Hodkinson, Jeffrey Morrison, 2009 German language writings about Islam not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Islam has been a rich topic in German language literature since the middle ages and the writings about it not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Many of the early essays in this chronologically arranged volume uncover fresh evidence of how German writers used images of Islam as other to define their individual subject positions as well as to define the German nation and the Christian religion The perspectives of many contemporary writers are however far removed from such a polar opposition of cultures Their experience of the German Islamic encounter is complicated by a crucial factor many of them emerge from Muslim migrant communities such as the German Turkish community The culturally hybrid origins of these writers and their expression of experiences and ideologies that cross boundaries of East and West Christendom and Islam strongly affect the findings of the essays as the volume moves toward the present The texts discussed include travelogues and other firsthand encounters with Islam reports for colonial authorities aesthetic treatises on Islamic art literary essayistic and theological writing on Islamic religious practice the incorporation of characters situations and settings from the Islamic world into fiction or drama and fictional and autobiographical writing by Muslims in German Contributors Cyril Edwards Silke Falkner James Hodkinson Timothy R Jackson Margaret Littler Rachel MagShamr in Frauke Matthes Yomb May Jeffrey Morrison Kate Roy Monika Shafi Edwin Wieringa W Daniel Wilson Karin E Yesilada James Hodkinson is Assistant Professor of German at Warwick University Jeffrey Morrison is Senior Lecturer at the National University of Ireland Maynooth Tangata Whenua Atholl Anderson, Judith Binney, Aroha Harris, 2014-11-15 Tangata Whenua An Illustrated History charts the sweep of M ori history from ancient origins through to the twenty first century Through narrative and images it offers a striking overview of the past grounded in specific localities and histories The story begins with the migration of ancestral peoples out of South China some 5 000 years ago Moving through the Pacific these early voyagers arrived in Aotearoa early in the second millennium AD establishing themselves as tangata whenua in the place that would become New Zealand By the nineteenth century another wave of settlers brought new technology ideas and trading opportunities and a struggle for control of the land Survival and resilience shape the history as it extends into the twentieth century through two world wars the growth of an urban culture rising protest and Treaty settlements Today at the beginning of the twenty first century M ori are drawing on both international connections and their ancestral place in Aotearoa Fifteen stunning chapters bring together scholarship in history archaeology traditional narratives and oral sources A parallel commentary is offered through more than 500 images ranging from the elegant shapes of ancient taonga and artefacts to impressions of M ori in the sketchbooks and paintings of early European observers through the shifting focus of the photographer s lens to the response of contemporary M ori artists to all that has gone before The many threads of history are entwined in this compelling narrative of the people and the land the story of a rich past that illuminates the present and will inform the future Journeys to the Other Shore Roxanne L. Euben,2008-07-01 The contemporary world is increasingly defined by dizzying flows of people and ideas But while Western travel is associated with a pioneering spirit of discovery the dominant image of Muslim mobility is the jihadi who travels not to learn but to destroy Journeys to the Other Shore challenges these stereotypes by charting the common ways in which Muslim and Western travelers negotiate the dislocation of travel to unfamiliar and strange worlds In Roxanne Euben s groundbreaking excursion across cultures geography history genre and genders travel signifies not only a physical movement across lands and cultures but also an imaginative journey in which wonder about those who live differently makes it possible to see the world differently In the book we meet not only Herodotus but also Ibn Battuta the fourteenth century Moroccan traveler Tocqueville s journeys are set against a five year sojourn in nineteenth century Paris by the Egyptian writer and translator Rifa a Rafi al Tahtawi and Montesquieu s novel Persian Letters meets with the memoir of an East African princess Sayyida Salme This extraordinary book shows that curiosity about the unknown the quest to understand foreign cultures critical distance from one s own world and the desire to remake the foreign into the familiar are not the monopoly of any single civilization or epoch Euben demonstrates that the fluidity of identities cultures and borders associated with our postcolonial globalized world has a long history one shaped not only by Western power but also by an Islamic ethos of travel in search of knowledge Mapping Medieval Geographies Keith Lilley,2013 This book explores how geographical ideas traditions and knowledge were shaped circulated and received in Europe during the Middle Ages Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Yuri Galbinst,Tobias Lanslor,Willem Brownstok, 200 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003-04 International Books in Print ,1991 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Yuri Galbinst,Tobias Lanslor,Willem Brownstok, Siddh rthaGautama s Therav da Siddh rthaGautama Pali Sakka Shakyamuni 200 rv AB Bookman's Weekly ,1987 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1992 Choice ,1994
