The Contemporary Anglophone Travel Novel Stephen M. Levin, 2008-05-05 The Contemporary Anglophone Travel Novel examines the aesthetics of adventure travel since World War II by exploring the many referents travelers evoke as they imagine their escapes the lingering memory of the war the disintegration of empire and the rapid growth of capitalism and commercial culture

Women and Travel Catheryn Khoo-Lattimore, Erica Wilson, 2017-03-31 Women and Travel Historical and Contemporary Perspectives is a fascinating look at the behavior motivations experiences and needs of women as tourists and travellers drawing on both historic and contemporary eras Surprisingly little research has explored key issues experiences and opportunities in the context of women's travel This revealing volume fills this gap exploring the discourses debates and discussions about women travel and tourism With an international roster of contributors from diverse regions of the world the book celebrates a variety of women's voices Khoo Lattimore and Wilson deliberately sought to include nontraditional and non Western perspectives on women's travel with inclusions of Asian solo female travelers Islamic women travellers and the constraints placed on them and women who cannot travel or choose for whatever reason a home holiday This enlightening volume brings together scholars from the broad areas of tourism hospitality geography and leisure studies to examine how and why women travel The chapters bring light to perspectives from different countries cultures backgrounds and religions and utilize different methods approaches and styles of presentation Women and Travel Historical and Contemporary Perspectives will be of interest to academics and graduate students from a range of disciplines including tourism leisure studies sociology cultural geography anthropology feminist and gender studies business economics and management as well as professionals working in the tourism industry particularly those with an interest in niche markets and segmentation

Travels Along the Edge David Noland, 2009-10-07 A travel writer describes in detail forty of the world's most singular and offbeat travel adventures from paddling by sea kayak around the fjords of Greenland to an elephant safari through Botswana detailing tour outfitters gear health tips and more The Road from Coorain Jill Ker Conway, 2011-06-22 In a memoir that pierces and delights us Jill Ker Conway tells the story of her astonishing journey into adulthood a journey that would ultimately span immense distances and encompass worlds ideas and ways of life that seem a century apart She was seven before she ever saw another girl child At eight still too small to mount her horse unaided she was galloping miles alone across Coorain her parents thirty thousand windswept drought haunted acres in the Australian outback doing a man's job of helping herd the sheep because World War II had taken away the able bodied men She loved and makes us see and feel the vast unpeopled landscape beautiful and hostile whose uncertain weathers tormented the sheep ranchers with conflicting promises of riches and inescapable disaster She adored and makes us know her large visioned father and her strong radiant mother who had gone willingly with him into a pioneering life of loneliness and bone breaking toil who seemed miraculously to succeed in creating a warmly sheltering home in the harsh outback and who upon her husband's sudden death when Jill was ten began to slide bereft of the partnership of work and love that had so utterly fulfilled her into depression and dependency We see Jill staggered by the loss of her father catapulted to what seemed another planet the suburban Sydney of the 1950s and its crowded noisy cliquish school life Then the heady excitement of the University but with it a yet more demanding course of lessons Jill embracing new ideas new possibilities while at the same time trying to be mother to her mother and resenting it escaping into drink pulling herself back striking a balance We see her slowly gaining strength coming into her own emotionally and intellectually and beginning the joyous love affair that gave wings to her newfound self Worlds away from Coorain in America Jill Conway became a historian and the first woman president of Smith College Her story of Coorain and the road from Coorain startles by its passion and evocative power by its understanding of the ways in which a total deep rooted commitment to place or to a dream can at once liberate and imprison It is a story of childhood as both Eden and anguish and of growing up as a journey toward the difficult life of the free

Travel Writing Carl Thompson, 2011-05-16 An increasingly popular genre addressing issues of empire colonialism post colonialism globalization gender and politics travel writing offers the reader a movement between the familiar and the unknown In this volume Carl Thompson introduces the genre outlining competing definitions and key debates provides a broad historical survey from the medieval period to the present day explores the autobiographical dimensions of the form looks at both men and women's travel writing surveying a range of canonical and more marginal works drawn from both the colonial and postcolonial era utilises both British and American travelogues to consider the genre's role in shaping the history of both nations Concise and practical Travel Writing is the ideal introduction for those new to the subject as well as a crucial overview of current debates in the field

Methods for Teaching Travel Literature and Writing Eileen Groom, 2005 The contributors to Methods for Teaching Travel Literature and Writing Exploring the World and Self discuss how and why they have integrated travel literature and writing into their courses Subjects range from the study of travel literature granting insight into how travel authors such as Bill Bryson and Paul Theroux convince readers to buy into their worlds and reflect the readers positions in society to contemplating the meanings of the words traveler and tourist Other chapters examine how actual traveling can shape students writing and vice versa whereas still others address how the study of the genre and actually writing it promotes interdisciplinarity

