Transcendental Style In Film:

, Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 1988 Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 1972
Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 2018-05-18 With a new introduction acclaimed director and screenwriter Paul Schrader revisits and updates his contemplation of slow cinema over the past fifty years Unlike the style of psychological realism which dominates film the transcendental style expresses a spiritual state by means of austere camerawork acting devoid of self consciousness and editing that avoids editorial comment This seminal text analyzes the film style of three great directors Yasujiro Ozu Robert Bresson and Carl Dreyer and posits a common dramatic language used by these artists from divergent cultures The new edition updates Schrader's theoretical framework and extends his theory to the works of Andrei Tarkovsky Russia B la Tarr Hungary Theo Angelopoulos Greece and Nuri Bilge Ceylan Turkey among others This key work by one of our most searching directors and writers is widely cited and used in film and art classes With evocative prose and nimble associations Schrader consistently urges readers and viewers alike to keep exploring the world of the art film Transcendence and Film David P. Nichols, 2019-05-23 In this edited collection of essays ten experts in film philosophy explore the importance of transcendence for understanding cinema as an art form They analyze the role of transcendence for some of the most innovative film directors David Cronenberg Karl Theodor Dreyer Federico Fellini Werner Herzog Stanley Kubrick David Lynch Terrence Malick Yasujiro Ozu and Martin Scorsese Meanwhile they apply concepts of transcendence from continental philosophers like Alain Badiou Gilles Deleuze Martin Heidegger Michel Henry Edmund Husserl Karl Jaspers S ren Kierkegaard Maurice Merleau Ponty Friedrich Nietzsche and Jean Paul Sartre Each of the ten chapters results in a different perspective about what transcendence means and how it is essential to film as an art medium Several common threads emerge among the chapters The contributors find that the limitations of human existence are frequently made evident in moments of transcendence so as to bring characters to the margins of their assumed world At other times transcendence goes immanent so as to emerge in experiences of the surprising nearness of being as though for a radical intensification of life Film can also exhibit ciphers of transcendence whereby symbolic events open us to greater realizations about our place in the world Lastly the contributors observe that transcendence occurs in film not simply from isolated moments forced into a storyline but in a manner rooted within an ontological rhythm peculiar to the film itself
The Theological Power of Film James Lorenz, 2024-06-21 This book explores the theological power of film and seeks to render a properly theological account of cinematic art It considers What theology and theological practice does cinematic art give rise to What are the perceptual and affective potentials of film for theology and what if anything is theological about the cinematic medium itself The author argues that film is a fundamentally embodied art form a haptic and somatic medium of perception cum expression This combined with the distinct temporal aesthetic of film invests cinema with profound theological potentials The chapters explore these potentials through theological cinematic analysis emphasising the themes of encounter embodiment time and contemplation as well as three intimately connected doctrines of Christian theology creation incarnation and eschatology Throughout the book the films and writings of the Russian director Andrei Tarkovsky emerge as a singular illustration of the theological power of film becoming a crucial resource for theologicalcinematic analysis Exploration and Revision of Transcendental Style in Film Yelena Bolshakova,2015 Seeing Is Believing Richard Vance Goodwin,2022-07-19 In this study in IVP Academic s STA series theologian Richard Goodwin considers how the images that constitute film might be a conduit of God s revelation By considering works by Stanley Kubrik Martin Scorsese Terrence Malick and more Goodwin argues that by inviting emotional responses film images can be a medium of divine revelation Transcendence and Spirituality in Japanese Cinema Melissa Croteau,2022-11-14 This book explores significant representations of Shinto and Buddhist sacred space spiritual symbols and religious concepts that are embedded in the secular framework of Japanese films aimed at general audiences in Japan and globally These cinematic masterpieces by directors Akira Kurosawa Hayao Miyazaki Hirokazu Kore eda and Makoto Shinkai operate as expressions of and potentially catalysts for transcendence of various kinds particularly during the Heisei era 1989 2019 when Japan experienced severe economic hardship and devastating natural disasters The book s approach to aesthetics and religion employs the multifaceted concepts of ma structuring intervals liminal space time k emptiness sky mono no aware compassionate sensibility resigned sadness and musubi generative interconnection examining the dynamic evolving nature of these ancient principles that are at once spiritual aesthetic and philosophical Scholars and enthusiasts of Japanese cinema live action and anime religion and film cinematic aesthetics and the relationship between East Asian religions and the arts will find fresh perspectives on these in this book which moves beyond conventional notions of transcendental style and essentialized approaches to the multivalent richness of Japanese aesthetics Reorienting Ozu Jinhee Choi,2018 Considered by many film critics and scholars as a master of Japanese Cinema director Ozu Yasujiro still inspires filmmakers both within and outside of Japan With fifteen never before published chapters in English by contributors from North America Europe and Japan Reorienting Ozu explores the Japanese director s oeuvre and his lasting impact on global art cinema Exploring major theoretical frameworks that characterize Ozu studies chapters consider the various cultural factors that influenced the director s cinematic output such as the anxiety of middleclass Japan in the 1930s the censorship imposed by the US occupation after World War II and women s rights in Ozu s late work such as Tokyo Twilight 1957 Ultimately chapters illuminate Ozu s influence on the directors of Japan and beyond With the recent restoration and re release of Ozu s early and late films this volume provides an opportunity to examine not only the auteur s major works but also the relationships both cultural and aesthetic that are forged among directors across the world
