Walker Evans The Getty Museum Collection:

Walker Evans Judith Keller, 1995-11-02 Walker Evans is widely recognized as one of the greatest American photographers of the twentieth century and the J Paul Getty Museum owns one of the most comprehensive collections of his work including more of his vintage prints than any other museum in the world This lavishly illustrated volume brings together for the first time all of the Museum's Walker Evans holdings Included here are familiar images such as Evans's photographs of tenant farmers and their families made in the 1930s and later published in Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and images that are much less familiar such as the photographs Evans made in the 1940s of the winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers circus or his very late Polaroids made in the 1970s In addition many previously unpublished Evans photographs and variant croppings of classic images appear here for the first time Author Judith Keller has written a lively informative text that places these photographs in the larger context of Evans's life and career and the culture especially the popular culture of the time In so doing she has produced an indispensable volume for anyone interested in the history of photography or American culture in the twentieth century Also included is the most comprehensive bibliography on Walker Evans published to date

Walker Evans Walker Evans, Andrei Codrescu, 1998 From the 1920s to the time of his death in 1975 photographer Walker Evans was obsessed with the signage he found in modern America from billboards to gas station pumps to street graffiti to handmade announcements of a Saturday night dance This book features 50 of his photographs of signs from the Getty Museum's collection plus 50 additional illustrations

Walker Evans Walker Evans, Belinda Rathbone, Clark Worswick, 2000 Walker Evans America's preeminent documentary artist has profoundly changed the way Americans look at themselves and their country The authors document Evans' monumental career and present scores of his never before published pictures drawn from the largest private collection of his work in the world 160 duotones

Photographers of Genius at the Getty spotlights the genius of 38 seminal photographers selected from the hundreds of artists represented in the collection

Walker Evans Svetlana Alpers, 2023-11-07 A magisterial study of celebrated photographer Walker Evans Walker Evans 1903-75 was a great American artist photographing people and places in the United States in unforgettable ways He is known for his work for the Farm Security Administration addressing the Great Depression but what he actually saw was the diversity of people and the damage of the long Civil War In Walker Evans renowned art historian Svetlana Alpers explores how Evans made his distinctive photographs Delving into a lavish selection of Evans's work Alpers uncovers rich parallels between his creative approach and those of numerous literary and cultural figures locating Evans within the wide context of a truly international circle Alpers demonstrates that Evans's practice relied on his camera choices and willingness to edit multiple versions of a shot as well as his keen eye and his distant straight-on view of visual objects Illustrating the vital role of Evans's dual love of text and images Alpers places his writings in conversation with his photographs She brings his techniques into dialogue with the work of a global cast of important artists from Flaubert and Baudelaire to Elizabeth Bishop and William Faulkner underscoring how Evans's travels abroad in such places as France and Cuba along with his expansive literary and artistic tastes informed his quintessentially American photographic style A magisterial account of a great twentieth century artist Walker Evans urges us to look anew at the act of seeing the world to reconsider how Evans saw his subjects how he saw his photographs and how we can see his images as if for the first time

Beyond the Architect's Eye Mary N. Woods, 2009 Focusing on images of New York the rural South and Miami from the 1890s to the 1940s Mary N Woods explores the ways photographers used the built environment to explore not only the gulfs but also the overlaps between modern and traditional culture in America during the early twentieth century The J. Paul Getty Museum Journal The J. Paul Getty Museum, 1997-10-02 The J Paul Getty Museum Journal has been published annually since 1974 It contains scholarly articles and shorter notes pertaining to objects in the Museum's seven curatorial departments Antiquities Decorative Arts Drawings Manuscripts Paintings Photographs and Sculpture and Works of Art The Journal includes an illustrated checklist of the Museum's acquisitions for the previous year a staff listing and a statement by the Museum's director outlining the year's most important activities Volume 24 of the J Paul Getty Museum Journal includes articles by John Walsh Birgitta Lindros Wohl Helmut Engelhart Sabine Haag Mari Tere Alvarez and Christiane Bron
