Bandmaster, 1931 The Strad, 1921 Art Crime in Context Naomi Oosterman, Donna Yates, 2022-11-23 This book brings together empirical and theoretical case study research on art and heritage crime Drawn from a diverse group of researchers and professionals the work presented explores contemporary conceptualisations of art crime within broader contexts In this volume we see art in its usual forms for art crime scholarship in paintings and antiquities However we also see art in fossils and in violins chairs and jewellery holes in the ground and even in the institutions meant to protect any or all of the above And where there is art there is crime Chapters in this volume alternatively zoom in on specific objects on specific locations and on specific institutions considering how each interact with the various conceptions of crime that exist in those contexts This volume challenges the boundaries of what we understand as art and heritage crimes and displays that both art and criminality related to art is creative and unpredictable