The Readers' Advisory Guide to Nonfiction Neal Wyatt, 2007-05-14 Navigating what at she calls the extravagantly rich world of nonfiction renowned readers advisor RA Wyatt builds readers advisory bridges from fiction to compelling and increasingly popular nonfiction to encompass the library's entire collection She focuses on eight popular categories history true crime true adventure science memoir food cooking travel and sports Within each she explains the scope popularity style major authors and works and the subject's position in readers advisory interviews Wyatt addresses who is reading nonfiction and why while providing RAs with the tools and language to incorporate nonfiction into discussions that point readers to what to read next In easy to follow steps Wyatt Explains the hows and whys of offering fiction and nonfiction suggestions together Illustrates ways to get up to speed fast in nonfiction Shows how to lead readers to a variety of books using her read around and reading map strategies Provides tools to build nonfiction subject guides for the collection This hands on guide includes nonfiction bibliography key authors benchmark books with annotations and core collections It is destined to become the nonfiction bible for readers advisory and collection development helping librarians library workers and patrons select great reading from the entire library collection

Near Death in the Arctic Cecil Kuhne, 2011-05-25 The fine snow choked his eyes ears and throat and he did not hear his own smothered death cry Down in cold blackness 150 feet down his falling body smashed into a projecting ledge of ironclad ice With the shattered remains of his sledge with the doomed dogs Belgrave Ninnis plunged deeper and deeper into the abyss Lennard Bickel's Mawson's Will In Near Death in the Arctic editor Cecil Kuhne gathers astonishing tales of man versus nature all set against the bleakly beautiful backdrop of the poles of the earth On foot by ship or by dog powered sledge these adventurers brave the most savage and desolate environment on earth their instinct for self preservation and survival exceeded only by their desire for excitement and discovery Also featuring Captain Roald Amundsen's The South Pole The heart pounding story of Amundsen's race to be the first man to reach both Poles despite driving snow exhausted dogs and towering glaciers Ernest Shackleton's South A riveting memoir of the doomed Endurance which became trapped in dangerous pack ice that eventually tore the ship apart Mike Stroud's Shadows on the Wasteland The unbelievable account of a two man ninety day trek across the Antarctic continent through temperatures as low as minus eighty five degrees Celsius

An Empire Wilderness Robert D. Kaplan, 2014-11-12 Having reported on some of the world's most violent least understood regions in his bestsellers Balkan Ghosts and The Ends of the Earth Robert Kaplan now returns to his native land the United States of America Traveling like Tocqueville and John Gunther before him through a political and cultural landscape in transition Kaplan reveals a nation shedding a familiar identity as it assumes a radically new one An Empire Wilderness opens in Fort Leavenworth Kansas where the first white settlers moved into Indian country and where Manifest

Destiny was born In a world whose future conflicts can barely be imagined it is also the place where the army trains its men to fight the next war A nostalgic view of the United States is deliberately cultivated here Kaplan writes as if to bind the uncertain future to a reliable past From Fort Leavenworth Kaplan travels west to the great cities of the heartland to St Louis once a glorious shipping center expected to outshine imperial Rome and now touted with its desolate inner city and miles of suburban gated communities as the most average American city Kaplan continues west to Omaha down through California north from Mexico across Arizona New Mexico and Texas up to Montana and Canada and back through Oregon He visits Mexican border settlements and dust blown county sheriffs offices Indian reservations and nuclear bomb plants cattle ranches in the Oklahoma Panhandle glacier mantled forests in the Pacific Northwest swanky postsuburban sprawls and grim bus terminals and comes at last to the great battlefield at Vicksburg Mississippi where an earlier generation of Americans gave their lives for their vision of an American future But what if anything he asks will today s Americans fight and die for At Vicksburg Kaplan contemplates the new America through which he has just traveled an America of sharply polarized communities that draws its population from pools of talent far beyond its borders an America where the distance between winners and losers grows exponentially as corporations assume gov ernment functions and the wealthy find themselves more closely linked to their business associates in India and China than to their poorer neighbors a few miles away an America where old loyalties and allegiances are vanishing and new ones are only beginning to emerge The new America he found is in the pages of this book Kaplan gives a precise and chilling vision of how the most successful nation the world has ever known is entering the final and highly uncertain phase of its history
