Waiting For The Barbarians:

Waiting for the Barbarians J. M. Coetzee, 2010-06-29 A modern classic by Nobel Laureate J M Coetzee now a major motion picture starring Robert Pattinson and Johnny Depp For decades the Magistrate has run the affairs of a tiny frontier settlement ignoring the impending war between the barbarians and the Empire whose servant he is When interrogation experts arrive however he finds himself jolted into sympathy with their victims until their barbarous treatment of prisoners of war finally pushes him into a quixotic act of rebellion and thus into imprisonment as an enemy of the state Waiting for the Barbarians J M Coetzee s third novel which won the James Tate Black Memorial Prize is an allegory of the war between oppressor and oppressed The Magistrate is not simply a man living through a crisis of conscience in an obscure place in remote times his situation is that of all men living in unbearable complicity with regimes that elevate their own survival above justice and decency

Waiting for the Barbarians J. M. Coetzee, 1981 A magistrate in a country village protests the army s treatment of members of the barbarian tribes taken prisoner during a civil war and finds himself arrested as a traitor

J.M. Coetzee David Attwell, 1993-06-11 David Attwell defends the literary and political integrity of South African novelist J M Coetzee by arguing that Coetzee has absorbed the textual turn of postmodern culture while still addressing the ethical tensions of the South African crisis As a form of situational metafiction Coetzee s writing reconstructs and critiques some of the key discourses in the history of colonialism and apartheid from the eighteenth century to the present While self conscious about fiction making it takes seriously the condition of the society in which it is produced Attwell begins by describing the intellectual and political contexts surrounding Coetzee s fiction and then provides a developmental analysis of his six novels drawing on Coetzee s other writings in stylistics literary criticism translation political journalism and popular culture Elegantly written Attwell s analysis deals with both Coetzee s subversion of the dominant culture around him and his ability to see the complexities of giving voice to the anguish of South Africa

Eckstein, 1990-10 This book offers new and provocative readings of Milan Kundera s Book of Laughter and Forgetting J M Coetzee s Waiting for the Barbarians and Life and Times of Michael K selected short fiction of Nadine Gordimer and Grace Paley Ibuse Masuji s Black Rain John Hawkes s Travesty and others

Waiting for the Barbarians Lewis H. Lapham, 1998 With invective all the more deadly for its grace and wit Lewis Lapham editor of Harper s magazine presents a portrait of a feckless American establishment gone large in the stomach and soft in the head This acerbic commentary on the insouciance of the monied ruling class concludes with a forewarning piece where Lapham looks at the fate of indolent ruling classes throughout history

Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess, 2008-01-01 Despite being central to the project of postcolonialism the concept of resistance has received only limited theoretical examination Writers such as Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Homi K Bhabha have explored instances of revolt opposition or subversion but there has been insufficient critical analysis of the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to liberation or social and cultural transformation In Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess looks to redress this critical imbalance Jefferess argues that interpreting resistance as these critics have done as either acts of opposition or practices of subversion is insufficient He discerns in the existing critical literature an alternate paradigm for postcolonial politics and through close analyses of the work of Mohandas Gandhi and the South African reconciliation project Postcolonial Resistance seeks to redefine resistance to reconnect an analysis of colonial discourse to material structures of colonial exploitation and inequality Engaging works of postcolonial fiction literary criticism historiography and cultural theory Jefferess conceives of resistance and reconciliation as dependent upon the transformation of both the colonial subject and the antagonistic nature of colonial power In doing so he reframes postcolonial conceptions of resistance violence and liberation thus inviting future scholarship in the field to reconsider past conceptualizations of political power and opposition to that power
