Travel and Transformation: Marking transformation Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, Emma Waterton, 2014 Moral Encounters in Tourism Mary Mostafanezhad, Kevin Hannam, 2016-04-15 This first full length treatment of the role of morality in tourism examines how the tourism encounter is also fundamentally a moral encounter Drawing upon interdisciplinary perspectives leading and new authors in the field address topics that range from volunteer tourism to fertility tourism to reveal new insights into the ways tourism encounters are implicated in and contribute to broader moral reconfigurations in Western and non Western contexts Illustrating the role of power and power relations in tourism encounters within different political economic environmental and cultural contexts the authors in this anthology analyse theoretically and empirically the implications of the privileging of some moralities at the expense of others Key themes include the moral consumption of tourism experiences embodiment in tourism encounters environmental moralities as well as methodological aspects of morality in tourism research Crossing disciplinary and chronological boundaries Moral Encounters in Tourism provides a much anticipated overview of this new interdisciplinary terrain and offers possible routes for new research on the intersection of morality and tourism studies Travel, Tourism, and Identity Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-09-29 Travel Tourism and Identity addresses the psychological and social adjustments that occur when people make contact with others outside their social cultural or linguistic groups Whether such contact is the result of tourism seeking exile or relocating abroad the volume s contributors demonstrate how one s identity cultural assumptions and worldview can be brought into question In some cases the traveller finds that bridging the social and cultural gap between himself and the new society is fairly easy In other cases the traveller discovers that reorienting himself requires absorbing a new cultural history and traditions The contributors argue that making these adjustments will surely enhance the traveller s or tourist s experience otherwise the traveller or tourist will be at risk of becoming a marginalized figure one disconnected from the society that surrounds him

Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature Travel and Transformation Dr Emma Waterton, Dr Garth Lean, Dr Russell Staiff, 2014-08-28 Travel and tourism have a long association with the notion of transformation both in terms of self and social collectives What is surprising however is that this association has on the whole remained relatively underexplored and unchallenged with little in the way of a corpus of academic literature surrounding these themes Instead much of the literature to date has focused upon describing and categorising tourism and travel experiences from a supply side perspective with travellers themselves defined in terms of their motivations and interests While the tourism field can lay claim to several significant milestone contributions there have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues arising from the travel transformation nexus The opportunity to explore the socio cultural dimensions of transformation through travel has thus far been missed Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature Journal of Travel Research ,2010-02 Interconnected Worlds Peggy Teo, T.
