Cincinnati Magazine, 1983-05 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region Taking The Road Less Traveled Barry Allen Rosenfeld, 2008-11-21 A young man barely starting out in life is faced with a choice Marry the beguiling young widow he has just met in an Israeli kibbutz and become the father of her three children or return single to his empty life as a rabbinical student studying to be a Reform rabbi Although doubting the existence of God he believes that God is guiding him and he marries the young woman Thus begins his trip down the road less traveled that will take him back to the States where he experiences the psychedelic 60s back to Israel where he covers a very hot war while working for NBC television and on to Belize where he becomes a gentleman planter and developer of thousands of acres of bananas and citrus only to return once again to the States where he confronts a decision that will change his life forever Exam Schools Chester E. Finn, Jr., Jessica A. Hockett, 2012-09-16 An in depth look at academically selective public high schools in America What is the best education for exceptionally able and high achieving youngsters Can the United States strengthen its future intellectual leadership economic vitality and scientific prowess without sacrificing equal opportunity There are no easy answers but as Chester Finn and Jessica Hockett show for more than 100 000 students each year the solution is to enroll in an academically selective public high school Exam Schools is the first ever close up look at this small sometimes controversial yet crucial segment of American public education This groundbreaking book discusses how these schools work and their critical role in nurturing the country's brightest students The 165 schools identified by Finn and Hockett are located in thirty states plus the District of Columbia While some are world renowned such as Boston Latin and Bronx Science others are known only in their own communities The authors survey the schools on issues ranging from admissions and student diversity to teacher selection They probe sources of political support curriculum instructional styles educational effectiveness and institutional autonomy Some of their findings are surprising Los Angeles for example has no exam schools while New York City has dozens Asian American students are overrepresented but so are African American pupils Culminating with in depth profiles of eleven exam schools and thoughtful reflection on policy implications Finn and Hockett ultimately consider whether the country would be better off with more such schools At a time of keen attention to the faltering education system Exam

Schools sheds positive light on a group of schools that could well provide a transformative roadmap for many of America's children Keep On Fighting Dorothy H. Christenson, 2015-07-15 Marian Alexander Spencer was born in 1920 in the Ohio River town of Gallipolis Ohio one year after the Red Summer of 1919 that saw an upsurge in race riots and lynchings Following the example of her grandfather an ex slave and community leader Marian joined the NAACP at thirteen and grew up to achieve not only a number of civic leadership firsts in her adopted home city of Cincinnati but a legacy of lasting civil rights victories Of these the best known is the desegregation of Cincinnati's Coney Island amusement park She also fought to desegregate Cincinnati schools and to stop the introduction of observers in black voting precincts in Ohio Her campaign to raise awareness of industrial toxic waste practices in minority neighborhoods was later adapted into national Superfund legislation In 2012 Marian's friend and colleague Dot Christenson sat down with her to record her memories The resulting biography not only gives us the life story of remarkable leader but encapsulates many of the twentieth century's greatest struggles and advances Spencer's story will prove inspirational and instructive to citizens and students alike African American Dramatists Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2004-10-30 Despite their significant contributions to the American theater African American dramatists have received less critical attention than novelists and poets This reference offers thorough critical assessments of the lives and works of African American playwrights from the 19th century to the present The book alphabetically arranges entries on more than 60 dramatists including James Baldwin Arna Bontemps Ossie Davis Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the playwright's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with a selected general bibliography African American dramatists have made enormous contributions to the theater and their works are included in numerous editions and anthologies Some of the most popular plays of the 20th century have been written by African Americans and high school students and undergraduates study their works But for all their popularity and influence African American playwrights have received less critical attention than poets and novelists This reference offers thorough critical assessments of more than 60 African American dramatists from the 19th century to the present Cincinnati Magazine , 2004-09 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region Cincinnati Magazine , 1988-04 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region Engineering and Contracting , 1912
