Reframing Migration, Diversity and the Arts Moritz Schramm, Sten Pultz Moslund, Anne Ring Petersen, Mirjam Gebauer, Hans Christian Post, Sabrina Vitting-Seerup, Frauke Wiegand, 2019-05-07 This book offers a compelling study of contemporary developments in European migration studies and the representation of migration in the arts and cultural institutions It introduces scholars and students to the new concept of postmigration offering a review of the origin of the concept in Berlin and how it has taken on a variety of meanings and works in different ways within different national cultural and disciplinary contexts The authors explore postmigrant theory in relation to the visual arts theater film and literature as well as the representation of migration and cultural diversity in cultural institutions offering case studies of postmigrant analyses of contemporary works of art from Europe mainly Denmark Germany and Great Britain

Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945, 2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon Sandra R G Almeida Maria Zilda F Cury Sarah De Mul Sneja Gunew Dave Gunning Kristina Iwata Weickgenannt Martina Kamm Liesbeth Minnaard Maria Oikonomou Wenche Ommundsen Marie Orton Laura Reeck Daniel Rothenb hler Cathy J Schlund Vials Wiebke Sievers Bettina Spoerri Christl Verduyn Sandra Vlasta

Discourses on Nations and Identities Daniel Syrový, 2021-01-18 The third volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes contributions that focus on the interplay between concepts of nation national languages and individual as well as collective identities Because all literary communication happens within different kinds of power structures linguistic economic political it often results in fascinating forms of hybridity In the first of four thematic chapters the papers investigate some of the ways in which discourses can establish modes of thinking or how discourses are in turn controlled by active linguistic interventions whether in the context of the patriarchy war colonialism or political factions The second thematic block is predominantly concerned with hybridity as an aspect of modern cultural identity and the cultural and linguistic dimensions of domestic life and in society at large Closely related a third series of papers focuses on writers and texts analysed from the vantage points of exile and exophony as well as theoretical contributions to issues of terminology and what it means to talk about transcultural phenomena Finally a group of papers sheds light on more overtly violent power structures mechanisms of exclusion Totalitarianism torture and censorship but also resistance to these forms of oppression In addition to these chapters the volume also collects a number of thematically related group sections from the ICLA congress preserving their original context Tradition und Moderne in Bewegung Seyda Ozil, Michael Hofmann, Jens Peter Laut, Yasemin Dayioglu-Yücel, Cornelia Zierau, 2018 The articles in this volume bear witness to the productive energy of the interplay between tradition and modernity whether in theater literature or popular culture At the same time they emphasize the importance of cultural intermediaries including translators The volume thus illustrates that despite or precisely because of political developments in Turkey and Germany alike a multitude of Turkish German themes remain vital in both society and the academy urging further consideration investigation discussion and presentation Handbook of Art and Global Migration Burcu Dogramaci, Birgit Mersmann, 2019-07-08 Wie lässt sich eine Kunstgeschichte denken die prozessuale performative und transkulturelle Wanderungsbewegungen ins Zentrum ihrer theoretischen und methodischen Analysen rückt Mit Beiträgen international ausgewiesener Experten gibt das Handbuch erstmals Antworten darauf welche Konsequenzen das Zusammenwirken von Migration und Globalisierung für die kunstwissenschaftliche Forschung die kuratorische Praxis sowie die künstlerische Produktion und Theorie hat Ziel der vielstimmigen Anthologie ist es einen interdisziplinären Diskurs zum migratory turn in der Kunstgeschichte zu eröffnen Postmigration Anna Meera Gaonkar, Astrid Sophie Ost Hansen, Hans Christian Post, Moritz Schramm, 2021-09-03 The concept of postmigration has recently gained importance in the context of European societies obsession with migration and integration along with emerging new forms of exclusion and nationalisms This book introduces ongoing debates on the developing concept of postmigration and how it can be applied to arts and culture While the concept has mainly gained traction in the cultural scene in Berlin Germany the contributions expand the field of study by attending to cultural expressions in literature theatre film and art across various European societies such as the United Kingdom France Finland Denmark and Germany By doing so the contributions highlight this concept's potential and show how it can offer new perspectives on transformations caused by migration Questioning the Canon Christine Meyer, 2021-07-05 To what extent do minority writers feel represented by the literary canon of a nation and its body of great works To what extent do they adhere to or contest the supposedly universal values conveyed through those texts and how do they situate their own works within the national tradition Building on Edward W Said's contrapuntal readings and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak's reflections on the voice of the subaltern this monograph examines the ways in which Rafik Schami Emine Sevgi Özdamar and Feridun Zaimoglu have re-read challenged and adapted the German canon Similar to other writers in postcolonial contexts their work on the canon entails an inquiry into history and a negotiation of their relation to the texts and representations that define the host nation Through close analyses of the works of these non-native German authors the book investigates the intersection between politics ethics and aesthetics in their work focusing on the appropriation and re-evaluation of cultural legacies in German language literature Opening up a rich critical dialogue with scholars of German Studies and Postcolonial Theory Christine Meyer provides a fresh perspective on German language minority literature since the reunification Watch our talk with the editor Christine Meyer here <https://youtu.be/b1On8q5QIU>

Kant's Theory of Value Christoph Horn, Robinson dos Santos, 2022-10-03 In explicit form Kant does not speak that much about values or goods The reason for this is obvious the concepts of values and goods are part of the eudaimonistic tradition and he famously criticizes eudaimonism for its flawed material approach to ethics But he uses on several occasions the traditional teleological language of goods and values Especially in the Groundwork and the Critique of Practical Reason Kant develops crucial points on this conceptual basis Furthermore he implicitly discusses issues of conditional and unconditional values subjective and objective values aesthetic or economic values etc In recent Kant scholarship there has been a controversy on the question how moral and nonmoral values are related in Kant's account of human dignity This leads to the more fundamental problem if Kant should be seen as a prescriptivist antirealist or as subscribing to a more objective rational agency account of goods This issue and several further questions are addressed in this volume

Theatre, Performance and Commemoration Miriam Haughton, Alinne Balduino P. Fernandes, Pieter Verstraete, 2023-04-20 How does the act of performance speak to the concept of commemoration How and why does commemorative theatre operate as a conceptual historical and political site from which to interrogate ideas of nationalism and nationhood This volume explores how theatre and performance create a stage for acts of commemoration considering crises of hate nationalism and migration as well as political racial and religious bigotry It features case studies drawn from across Europe the Middle East Asia Africa and Latin America The book's four parts each explore commemoration through a different theoretical lens and present a new set of dramaturgies for research and study While Section 1 offers a critical survey of 20th and 21st century discourses Section 2 uncovers the commemorative practices underpinning contemporary dramaturgy and applies these practices to plays and performance pieces These include works by Martin Lynch Frank McGuinness Sanja Mitrovic Theater RAST Les SlovaKs Dance Collective Estela Golovchenko Wajdi Mouawad in Stapleton CoisC im ANU Productions Aubrey Sekhabi and Indian and African dance practices The final sections investigate how individual and collective memory and performances of commemoration can become tools for propaganda and political
