Communicating Professionally Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Kirsti Nilsen, 2013-07-17 The new third edition of Communicating Professionally is completely revised with new sections outlining the opportunities offered by contemporary communication media

The Chicago Guide to Communicating Science Scott L. Montgomery, 2017-02-21

Enhanced with approximately 100 additional pages this second edition is a testament to the success of the first one. Choice For more than a decade The Chicago Guide to Communicating Science has been the go to reference for anyone who needs to write or speak about their research. Whether it's a student writing a thesis, a faculty member composing a grant proposal or a public information officer crafting a press release, Scott Montgomery's advice is perfectly adaptable to any scientific writer's needs. This new edition has been thoroughly revised to address crucial issues in the changing landscape of scientific communication with an increased focus on those writers working in corporate settings, government and nonprofit organizations as well as academia. Half a dozen new chapters tackle the evolving needs and paths of scientific writers. These sections address plagiarism and fraud, writing graduate theses, translating scientific material, communicating science to the public and the increasing globalization of research. Through solid examples and concrete advice, Montgomery helps scientists develop their own voice and become stronger communicators. He also addresses the roles of media and the public in scientific attitudes and offers advice for those whose research concerns controversial issues such as climate change or emerging viruses. Today communicators must move seamlessly among platforms and styles. The Chicago Guide to Communicating Science helps scientists and researchers expertly connect with their audiences no matter the medium.

English for Executive Administrative Assistant Nina Inayati, Puji Sumarsono, 2020-06-24. English for Executive Administrative Assistant (EAA) is written to fulfill students' need to learn English for specific purposes, especially those who plan to work as a professional administrative staff. The need for increased English language skills for personnel of professional administration is an urgent matter as the era of globalization has penetrated into various sectors: economics, culture, science, and so on. Therefore, professional administrative personnel are required to have competence in English and professional attitude to be able to fulfill the needs of the institution or company they represent. This book consists of five units which are developed from the decree of the English Language Consortium at the Directorate of Course Development and Institution Directorate General of Non-Formal and Informal Education, Ministry of National Education. National Work Competency Standards (SKKNI) year 2009. The first three units are organized into specific language skills: Reading, Writing, and Speaking, containing various activities designed to train and improve students' English proficiency related to the targeted administrative skills. Unit I covers negotiation skills with the focus on the discussion practices and useful expressions relevant to conducting effective negotiation in English language. Unit II covers presentation skills with key elements of how to make effective presentation in English language discussed and practiced. Next, Unit III covers Public Relations with various elements of administrative tasks with close relations to public relations issues discussed and practiced, which are then followed by practices to perform administrative tasks using effective English language. To be more specific, Unit IV covers intermediate communication strategies including various English expressions indicating hesitation, reflection, formal and informal requests, offers, intentions, acceptance, and refusal. Finally, Unit V covers summaries and reports with a range of tips to write good reports in English followed by examples and practices The writing tasks in Unit IV and V are mostly presented in the form of guided writing which provides students with the language expressions they need to complete the relevant administrative tasks In addition to reading and writing exercises it also presents speaking which explains about a concept which is then followed by speaking practices
