Introduction to Waldorf Education Earl J. Ogletree, 1979

Art and Soul: Rudolf Steiner, Interdisciplinary Art and Education Victoria de Rijke, 2019-10-11 This book brings together Steiner s philosophical biodynamic and cultural contributions to education where spirit and soul are the creative elements in human evolution His thought is applied to selected examples of innovative artistic practice and pedagogy of the present This volume is intended for researchers in the arts and education with an interest in Rudolf Steiner s huge influence on educational thought and policy This is an urgent point in time to reflect on the role of arts in education and what it might mean for our souls An accessible yet scholarly study of interdisciplinarity imagination and creativity is of critical widespread interest now when arts education in many countries is threatened with near extinction

Waldorf Schools and the History of Steiner Education Thomas Stehlik, 2019-10-31 This book marks the centenary of the first Waldorf School established by Rudolf Steiner in Stuttgart in 1919 With around 1 150 Waldorf Schools and over 1 800 Waldorf Kindergartens established in over 60 countries this book examines and analyses how the initial impulse of Steiner education has grown over the last century to become a worldwide alternative movement in education The author documents and compares the growth and development of Waldorf schools and Steiner inspired educational institutions around the world and determines the extent to which the original underpinning philosophy has been maintained against the contexts and challenges of contemporary global trends in education Within such diverse international contexts it is significant that the schools retain such a distinctive identity and clearly redefine how alternative education can be viewed This comprehensive volume will be of interest and value to scholars of Steiner education and Waldorf schools as well as alternative education more widely space for human formation this book is distinctive in looking at the crisis rather than the success of Chinese education The editors and contributors mostly overseas and mainland Chinese scholars argue that modern Chinese education has been built upon a superficial and instrumental embrace of Western modernity and a fragmented appropriation of Chinese cultural heritage They call for a rethinking and re envisioning of Chinese education grounded in and enriched by various cultural traditions and cross cultural dialogues Drawing on Chinese history and culture Western and Chinese philosophies curriculum and pedagogical theories the collected volume analyzes 1 why education as person making has failed to take root in contemporary China 2 how the purpose of education has changed during the process of China s modernization and 3 what a rediscovery of the meaning of person making implies for rethinking and re envisioning Chinese education in the current age of globalization and social change Re envisioning Chinese Education The meaning of person making in a new age discusses among other issues China s Historical Encounter with the West and Modern Chinese Education Rediscover Lasting Values Confucian Cultural Learning Models in the Twenty first Century Rethinking and Re envisioning Chinese Didactics Implications from the German Didaktik Tradition The New Basic Education and the Development of Human Subjectivity A Chinese Experience This book will be relevant for scholars researchers and policy makers everywhere who seek a more balanced more sophisticated and philosophically better grounded understanding of Chinese education

Re-envisioning Chinese Education Guoping Zhao, Zongyi Deng, 2015-10-30 Maintaining education as a pedagogical
