Travellers and Cosmographers Joan-Pau Rubiés, 2023-06-14 Joan Pau Rubi s brings together here eleven studies published between 1991 and 2005 that illuminate the impact of travel writing on the transformation of early modern European culture The new worlds that European navigation opened up at the turn of the 16th century elicited a great deal of curiosity and were the subject of a vast range of writings much of them with an empirical basis albeit often subtly fictionalized In the context of intense literary and intellectual activity that characterized the Renaissance the encounters generated by European colonial activities in fact produced a remarkable variety of images of human diversity Some of these images were conditioned by the actual dynamics of cross cultural encounters overseas but many others were elaborated in Europe by cosmographers historians and philosophers pursuing their own moral and political agendas As the studies included here show the combined effect was in the long term dramatic interacting with the impact of humanism and of insurmountable religious divisions travel writing decisively contributed to the transformation of European culture towards the concerns of the Enlightenment The essays illuminate this process through a combination of general discussions and the contextual analysis of particular texts and debates ranging from the earliest ethnographies produced by merchants travelling to Asia with Vasco da Gama to the writings of Jesuit missionaries researching idolatry in India and China or thinkers like Hugo Grotius seeking to explain the origin of the American Indians Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer

Hultzsch,2017-07-05 Does the way in which buildings are looked at and made sense of change over the course of time How can we find out about this By looking at a selection of travel writings spanning four centuries Anne Hultzsch suggests that it is language the description of architecture which offers answers to such questions The words authors use to transcribe what they see for the reader to re imagine offer glimpses at modes of perception specific to one moment place and person Hultzsch constructs an intriguing patchwork of local and often fragmentary narratives discussing texts as diverse as the 17th century diary of John Evelyn Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe 1719 and an 1855 art guide by Swiss art historian Jacob Burckhardt Further authors considered include 17th century collector John Bargrave 18th century novelist Tobias Smollett poet Johann Wolfgang von Goethe critic John Ruskin as well as the 20th century architectural historian Nikolaus Pevsner Anne Hultzsch teaches at the Bartlett School of Architecture University College London Objects of Liberty Pamela

Buck,2024-03-15 Objects of Liberty explores the prevalence of souvenirs in British women s writing during the French Revolution and Napoleonic era It argues that women writers employed the material and memorial object of the souvenir to circulate revolutionary ideas and engage in the masculine realm of political debate While souvenir collecting was a standard practice of privileged men on the eighteenth century Grand Tour women began to partake in this endeavor as political events in France heightened interest in travel to the Continent Looking at travel accounts by Helen Maria Williams Mary Wollstonecraft Catherine and Martha Wilmot Charlotte Eaton and Mary Shelley this study reveals how they used souvenirs to affect political thought in Britain and contribute to conversations about individual and national identity At a time when gendered beliefs precluded women from full citizenship they used souvenirs to redefine themselves as legitimate political actors Objects of Liberty is a story about the ways that women established political power and agency through material culture The Modernist Traveler Kimberley J. Healey,2003-01-01 The Modernist Traveler considers figures whose writing about travel rebelled against a literary tradition of exoticism adventure stories and novelistic travelogues Instead these writers initiated a modernist strain in travel writing and a shift in the literary establishment and the culture at large Kimberley J Healey focuses on those French writers and thinkers who traveled in order to experience a displacement of both the inner self and the physical body while writing against the prevalent tradition of travel literature The modern self modern time colonial spaces and the physical body are Healey s concerns as she reads works by Victor Segalen Paul Morand Blaise Cendrars Henri Michaux Saint John Perse Guillaume Apollinaire Paul Nizan Albert Londres Andre Malraux Val ry Larbaud and Isabelle Eberhardt This book shows how in the field of French literature these texts about travel best capture the modernist experience of being alone in a world of new technologies cultural diversity and anxiety about the self Dear France Travel Journal Blue Suitcase Traveler,2019-10-19 You travel to France and you want to remember all your favorite and special moments in Paris for yourself your family or friends This DEAR FRANCE Travel Journal by Blue Suitcase Traveler is a perfect tool for your next journey holidays vacation or trip to France Notebook To Fill Your Thoughts Being Creative As Present Write a travel diary on your next trip during a roadtrip or during your semester abroad Record all your favorite and special moments in this journal Places of Interest POIs locations cities impressions and experiences With a cute matte cover DEAR FRANCE is a wonderful present or souvenir for passengers travelers tourists and globetrotters Perfect as a gift for Family Friends after your return or as a farewell present for your host family Wanderlust is a wonderful feeling make it a gift for Christmas or Birthday for Mother s Day or Father s Day Whether for Mama or Papa for your sister or brother for a friend or buddy This souvenir will make everyone laugh and give some inspiration Be Creative 120 lined pages will give you a lot of room to be creative to write notices and thought Create personal checklists drawings write down experiences reminders and ideas Decorate your personal logbook with stickers entrance card tickets and photos Write down local phrases and saying or french vocabulary you ve learned recently Features of this journal 6 x 9 inches Softcover Journal Book 120 matte lined pages Useful size for all purposes can be taken in your purse handbag carrying case backpack or sport equipment bag Great for taking notes thoughts and ideas 3 BONUS pages with a checklist to prepare your journey a packing list and a list to write down your TOP 10 POIs to visit You re a real globetrotter Have a look on other Journals by Blue Suitecase Traveler for other countries and cities We wish you unforgettable journey British Women Travellers in the Long Nineteenth Century

Marilyn D. Button,Jessica A. Sheetz-Nguyen,2025-03-05 During the long nineteenth century British women reframed the masculine paradigm of the Grand Tour They created a feminist travel gaze intentionally or unintentionally that differed from that of male peers Unlike their brothers who went for personal edification women with means left their English homes for the great Italian cities of Florence Naples and Rome to escape personal disappointments and the social limitations imposed by parents spouses and society The anonymity of travel to a distant land and new freedoms fostered political and creative achievements including entrepreneurial journalism literary masterpieces and social advocacy for their gender which redefined the contours of the Anglo Italian cultural landscape The historical evidence presented here testifies to the life changing capacity of travel and firmly demonstrates how British women s history and literature enriches and broadens narratives about Britain and the World Images of Dutchness Sarah Dellmann,2025-10-01 Why do early films present the Netherlands as a country full of canals and windmills where people wear traditional costumes and wooden shoes while industries and modern urban life are all but absent Images of Dutchness investigates the roots of this visual repertoire from diverse sources ranging from magazines to tourist brochures from anthropological treatises to advertising trade cards stereoscopic photographs picture postcards magic lantern slide sets and films of early cinema This richly illustrated book provides an in depth study of the fascinating corpus of popular visual media and their written comments that are studied for the first time Through the combined analysis of words and images the author identifies not only what has been considered typically Dutch in the long nineteenth century but also provides new insights into the logic and emergence of national clichés in the Western world
