Translating Sensitive Texts Linguistic Aspects Approaches To Translation Studies 14:

Translating Sensitive Texts Karl Simms, 1997 This volume brings together twenty two of the world's leading translation and interpreting theorists to address the issue of sensitivity in translation Whether in novels or legal documents the Bible or travel brochures in translating ancient texts or providing simultaneous interpretation sensitive subject matter contentious modes of expression and the sensibilities of the target audience are the biggest obstacles to acceptance of the translator's work The contributors bring to bear a wide variety of approaches generative cognitive lexical and functional in confronting this problem and in negotiating the competing claims of source cultures and target cultures in the areas of cultural political religious and sexual sensitivity All of the articles are presented here for the first time and in his Introduction Karl Simms gives an overview of the philosophical and linguistic questions which have motivated translators of sensitive texts through the ages This book will be of interest to all working translators and interpreters and to teachers of translation theory and practice

New Perspectives on Dubliners Mary Power, Ulrich Schneider, 1997 Contextualization and the Old Testament Jerry Hwang, 2022-09-26 Christianity is often viewed in Asia as a Western imposition Challenging this Dr Jerry Hwang examines the Old Testament's cultural engagement of its ancient Near Eastern context arguing that Scripture itself provides the ultimate model for contextualizing theology in Asia While it is common for missiological studies to ignore the Old Testament in their discussion of contextualization truly biblical contextualization must include the whole Bible not simply the New Testament This study provides insightful discourse between the Old Testament and various Asian contexts while demonstrating how Asian perspectives can help overcome the Eurocentrism prevalent in Old Testament scholarship This is an ideal resource for scholars and practitioners interested in a biblical perspective of contextualization especially as related to constructing theology that honors the truth of Scripture in the context of Asia

The Party of Democratic Socialism in Germany Peter Barker, 1998 The Party of Democratic Socialism in Germany which includes the papers from the first conference on the PDS in Britain brings together a range of scholars and politicians from Germany Britain France and the USA It assesses the present position of the party within the German political system shortly before the second Superwahljahr in Germany It also examines its relations with other post communist parties in Europe and evaluates the state of its relations with the other political parties competing for the left of centre vote in the new Länder Above all the volume is concerned with the question as to whether the PDS as the successor party to the former ruling communist party in East Germany represents a modern form of socialism or is merely a populist reaction to the particular concerns of eastern Germans after unification The volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars of German and politics who are concerned with developments in Germany and Europe after the collapse of communism There are twelve contributions to the volume six in German and six in English

Cultural Politics and Political Culture in Postmodern Europe J. Peter Burgess, 1997 The present volume assembles essays from a broad cultural and professional spectrum around the question of European cultural identity The heterogeneity of the contributors their differing points of departure and methods attests to a tension in intellectual communities which today is more intense than ever Europe's identity crisis is not merely an empirical matter It reflects a far deeper and far older discursive crisis The mandate of Europe's traditional intellectual institutions to preserve and police their own cultural heritage has proved incapable of evolving in a manner sufficient to account for the mutation in its object European culture It is not merely that Europe's identity like any identity in the flux of history has changed Rather the notion of identity the very basis of any questions of who we are where we are going and the appropriate political forms and social institutions for further existence all rely on a logic of identity which has at best become extremely problematic It is this problematization which provides the common thread unifying the following essays Each contributor in his/her own way and with respect to his/her own research object confronts the adequacy of the concept of cultural identity The hidden presuppositions of this concept are indeed remarkable and the logic of cultural identity prescribes that they remain undisclosed

Just Postmodernism Steven Earnshaw, 1997 The essays collected here represent the latest thinking on postmodernism in a number of key areas economics law postcolonialism literature feminism film philosophy One of the issues common to the volume is the desire to cast postmodernism in a predominantly ethical just light and the opportunities and obstacles postmodernism might place in the path of the description of and search for justice The collection highlights the most recent trends in postmodern thinking the turn away from postmodernism as mere discourse and language games to a more politically and socially engaged forum The book will be of interest to all students of contemporary cultural social and critical thought

Translating Sensitive Texts, 2022-07-04 This volume brings together twenty-two of the world's leading translation and interpreting theorists to address the issue of sensitivity in translation Whether in novels or legal documents the Bible or travel brochures in translating ancient texts or providing simultaneous interpretation sensitive subject matter contentious modes of expression and the sensibilities of the target audience are the biggest obstacles to acceptance of the translator's work The contributors bring to bear a wide variety of approaches generative cognitive lexical and functional in confronting this problem and in negotiating the competing claims of source cultures and target cultures in the areas of cultural political religious and sexual sensitivity All of the articles are presented here for the first time and in his Introduction Karl Simms gives an overview of the philosophical and linguistic questions which have motivated translators of sensitive texts through the ages This book will be of interest to all working translators and interpreters and to teachers of translation theory and practice Religion and French Literature ,2023-11-27 Since 1974 the French Literature Series publishes essays in conjunction with the theme of the bi annual French Literature Conference sponsored by the Department of Languages Literatures and Cultures of the University of South Carolina Columbia South Carolina USA In addition to the scholarly papers selected for publication by the Editorial Board it also accepts notes on the conference topic Contributors should note that FLS does not publish conference proceedings Rather submissions must be revised for publication and undergo blind peer review All communications concerning the French Literature Series should be addressed to the Editor Jeanne Garane garanejmailbox sc edu The French Literature Series is published by BRILL Rodopi For communications concerning standing orders or back volumes please check the series website at www.brill.com/fls This series has been closed in 2020 'Closing the Gap' Hans Bertens,2023-11-20 Postmodern Studies deals with any aspect of postmodernism or of postmodernity and the postmodern in relation to literature Publications in this series can be either of a theoretical or a more practical analytic nature They may refer to any one or to several literary works genres or literatures They may also refer to the other arts provided the main focus remain literary In evaluating contributions the editors of Postmodern Studies will follow no particular methodological or ideological bias All manuscripts accepted in the series first undergo a process of peer review Due to rapid developments in literary studies we close the series for new publications Elenchus of Biblica 1997 Robert Althann,2001-12-31

