Waiting For Gautreaux A Story Of Segregation Housing And The Black Ghetto:

Waiting for Gautreaux Alexander Polikoff, 2007-05-11 Winner 2006 The American Lawyer Lifetime Achievement Award

On his thirty ninth birthday in 1966 Alexander Polikoff a volunteer ACLU attorney and partner in a Chicago law firm met some friends to discuss a pro bono case Over lunch the four talked about the Chicago Housing Authority construction program All the new public housing it seemed was going into black neighborhoods If discrimination was prohibited in public schools wasn't it also prohibited in public housing And so began Gautreaux v CHA and HUD a case that from its rocky beginnings would roll on year after year decade after decade carrying Polikoff and his colleagues to the nation's Supreme Court to face then solicitor general Robert Bork establishing precedents for suits against the discriminatory policies of local housing authorities often abetted by HUD and setting the stage for a nationwide experiment aimed at ending the concentration and racialization of poverty through public housing Sometimes Kafkaesque sometimes simply inspiring and never less than absorbing the story of Gautreaux told by its principal lawyer moves with ease through local and national civil rights history legal details political matters and the personal costs and rewards of a commitment to fairness equality and justice Both the memoir of a dedicated lawyer and the narrative of a tenacious pursuit of equality this story itself a critical still unfolding chapter in recent American history urges us to take an essential step in ending the racial inequality that Alexis de Toqueville prophetically named America's most formidable evil

Public Housing and the Legacy of Segregation

Departments of Transportation, and Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2008

United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Transportation, Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies, 2007 The Oxford Handbook of Urban Planning Randall Crane, Rachel Weber, 2012-05-24 Why plan How and what do we plan Who plans for whom These three questions are then applied across three major topics in planning States Markets and the Provision of Social Goods The Methods and Substance of Planning and Agency Implementation and Decision Making Urban Revitalization Carl Grodach, Renia Ehrenfeucht, 2015-12-22

Following decades of neglect and decline many US cities have undergone a dramatic renaissance From New York to Nashville and Pittsburgh to Portland governments have implemented innovative redevelopment strategies to adapt to a globally integrated post industrial economy and cope with declining industries tax bases and populations However despite the prominence of new amenities in revitalized neighborhoods spectacular architectural icons and pedestrian friendly entertainment districts the urban comeback has been highly uneven Even thriving cities are defined by a bifurcated population of creative class professionals and a low wage low skilled workforce Many are home to diverse and thriving immigrant communities but also contain economically and socially segregated neighborhoods They have transformed high profile central city brownfields but many disadvantaged neighborhoods continue to grapple with abandoned and environmentally contaminated sites As urban cores boom inner ring suburban areas increasingly face mounting problems while other shrinking cities continue to wrestle with long term decline The Great Recession brought additional challenges to planning and development professionals and community organizations alike as they work to maintain successes and respond to new problems It is crucial that students of urban revitalization recognize these challenges their impacts on different populations and the implications for crafting effective and equitable revitalization policy Urban Revitalization Remaking Cities in a Changing World will be a guide in this learning process This textbook will be the first to comprehensively and critically synthesize the successful approaches and pressing challenges involved in urban revitalization The book is divided into five sections In the introductory section we set the stage by providing a conceptual framework to understand urban revitalization that links a political economy perspective with an appreciation of socio cultural factors in explaining urban change Stemming from this we will explain the significance of revitalization and present a summary of the key debates issues and conflicts surrounding revitalization efforts Section II will examine the historical causes for decline in central city and inner ring suburban areas and shrinking cities and building from the conceptual framework discuss theory useful to explain the factors that shape contemporary revitalization initiatives and outcomes Section III will introduce students to the analytical techniques and key data sources for urban revitalization planning Section IV will provide an in depth critical discussion of contemporary urban revitalization policies strategies and projects This section will offer a rich set of case studies that contextualize key themes and strategic areas across a range of contexts including the urban core central city neighborhoods suburban areas and shrinking cities Lastly Section V concludes by reflecting on the current state of urban revitalization planning and the emerging challenges the field must face in the future Urban Revitalization will integrate academic and policy research with professional knowledge and techniques Its key strength will be the combination of a critical examination of best practices and innovative approaches with an overview of the methods used to understand local situations and urban revitalization processes A unique feature will be chapter specific case studies of contemporary urban revitalization projects and questions geared toward generating classroom discussion around key issues The book will be written in an accessible style and thoughtfully organized to provide graduate and upper level undergraduate students with a comprehensive resource that will also serve as a reference guide for professionals

