Arey, Nancy A. Wanderer, 2014-03-06 Off and Running is a unique text for the first semester of the 1L legal writing and research course designed to guide students through their development of the essential skills needed to practice law Using a single classroom tested fact pattern the authors demonstrate in concrete steps how a first year associate might approach a legal problem. Students practice these steps and skills on other fact patterns as they read about this fictional associate. Using this fresh approach and a plain English writing style the authors introduce essential concepts and skills related to objective legal writing and legal research with a particular emphasis on the professional and ethical representation of clients. Students learn how to think like a lawyer. Features Fully integrated coursebook for first semester of 1L LRW course Integrates research analysis and writing Emphasis on how skills relate to the practice of law with focus on both litigation and transactional applications Professionalism and ethics discussions including and ethics alert and boxes are integrated throughout the text Presents one classroom tested fact pattern to demonstrate how to identify the issues in the fact pattern use legal resources to research those issues and use the research results to write documents such as an objective memorandum and a client letter Professors may assign different fact patterns set in other jurisdictions to have students demonstrate their skills They may also assign a closed universe problem during the early weeks of the semester Other chapters cover an overview of the U S legal system the basics of grammar punctuation and style how to use e mail effectively and incorporating LW principles into litigation and transactional documents Book takes a streamlined approach focusing on the essentials and using plain English in order to remain accessible to students

China-Africa Dispute Settlement Won Kidane, 2011-11-02 The nature and magnitude of the growth in China Africa economic relations in recent years is unprecedented and extraordinary According to recent estimates the value of China's trade with African nations grew from a mere USD 10 million in the 1980s to USD 55 billion in 2006 and to more than USD 100 billion by the end of 2009 at which time nearly 1 600 Chinese companies were doing business in Africa with a direct stock investment of about USD 7 8 billion The accelerating impetus of China Africa trade has overtaken some crucially important features of an effective trade regime most notably a fully trustworthy dispute resolution system It is the current and potential future efficacy of such a system that is taken up in this book with great understanding and skill The author evaluates existing mechanisms of dispute resolution in all aspects of China Africa economic relations in light of the parties economic and cultural profiles and their evolving legal traditions and goes on to propose a comprehensive institutional model of dispute resolution that takes full account of the economic needs and legal cultures of both China and the various African countries Among the topics and issues that arise in the course of the book are the following suitability of the WTO's dispute resolution mechanism for China Africa trade relations domestic bilateral regional and multilateral law sources affecting China Africa commerce the role of intra Africa bilateral investment treaties competing interests that underpin international investment law relevant legal economic and political challenges and cultural barriers permissible scope of regional trade regimes national treatment versus duty to compensate and harmonization initiatives model laws incoterms restatements The author includes in depth analysis of how China Africa economic relations fare in the varieties of dispute resolution methods available at the major arbitral European and American institutions ICSID

AAA ICC LCIA PCA as well as under the rules of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission CIETAC and the important arbitral fora in Cairo Kuala Lumpur and Lagos Endorsing institutional arbitration as the most appropriate form of resolving trade investment and commercial disputes arising between China and African countries this ground breaking analysis outlines the obstacles and shortcomings of the available means of dispute settlement both in international and domestic contexts and offers deeply informed recommendations for improvement of the existing system Although the book will be welcomed by interested scholars and practitioners for its detailed discussion of how China Africa trade relations are situated within the global trade regime its most enduring value lies in its thorough evaluation of the available options and its proposals for structuring a legal framework within which future disputes will be effectively resolved
