Transplantista Shirley Jewett, 2015-04-15 Shirley Jewett's first life ended and her second life began on June 11 2001 when she received the gift of life a single lung transplant After sixty days of recovery and rehabilitation she moved home to start her life over as an organ transplant recipient These are her stories of her second life adventures Taking Flight ,2002 Lung transplant is a life changing surgery that extends and enhances life due to organ donation Recipients of lung transplant share their stories of success I Call My New Lung Tina Shirley E. Jewett, 2002 No one ever wants to hear that they have a disease especially one as fatal as severe pulmonary hypertension This book takes readers through Shirley Jewett's experience providing insight into the ways patients can take responsibility for their health and medical treatments It is far more than a feel good book about one woman's journey to the other side of a death sentence It is an instructional manual of survival Click here to read about Taking Flight Inspirational Stories In Lung Transplantation compiled by Joanne Schum Click here to read about The Lung Transplantation Handbook Second Edition A Guide For Patients by Karen A Couture See You on the Other Side Shirley Jewett, 2011-10 Shirley E Jewett is a veteran transplant survivor writer quilter blogger Reiki practitioner and the author of I Call My New Lung Tina and I Lost 70 Pounds without Exercise Now she has written a front to back thought provoking chronicle of her single lung transplant experience In this book you will learn how an actively positive attitude can determine a chronically ill patient's outcome You will learn to be well See You on the Other Side a Lung Transplant Survivor will inspire others to consider organ donation of their loved ones Many more patients would have been and many others can still be saved if more donors are available Transplantation remains an area where doctors know a potential cure is available but where lives are still lost every day because of limited resources Gordon L Yung MD Director Advance Lung Disease Program University of California San Diego From Foreword Blow the House Down Charles Tolchin, 2000-07-29 What is it like to receive a life saving organ transplant On April 13 1997 I received new lungs Blow the House Down details my story It illustrates how Cystic Fibrosis affected my life and how I fought it This book reflects the immense generosity of so many people including my donor and her family my family and friends people who donate to Cystic Fibrosis research and drive major scientific breakthroughs and doctors nurses and physical therapists who toil hard day in and day out to restore our health Together we each have the power to cure disease Charles Tolchin received a double lung transplant in April of 1997 He now works in advertising for OgilvyInteractive a division of Ogilvy Mather He has been published in National Lampoon Magazine CBS Healthwatch.com and the Congressional Record For fun he skis plays ice hockey and lifts weights Exhale David Weill MD, 2021-05-11 A young father with a rare form of lung cancer who has been turned down for a transplant by several hospitals A kid who was considered not smart enough to be worthy of a transplant A young mother dying on the waiting list in front of her two small children A father losing his oldest daughter after a transplant goes awry The nights waiting for donor lungs to become available understanding that someone needed to die so that another patient could live These are some of the stories in Exhale a memoir about Dr Weill's ten years spent directing the lung transplant program at Stanford Through these stories he shows not only the miracle of transplantation but also how it is a very human endeavor performed by people with strengths and weaknesses powerful attributes and profound flaws Exhale is an inside look at the world of high stakes medicine complete with the decisions that are confronted the mistakes that are made and the story of a transplant doctor's slow recognition that he needed to step away from the front lines This book is an exploration of holding on too tight of losing one's way and of the power of another kind of decision to leave behind everything for a fresh start

Breathe and Let Go a Lung Transplant Adventure Gavin Maitland,2009-12 Gavin Maitland a dedicated swimmer and marathon runner developed a mysterious progressive lung disease in his mid thirties With a prognosis of less than six months to live Maitland received a double lung transplant His determination to recover and compete in a triathlon only 13 months after his surgery is an uplifting story of resilience and determination With down to earth humor and honesty Maitland recounts his six year odyssey from robust health in his mid thirties through the decline and despair of failing lungs through to a successful double lung transplant and beyond Maitland recounts the medical obstacles he encountered and circumvented while trying to diagnose the cause of his deteriorating health In compelling detail he captures the drama of his journey the realization that his only option for survival was a lung transplant the challenges of being accepted as a transplant candidate and the lifelong tasks that he as a transplant recipient faces to continue to stay healthy and alive

Take a Breath Karen A. Kelly,2016-10-01 STOP BREATHE Now feel the oxygen coming in and out of your lungs It's simple easy something you do every day without even thinking about it But what if one day you woke up and couldn't Walking to your car felt like running a mile What if your entire life depended on the decision of a stranger choosing to be or not to be an organ donor In this true story Dr Karen A Kelly M D shares her husband's journey through a life saving lung transplant Learning about his courageous battle can help any patient or caregiver understand the extensive responsibilities required for a successful organ transplant As a pediatrician Dr Kelly found herself in a different role as caretaker not as provider Her experience highlights the vital importance of taking care of oneself in order to adequately care for a sick loved one She also stresses the importance of stopping to rest to take a deep breath to laugh and to rejuvenate The Kelly's story sheds light on the shocking realization that 120 000 people in the U S right now are waiting for an organ transplant and that twenty of those people will die every day waiting on the list for a stranger to decide to be a hero To become an organ donor please visit Donatelife.net

I'll Take Tomorrow Mary Gohlke,Max Jennings,1985-01 The survivor of a dual heart lung transplant in 1981 tells the story of her sentence of early death and her decision to take part in an experimental heart lung transplant operation

Scars Tell Stories Doug Lagasse,Dan Lagasse,2020-09-25 Inspiring stories of courage in the face of illness and of hope when all looks bleak Dan tells his personal journey fighting cystic fibrosis receiving a heart double lung transplant and his battle with a litany of other illnesses in nine different countries Discover how our scars can become trophies of victory Be encouraged with deeper truths about life and death that give promise and not despair Live