Moving to Opportunity Xavier de Souza Briggs, Susan J. Popkin, John Goering, 2010-03-31 Moving to Opportunity provides a unique account of one of the largest housing experiments in history and its effects on lives of the children and families who participated As the authors make clear MTO is a uniquely American experiment and this book brings home its lessons for advocates scholars students journalists and all who share a deep concern for opportunity and inequality in a changing nation

Black Metropolis St. Clair Drake, Horace R. Cayton, 2015-11-10 Ground breaking when first published in 1945 Black Metropolis remains a landmark study of race and urban life Few studies since have been able to match its scope and magnitude offering one of the most comprehensive looks at black life in America Based on research conducted by Works Progress Administration field workers it is a sweeping historical and sociological account of the people of Chicago s South Side from the 1840s through the 1930s Its findings offer a comprehensive analysis of black migration settlement community structure and black white race relations in the first half of the twentieth century It offers a dizzying and dynamic world filled with captivating people and startling revelations A new foreword from sociologist Mary Pattillo places the study in modern context updating the story with the current state of black communities in Chicago and the larger United States and exploring what this means for the future As the country continues to struggle with race and our treatment of black lives Black Metropolis continues to be a powerful contribution to the conversation

Segregation Carl H. Nightingale, 2012-05-01 When we think of segregation what often comes to mind is apartheid South Africa or the American South in the age of Jim Crow two societies fundamentally premised on the concept of the separation of the races But as Carl H Nightingale shows us in this magisterial history segregation is everywhere deforming cities and societies worldwide Starting with segregation s ancient roots and what the archaeological evidence reveals about humanity s long standing use of urban divisions to reinforce political and economic inequality Nightingale then moves to the world of European colonialism It was there he shows segregation based on color and eventually on race took hold the British East India Company for example split Calcutta into White Town and Black Town As we follow Nightingale s story around the globe we see that division replicated from Hong Kong to Nairobi Baltimore to San Francisco and more The turn of the twentieth century saw the most aggressive segregation movements yet as white communities almost everywhere set to rearranging whole cities along racial lines Nightingale focuses closely on two striking examples Johannesburg with its state sponsored separation and Chicago in which the goal of segregation was advanced by the more subtle methods of real estate markets and housing policy For the first time ever the majority of humans live in cities and nearly all those cities bear the scars of segregation This unprecedented ambitious history lays bare our troubled past and sets us on the path to imagining the better more equal cities of the future Affordable Housing in Charlotte Tom Hanchett, 2025-05-06 Locally regionally and nationally the lack of affordable housing is an urgent and ongoing issue As elected officials rush to ramp up aid for the construction of affordable apartments scholars and policymakers are asking how our present system of housing subsidies both its strengths and its shortcomings came into being In this book Tom Hanchett takes a case study approach tracking low rent housing in the growing city of Charlotte North Carolina from the beginnings of public housing circa 1940 to the present Looking beyond policy battles in Washington Hanchett tells an intimate history of how federal initiatives played out on the ground making clear connections between the creation of federal housing programs and how agencies interacted with local and state forces to actually produce housing Using Charlotte as a lens Hanchett shows in detail how power brokers have clashed on all levels of government and yet have the ability to empower both citizens and elected officials to take action toward better housing for all in North Carolina s most populous city and beyond
