Toolbox For Crisis Communications In Tourism

Emmet McLoughlin

Toolbox For Crisis Communications In Tourism:

Toolbox for Crisis Communications in Tourism World Tourism Organization, 2011 Crisis communications is a crucial element of a good crisis management system. It helps limit the negative impact of a crisis by addressing the information needs of all industry stakeholders in an efficient, timely and responsible manner. Against this background, UNWTO has developed for the National Tourism Organizations (NTOs), Destination Management Organisations (DMOs) and private sector organisations involved in travel and tourism this comprehensive up-to-date Toolbox on Crisis Communications in Tourism. It includes step-by-step protocols, checklists, sample templates configured by type of crisis and media categories, guidelines for measuring effectiveness, best practices and a special chapter fully dedicated to the use of social media in times of crisis. This Toolbox serves as a practical guide for travel and tourism stakeholders to effectively address the challenges generated by crises. Toolbox for Crisis Communications in Tourism – Checklists and Best Practices (Arabic Version), Tourism Through Troubled Times Maximiliano E. Korstanje, Hugues Seraphin, Shem Wambugu Maingi, 2022-09-23 Tourism Through Troubled Times is an illuminating read for all scholars of Tourism Studies, Hospitality Management and the Sociology of Tourism as well as practitioners and managers within the hospitality sector and gives clear insights into the industry's next steps forward. Crisis Management in Event Planning and Resilient Event Practices Emmet McLoughlin, 2025-10-09 This is the first textbook to fully integrate crisis preparedness, resilience and sustainability into a unified event management framework. The book offers a practical interdisciplinary approach combining theory, case studies and real-world applications tailored for both students and professionals. It moves beyond traditional risk management by exploring ethical decision-making, inclusion, technology and post-crisis recovery in diverse event contexts. Each chapter includes student activities, applied examples and discussion prompts fostering critical thinking and real-world problem-solving. It is an invaluable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying event management, tourism and hospitality as well as early career professionals and industry practitioners who are seeking to enhance their understanding of crisis preparedness and resilience in events. Organizational learning in tourism and hospitality crisis management Zahed Ghaderi, Alexandros Paraskevas, 2021-12-06 Tourism and hospitality organizations have always been exposed to disruptions, stresses and crises, making the management of these adversities a necessary skill. The prolonged and complex turbulence that the industry is often facing from epidemics and pandemics, climate change and extreme environmental phenomena or political instability and economic crashes raise questions: Do these organizations learn from the crises they experience? If so, how do they learn and what do they do with this learning? Organizational Learning in Tourism and Hospitality Crisis Management brings together an array of expert academic analyses of the latest thinking and practice on these questions. Drawing on studies conducted around the world including Greece, Iran, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, Spain, Turkey, UK and USA, the contributors apply a wide range of organizational learning and knowledge management theoretical perspectives and concepts to offer new insights into crisis induced learning in a tourism and hospitality context The book will be an excellent resource for scholars and students as well as managers of tourism and hospitality organizations tourism policymakers and government officials who are involved in tourism destination management Tourism Crises and Destination Recovery David Beirman,2021-10-20 As global tourism faces its greatest threat since World War II the author draws on over 40 years of industry and academic experience to explore the core themes that underpin crises their impact on the tourism industry and recovery Focussing on this emerging issue in within the travel industry and academic tourism research this author explores crisis management approaches from scholars governments and tourism associations around the world A dedicated chapter also covers the impact of Covid 19 on tourism industries and economies across the world and well as how nations from around the world responded to the global pandemic outbreak The book is split by theme and features over 20 case studies including 2020 Australian bush fires 2019 Sri Lankan terror attack SARS and Swine Flu the collapse of Thomas Cook the global and Greek financial crises and the threat to the Great Barrier Reef Discussion questions and activities are included at the end of each chapter Suitable reading for students on tourism and tourism crisis management modules COVID-19 and the Hospitality and Tourism Industry Gursoy, Dogan,Sarışık, Mehmet,Nunkoo, Robin,Boğan, Erhan,2021-09-14 Offering a comprehensive understanding of the implications of the COVID 19 pandemic for the tourism and hospitality industry this book discusses the topic from economic sociological and psychological perspectives Critical case studies are used to explore both micro impacts on individuals involved in the industry and governmental and international responses to issues posed by the pandemic more broadly Disaster Education, Communication and Engagement Neil Dufty,2020-03-10 A detailed guide to the design and evaluation of effective disaster learning programs Disaster Education Communication and Engagement provides a much needed evidence based guide for designing effective disaster learning plans and programs that are tailored to local communities and their particular hazard risks Drawing on the most recent research from disaster psychology disaster sociology and education psychology as well as evaluations of disaster learning programs the book contains practical guidance for putting in place a proven design framework The book outlines the steps to take in order to tailor a disaster education communication and engagement program and highlights illustrative examples of effective programs and activities from around the world The author includes information on how to identify potential community learners and presents a methodology for understanding the at risk community its hazard risks disaster risk reduction and emergency management arrangements Disaster Education Communication and Engagement describes both country wide campaigns and local disaster programs that involve community participation This important resource Presents a detailed framework to guide the design and evaluation of tailored disaster learning programs Includes information that links disaster resilience with sustainability and climate change learning Describes the disaster cycle and reviews learning content and methods related to the cycle Explains effective ways to combine disaster education disaster communications and disaster
