Derrick Jensen, 2005-04-30 Remember the days of longing for the hands on the classroom clock to move faster Most of us would say we love to learn but we hated school Why is that What happens to creativity and individuality as we pass through the educational system Walking on Water is a startling and provocative look at teaching writing creativity and life by a writer increasingly recognized for his passionate and articulate critique of modern civilization This time Derrick Jensen brings us into his classroom whether college or maximum security prison where he teaches writing He reveals how schools perpetuate the great illusion that happiness lies outside of ourselves and that learning to please and submit to those in power makes us into lifelong clock watchers As a writing teacher Jensen guides his students out of the confines of traditional education to find their own voices freedom and creativity Jensen's great gift as a teacher and writer is to bring us fully alive at the same moment he is making us confront our losses and count our defeats It is at the center of Walking on Water a book that is not only a hard hitting and sometimes scathing critique of our current educational system and not only a hands on method for learning how to write but like Julia Cameron's The Artist's Way a lesson on how to connect to the core of our creative selves to the miracle of waking up and arriving breathless but with dry feet on the far shore It's Time to Walk on Water

Dan de Kock, 2009-10-22 It's time to learn to live by faith in a certain God in uncertain times Many have thought that having the right doctrine in our heads is all we need Nothing could be further from the truth Unless we know how to LIVE by faith daily we will not be successful when what we have relied on proves inadequate or fails This book is about learning to live by faith as a lifestyle It is about learning to live by faith as naturally as a fish lives in water Jesus upholds everything by His word He can surely uphold us through the worst storms And through Him we have access to the Father who loves us and for whom nothing is too hard All that is required is our faith That is what this book is all about It's time to walk on water A LONG WALK TO WATER
