Walking with Bears Terry D. DeBruyn, 2001-10 One man s relationship with three generations of wild bears Jacket

Dominion of Bears Sherry Simpson, 2013-10-18 Long ago we invited bears into our stories our dreams our nightmares our lives We have always sought them out where they live for their hides their meat their beauty their knowingness Human country and bear country exist side by side As Sherry Simpson suggests the relationship between bears and humans is ancient and ongoing and in Alaska profoundly and often uncomfortably close A huge number of North America s bears live in Alaska including at least 31 000 brown bears 100 000 black bears and 3 500 polar bears And nearly every aspect of Alaskan society reflects their presence from hunting to tourism marketing to wildlife management to urban planning A long time Alaskan Simpson offers a series of compelling essays on Alaskan bears in both wild and urban spaces because in Alaska bears are found not only in their natural habitat but also in cities and towns Combining field research interviews and a host of up to date scientific sources her finely polished prose conveys a wealth of information and insight on ursine biology behavior feeding mating social structure and much more Simpson crisscrosses the Alaskan landscape in pursuit of bears as she muses marvels and often stands in sheer awe before these charismatic creatures Firmly grounded in the expertise of wildlife biologists hunters and viewing guides she shows bears as they actually are not as we imagine them to be She considers not only the occasionally aggressive behavior bears need to survive but also the violence exacted upon them by trophy hunters advocates of predator control or suburbanites who view bears as land sharks that threaten the safety of their families Shifting effortlessly between fascinating facts and poetic imagery Simpson crafts an extended meditation on why we are so drawn to bears and why they continue to engage our imaginations populate indigenous mythologies and help define our essential visions of wilderness As Simpson observes The slightest evidence that bears share your world or that you share theirs can alter not only your sense of the landscape but your sense of yourself within that landscape Dropped Threads

3 Marjorie Anderson, 2010-09-03 In the tradition of the bestselling Dropped Threads and Dropped Threads 2 comes this new collection of essays from well known writers and new voices Ever since the publication of the first two Dropped Threads books readers and writers have longed for another installment and here it is For this collection editor Marjorie Anderson took a new thematic path searching out pieces that don t necessarily focus on what women haven t been told but rather on what they have to tell In Dropped Threads 3 Beyond the Small Circle thirty five women open up their own small circles of experience to others in ways that not only illuminate the lives of individual women but add more threads to the already rich tapestry of our collective conversation These essays focus on personal discoveries that for various reasons need to be shared the writers tell us about family secrets sexuality rebellion crevices of deep joy or regret about finding connections to nature to animals to a tribe to which one can belong about embracing forgiveness kindness and new perspectives beyond the circle of individual sight Barbara McLean tells us of the sister she never knew and how recovering her story shed light on how grief can take so many different forms June Callwood explores the continuity that flows between mothers and daughters and the mysterious chance happenings that form character Frances Itani writes about how the voices of the women in her family her aunts and grandmother relaying stories around the kitchen table are as integral to her life as her own genetic code Melanie Janzen sees connections between a Ugandan women s collective and the neighbourhood women of her childhood but has trouble finding a similar community of support in her own life today And in all of the pieces there is a powerful sense that the understanding that comes from writing and reading can enrich our lives beyond measure As Marjorie Anderson writes in her foreword we trust first person narratives precisely because they give us an inside view into someone else s world here as in the best of our personal conversations there are no assertions of absolute truth no earth shaking revelations or attempts to manipulate another s belief just individual voices making individual claims on the discovery of meaning With Dropped Threads 3 Beyond the Small Circle Anderson has created a forum in which Canadian women can share their personal discoveries with honesty insight and humour Marjorie Anderson foreword Margaret Atwood June Callwood Tracey Ann Coveart Lorna Crozier Andrea Curtis Norma DePledge Maggie de Vries M A C Farrant Liane Faulder Natalie Fingerhut Lorri Neilsen Glenn Marie Lynn Hammond Harriet Hart Frances Itani Melanie D Janzen Gillian Kerr Chantal Kreviazuk Silken Laumann Jodi Lundgren Ann Marie MacDonald introduction C B Mackintosh Heather Mallick Barbara McLean Barbara Mitchell Bernice Morgan Patricia Pearson Beth Powning Judy Rebick Susan Riley Lauri Sarkadi Barbara Scott Jodi Stone Cathy Stonehouse J C Szasz Aritha van Herk Janice Williamson
