Conversation, Friendship and Transformation Jennifer Constantine Jackson,2016-12-08 Conversation is the central spiritual exercise in philosophical and theological reflection on language and love Groundbreaking in its interdisciplinary approach Conversation Friendship and Transformation invites readers to an exploration of theological reflection on conversation and friendship as transformative ways of knowing self others and God Contemporary contributions in the areas of rhetorical theory friendship studies and gender collaboration provide a fruitful lens through which conversation as discourse may be understood as a pathway for theological inquiry Augustine s De doctrina christiana and Confessions manifest a foundational example of reflection on the nature of language and love in the context of basic questions of Christianity and culture Two texts from the medieval tradition are brought forth to confirm and develop Augustine s contributions The Letters of Heloise and Abelard have received substantial scholarly attention from the work of medievalists historians and literary critics but require more intentional theological reflection about the relation between the truths of the Christian faith and the collaborative participation of men and women Thomas Aquinas discussion of oratio in the Summa Theologiae is presented for the first time as a pivotal treatise in this profoundly influential text in the history of Western thought

Change and Transformation Thomas P. Power,2013-08-21 The integrative theme of this collection of essays is change and transformation explored in the context of diverse expressions within the context of Anglican Church history It addresses some central themes notably the sacraments liturgy biblical interpretation theological education the relationship of church and state governance and authority and Christian education The volume traces Anglican Church history chronologically It includes a comparative study of penance in the thought of John Wyclif and Thomas Cranmer The book also treats the dispersal of authority evident in the development of the Book of Common Prayer and the King James Bible consensus in eucharistic theology in the seventeenth century and developments in biblical interpretation in the early eighteenth century This book also discusses a vision for the Christian education of children change in theological education in the 1830s the metanarrative of continuity developed by High Church historians in the late nineteenth century increasing self government in the Church at the outset of the twentieth century and models of governance at the outset of the twenty first While this collection highlights aspects of change and transformation as an integrative theme it is not its premise that change was normative or pervasive perpetual or constant within Anglicanism Nevertheless these essays raise some new lines of inquiry make some suggestive interpretations or propose revision of accepted views

Engrafted Into Christ Christopher J. Malloy,2005 Catholics and Lutherans signed the Joint Declaration on Justification in 1999 This ecumenical agreement claims to resolve all church dividing differences on justification without requiring doctrinal revision a claim that Engrafted into Christ challenges with a twofold thesis First the historic disagreement over justification was substantial thus doctrinal revision is a sine qua non condition of rapprochement Second portions of the Declaration appear irreconcilable with Catholicism A concluding series of original reflections illustrates the intelligibility of Catholic teaching identifies a self destructive element in sola fide and challenges structural elements of Lutheran theology Experts as well as educated laypersons will be interested in this book The Transformation of a Religious Landscape Valerie Ramseyer, 2006-06-08 Ramseyer traces the efforts by the archbishop of Salerno and the abbey of Cava to centralize ecclesiastical structures and standardize religious practices in medieval southern Italy Seeing and Being Seen Dallas George Denery (II.), 1999 transformation in the medieval period are presented here Written by some of Ireland s leading younger medievalists these essays study cultural and literary transmission over the course of eight centuries in medieval England and Ireland Integrating perspectives from literary scholarship philology and cultural history these essays both address specific moments of cultural transformation and build an overall image of the dynamic engagements of individual medieval authors with the texts and traditions they inherited Contributors Christine Thijs UCD Letty Nijhuis TCD Emma Nic Carthaigh UCC Jason Harris UCC Carrie Griffin UCC Brendan O Connell TCD Niamh Pattwell UCD Frances McCormack NUIG Kathleen Cawsey Wilfrid Laurier U Kenneth Rooney UCC Asceticism in the Christian Transformation of Self in Margery Kempe, William Thorpe, and John Rogers Martin L.
