places transforms the lives of visitors a nonfiction version of Eat Pray Love

Tourism and Poverty Regina Scheyvens, 2012-03-28 Tourism and Poverty addresses a critical question facing many academics governments aid agencies tourism organizations and conservation bodies around the world can tourism work as a tool to overcome poverty This book is the first to present a focused description and critique of the issues surrounding poverty and tourism Relying on a wealth of primary data on tourism Regina Scheyvens supports her findings with novel case studies such as innovative partnerships between resorts and fledgling indigenous businesses in Fiji Oxfam s work to connect the agriculture and tourism sectors in the Caribbean and difficulties in alleviating poverty in the Maldives despite the growth of luxury tourism This book will challenge the way academics and tourism professionals understand the current and potential role of tourism in alleviating poverty

Political Economy of Tourism Jan Mosedale, 2010-01-11 Political economy in its various guises and transfigurations is a research philosophy that presents both social commentary and theoretical progress and is concerned with a number of different topics politics regulation and governance production systems social relations inequality and development amongst many others As a critical theory political economy seeks to provide an understanding of societies and of the structures and social relations that form them in order to evoke social change toward more equitable conditions Despite the early influence of critical development studies and political economy on tourism research political economy has received relatively little attention in tourism research

Political Economy and Tourism the first volume to bring together different theoretical perspectives and discourse in political economy related to tourism Written by leading scholars the text is organised into three sequential Parts linked by the principle that the political and the economic are intimately connected Part one presents different approaches to political economy including Marxist political economy regulation comparative political economy commodity chain research and alternative political economies Part two links key themes of political economy such as class gender labour development and consumption to tourism and Part three examines the political economy at various geographical scales and focuses on the outcomes and processes of the political act of planning and managing tourism production This engaging volume provides insights and alternative critical perspectives on political economy theory to expand discussions of tourism development and policy in the future Political Economy and Tourism is a valuable text for students researchers and academics interested in Tourism and related disciplines

The Middle Class in Neoliberal China Hai Ren, 2013-02-11 Since the late 1970s China's move towards neoliberalism has made it not only one of the world's fastest growing economies but also one of the most polarised states This economic social and political transformation has led to the emergence of a new Chinese middle class and understanding the development and the role of this new social group is crucial to understanding contemporary Chinese society Investigating the new politics of the middle class in China this book addresses three major questions First how does the Chinese state deal with problems of national sovereignty and political representation to create the middle class both as a legitimate category of the people and as an ideal norm of citizenship Second how does the recognition of the middle class norm take place in the practice of everyday life Finally what kind of risks does the politics of the middle class generate not only for middle class subjects but also for the disenfranchised In answering these questions this book examines a set of practices bodies of knowledge measures and institutions that aim to manage govern control and orient the behaviours gestures and thoughts of Chinese citizens This investigation contributes not only to the understanding of the Chinese middle class society but also to the scholarly debate over the relationship between governmental apparatuses subjectification and life building Drawing on ethnographic information historical archives and the media this book will be of great interest to students and scholars working in the fields of Chinese studies Chinese politics ethnic studies and urban studies as well as those interested in culture society class and welfare

Twin Cities John Garrard, Ekaterina Mikhailova, 2018-10-03 This dynamic international collection provides a comprehensive overview of twin cities on administrative and international borders across the world Drawing on contemporary and historical examples it documents constant and changing features of twinned communities over time The chapters explore a variety of urban formations including independent cities located side by side cities that have merged over decades or even centuries and those projected to merge cities partitioned by treaties and cities duplicated in pursuit of better security intensified trade or both between neighbouring countries From Europe to Africa North America to the Middle East South America to Asia this book focuses on relationships between cities citizens and municipal international borders A cartographical contents and editorial commentary guide readers through diverse contributions The authors ask how far cities are changing or remaining constant in the context of conurbanisation Europeanisation and globalization The book provides a glimpse into the variety of roles twin cities can play globally from laboratories of integration and para diplomatic actors to economic and cultural brokers This is a valuable engaging resource for researchers in the fields of geography urban studies border studies international relations and global development It will be of great use to individuals involved in twin city initiatives and general readers      Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries      Tourism and Sustainable Community Development Greg Richards, Derek R. Hall, 2003 As the tourist industry becomes increasingly important to communities around the world the need to develop tourism sustainably has also become a primary concern This collection of international case studies addresses this crucial issue by asking what local communities can contribute to sustainable tourism and what sustainability can offer local communities Individually these investigations present a wealth of original research and source material Collectively the book illuminates the term community the meaning of which it is argued is vital to understanding how sustainable tourism development can be implemented in practice      Living with Tourism Hazel Tucker, 2003 Redefining community and considering the effects tourism has on culture this detailed book delivers an ethnographic account of both the toured and touring community in Greme central Turkey Hazel Tucker presents an in depth analysis of the interactions between tourists the local community and place She demonstrates the implications that community ownership and participation in tourism have for the politics of representation and identity and also for the nature of the tourist experience Dealing with contentious theoretical issues related to globalization and culture Tucker challenges contemporary thinking relating to tourism authenticity and cultural sustainability and shows how together with host communities tourists themselves are continuously negotiating their own identities and experiences in interaction with the people and places they meet This fascinating book develops a dynamic notion of culture and tourism sustainability providing new insights not only for scholars of tourism but also for those in the areas of anthropology geography and social studies who wish to gain a deeper understanding of this global phenomenon in the contemporary world