Gender and Ideology in Translation Vanessa Leonardi,2007 Leonardi analyses and evaluates the problems that may arise from ideology driven shifts in the translation process as a result of gender differences First she offers a theoretical background draws up an analytic checklist of linguistic tools and states the main hypothesis then she tests the hypothesis with four empirical analyses Corpus-based Translation Studies Sara Laviosa,2021-11-15 In the course of the last 10 years corpus based studies of translation have given rise to a sizeable and coherent body of research within Pure and Applied Translation Studies In view of these developments it is important to assess the state of the art of Corpus based Translation Studies and attempt to identify some of the main trends that are likely to characterise its expansion The aim of this volume is to examine and evaluate the main ideas methods of analysis findings and pedagogical applications of this relatively young and promising field of research Translator trainees and teachers of translation professional translators young researchers and scholars in Translation Studies will find the principles the methodology the discoveries and the practical applications of corpus based research useful and inspiring They are useful in as far as they equip translation practitioners with tools and techniques that can truly improve the quality and efficiency of their work They are inspiring because they reveal facts of the process and product of translation which are new consistent and based on solid empirical foundations Teoría del poema: La enunciación lírica, 2023-11-27 El presente libro cuyo origen fue un simposio celebrado en la Universidad de Amsterdam responde a la necesidad percibida en la docencia universitaria de poseer un acercamiento te rico y pr ctico a la poes a El lector encontrar en estas p ginas una importante selecci n de ensayos que permiten revisar un tema poco estudiado en el mundo hisp nico la teor a de la poes a as como trabajos en que se efect a una aguda interpretaci n de la obra po tica Aparece en este libro por primera vez una consideraci n de la poes a como un discurso ficcional Translation and Community Mustapha Taibi, 2024-12-13 Community or public service translation contributes to a more equitable and sustainable community by empowering minority groups such as migrants and refugees and is a growing area for both teaching and research within translation studies Written by a leading authority with over 20 years of teaching experience and in consultation with a range of academics running major courses across the globe this is the first accessible and interactive introductory textbook to this growing area It provides step by step guidance to students undertaking an undergraduate or postgraduate course covering community translation public service translation translation as social action or translation as a social service in multilingual and multicultural societies The book covers key issues in this area of translation practice including its distinctive features challenges and requirements role and ethical issues common text types translation strategies translation revision and quality assurance and relationships with end users Including examples of a range of different text types suggested activities and readings at the end of each chapter and additional resources and activities on the Routledge Translation Studies portal this is the essential introduction for all students of community and public service translation The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available Issues in Arabic Legal Translation Sonia A. Halimi, Djamel Goui, 2025-03-10 This edited collection provides an insightful study of the state of the art in legal translation It not only presents the latest research on legal translation pragmatics terminology and intercultural communication but also delivers an account of the situation of legal translation in a selection of Arabic speaking countries representing the four regions of the Arab world in an attempt to show when and how legal translation is done The collection also portrays translation situations in the international arena with two case studies the United Nations setting and the Arabic translation of the American Constitution The book chapters explore the dynamic relationship between language and the law in a variety of legal settings where the cultural landscape historical background and social dynamics determine the act of translation This collection is a valuable source of information for professionals and students of Arabic legal translation linguists practitioners and academics CDA and PDA Made Simple Bahaa-eddin M. Mazid, 2014-11-24 CDA and PDA Made Simple cuts many long stories short and encapsulates a long standing tradition in modern and contemporary linguistics The theoretical scope of the book encompasses a lengthy review of relevant studies in the area of critical discourse analysis CDA and more broadly in the areas of power control ideology and politics as realized and enacted in discourse The book also brings together a detailed theoretical background on the main tenets and assumptions tools and recipes trends and extensions and critiques and applications of critical and political discourse analysis PDA Its analytical focus is predominantly on how ideology and power are linguistically and meta linguistically realized specifically through transitivity modality metadiscourse and presupposition in some discourse genres in English

Entwicklungslinien der Translationswissenschaft Erich Prunč, 2012 Die Entwicklungslinien bieten die erste deutschsprachige Übersicht zur Translationswissenschaft die in ihrer gesamten Vielfalt und komplexen Breite als eine eigenständige Disziplin vorgestellt wird Dazu greift die Darstellung auch in die jeweiligen wissenschaftshistorischen Kontexte aus sie verknüpft die Spannbreite der einzelnen Modelle und Strömungen von den kontrastiv linguistischen Anfängen bis hin zur modernen Translationssoziologie und Translationsethik zu einem ganzheitlichen Konzept Die Ausführungen sind bewusst leserfreundlich angelegt was gewährleistet das Buch in zwei sich speziell ergänzenden Weisen zu nutzen zum einen empfiehlt es sich als ein Einführungsangebot für Studienanfänger und Neueinsteiger in die Thematik zum anderen wird der Wunsch nach Vertiefung und breitem Ausbau von bereits vorhandenem Wissen erfüllt Bibliographic Guide to Psychology New York Public Library.
