Writing Under Pressure The Quick Writing Process Oxford Paperbacks:

Writing Under Pressure Sanford Kaye, 1990-12-13 Most writing is done under pressure An executive has to produce a three page position paper by tomorrow at nine A department head suddenly has to write a one page action memo by noon A graduate student has a twenty page research paper due in a week Yet while most students and professionals write under pressure with limited time limited space and a supervisor or instructor to please few approach the task systematically In Writing Under Pressure Sanford Kaye a renowned expert on the subject presents a system he calls the Quick Writing Process QWP that focuses on real world writing tasks and demonstrates how to produce the clearest most honest most powerful work possible under the constraints of time and space A writing instructor with twenty five years experience teaching students and professionals in business and government Kaye tells writers how to budget their time and how to use this time efficiently Exploring particular writing situations in which QWP can be applied to make the most of what the writer knows Kaye discusses the process of taking exams focusing on how instructors select questions and evaluate essays He also considers writing in business and government featuring an insightful analysis of a memo written by Colonel Oliver North This memo highlights one of the most important issues writers in business and government face whether to write the truth as they see it or simply what their bosses want to hear Presenting a wealth of such examples Kaye reveals how to break through stifling organizational codes in order to write memos and position papers that count While most guides to writing ignore the constraints of time and space Writing Under Pressure tackles these problems head on making it an essential reference for students business professionals government officials or anyone else faced with a difficult writing assignment that has to be done now

A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 2011-06-01 The bibliography offers information on research about writing and written language over the past 50 years No comprehensive bibliography on this subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook With a selection of some 27 500 titles it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography creating many points of common interest for literacy experts educationalists psychologists sociologists linguists cultural anthropologists and historians The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field While necessarily selective it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies In addition an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non professional readers It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities

Communicating with Intelligence James S. Major, 2012 Writing for Academic Journals Rowena Murray, 2013-09-01 Busy academics must publish To fulfil research output they must write to a specific journal style and high standard while juggling other professional tasks This book develops understanding of how writing happens what good writing looks and feels like what gets published and what does not and why Writing for Academic Journals 4e Rowena Murray, 2019-11-16 This comprehensive guide to writing journal articles addresses all the stages and recurring challenges from targeting a journal to dealing with reviewer feedback Drawing on many years of running Writing for Publication workshops Murray explores not only style and structure but also behaviours and emotions As a key component of both research courses and careers this timely text also addresses the struggle to make time for high quality academic writing and how to ensure a writing life balance Examining a variety of approaches relevant to many different academic disciplines this core text demystifies and defines writing practices and makes this form of high stakes academic writing seem manageable Writing for journals has never been more competitive and writers researchers practitioners and students need expert guidance on productive practices and ways of maintaining focus and motivation which Murray provides This latest edition is completely updated and more relevant than ever for clinicians practitioners and students This book was already a classic but the update makes it even more useful From finding time to write doing a short literature review and identifying scam journals Rowena Murray provides an excellent concise and accessible companion for writing academic journal papers which is appropriate for both students and working academics Associate Professor Inger Mewburn Director of Research Training The Australian National University Australia Rowena Murray has approached publishing in a journal with scientific rigour Following this book s recommendations will make it impossible to find a convincing excuse for failure to publish She herself writes with a high level of artisanal skill this book is fast paced stylish and highly readable Her own extensive experience in supporting journal article writers tempers this book with the credibility of a seasoned veteran Best of all there is a wealth of wisdom here in advising on how to publish Murray is also advising on how to live a satisfying life as a writer Associate Professor Susan Carter University of Auckland New Zealand In Writing for Academic Journals 4th edition Rowena Murray s voice is direct down to earth and wise Drawing on a depth of practical experience as both published author and writing teacher she conveys the message that yes publishing in academic journals is demanding but it s also very possible And that once you are successful there is still much to be learned from reading books like this one and hanging out with others in writing groups and workshops To that end the book is a trove of tips and techniques helpful to all who pursue the challenging craft of good academic writing Barbara Grant Associate Professor in the School of Critical Studies in Education at the University of Auckland New Zealand and author of Academic writing retreats A facilitator s guide Sourcebook for Research in Music Phillip Crabtree, Donald H.
