Walter Rodney's Intellectual And Political Thought African American Life Series:

Walter Rodney's Intellectual and Political Thought Rupert Lewis, 1998 Placing Rodney's work in the larger tradition of West Indian involvement with continental Africa Walter Rodney's Intellectual and Political Thought traces the evolution of Walter Rodney's political ideas through biography analysis of his writings on Africa and the Caribbean and his political practice Rooted in transatlantic history and politics Rodney's intellectual and political thought critiqued the British Empire and capitalism in the diasporic locations of Guyana Jamaica London and Tanzania as well as the processes of recolonisation A West Indian Pan Africanist and Marxist Walter Rodney functioned in the intellectual tradition of C L R James Henry Sylvester Williams and George Padmore of Trinidad and Tobago Theophilus Scholes and Marcus Garvey of Jamaica and the collective force of the Rastafarian movement in Jamaica during the 1950s and 1960s although his post colonial era perspective also set him apart from these earlier figures and movements

Discarded Legacy Melba Joyce Boyd, 1994 In this important study poet Melba Joyce Boyd analyzes Harper not simply as a feminist and an activist but as a writer

Looking Within Nancy Morejón, 2003 A bilingual edition of poetry from an important Cuban poet

Without Hatreds Or Fears Laurence Emmanuel Prescott, 2000 A study of Tambores en la Noche two volumes of verse by Jorge Artel black poet of 20th century Colombia It analyzes his work within the context of Colombian history and culture modern Spanish American literature and the poet's own career

White Nationalism, Black Interests Ronald W. Walters, 2003 A study of the most racially conscious aspect of the Conservative movement and its impact on politics and current public policy The rise of the Conservative movement in the United States over the last two decades is evident in current public policy including the passage of the Welfare Reform Act the weakening of affirmative action and the approval of educational vouchers for private schooling At the same time new rules on congressional redistricting prohibit legislators from constructing majority black congressional districts and blacks continue to suffer disproportionate rates of incarceration and death penalty sentencing In this significant new study the distinguished political scientist Ronald W Walters argues that the Conservative movement during this period has had an inordinate impact on American governing institutions and that a strong though very often unstated racial hostility drives the public policies put forth by Conservative politicians Walters traces the emergence of what he calls a new White Nationalism showing how it fuels the Conservative movement invades the public discourse and generates policies that protect the interests of white voters at the expense of blacks and other nonwhites Using historical and contemporary examples of White Nationalist policy as well as empirical public opinion data Walters demonstrates the degree to which this ideology exists among white voters and the negative impact of its policies on the black community White Nationalism Black Interests terms the current period a second Reconstruction comparing the racial dynamics in the post Civil Rights era to those of the first Reconstruction following the end of the Civil War Walters's analysis of contemporary racial politics is uniquely valuable to scholars and lay readers alike and is sure to spark further public debate

The Concept of Self Richard

L. Allen, 2001-04-01 The Concept of Self examines the historical basis for the widely misunderstood ideas of how African Americans think of themselves individually and how they relate to being part of a group that has been subjected to challenges of their very humanity A Companion to African-American Studies Jane Anna Gordon, Lewis Gordon, 2008-04-15 A Companion to African American Studies is an exciting and comprehensive re appraisal of the history and future of African American studies Contains original essays by expert contributors in the field of African American Studies Creates a groundbreaking re appraisal of the history and future of the field Includes a series of reflections from those who established African American Studies as a bona fide academic discipline Captures the dynamic interaction of African American Studies with other fields of inquiry Fear of a Black Nation David Austin, 2023-04-18 In the 1960s Montreal was a hotbed of radical politics that attracted Black and Caribbean figures such as C L R James Walter Rodney Mariam Makeba Stokely Carmichael Rocky Jones and douard Glissant It was also a place where the ideas of Frantz Fanon Aim C saire and Malcolm X circulated alongside those of Karl Marx Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir During this period of global upheaval and heightened Canadian and Quebec nationalism Montreal became a central site of Black and Caribbean radical politics Situating Canada within the Black radical tradition and its Caribbean radical counterpart Fear of a Black Nation paints a history of Montreal and the Black activists who lived sojourned in or visited the city and agitated for change Drawing on Saidiya Hartman's conception of slavery's afterlife and what David Austin describes as biosexuality a deeply embedded fear of Black self organization and interracial solidarity Fear of a Black Nation argues that the policing and surveillance of Black lives today is tied to the racial including sexual codes and practices and the discipline and punishment associated with slavery As meditation on Black radical politics and state security surveillance and repression Fear of a Black Nation combines theoretical and philosophical inquiry with literary oral and archival sources to reflect on Black political organizing In reflecting on Black self organization and historic events such as the Congress of Black Writers and the Sir George Williams Affair the book ultimately poses the question what can past freedom struggles teach us about the struggle for freedom today Featuring two new interviews with the author and a new preface this expanded second edition enriches the political and theoretical conversation on Black organising and movement building in Canada and internationally As the Black Lives Matter and abolition movements today popularize calls to disarm and defund the police and to abolish prisons Fear of a Black Nation provides an invaluable reflection on the policing of Black activism and a compelling political analysis of social movements and freedom struggles that is more relevant now than ever What the Wine-sellers Buy Plus Three Ron Milner, 2001 The four Milner plays collected here Checkmates What the Wine Sellers Buy Jazz Set and Urban Transition are characterized by their attention to African American social and psychological culture The Study of Africa Volume 2: Global and Transnational Engagements Paul Tiyaambe Zeleza, 2006 This is the second of a two volume work taking stock of the study of Africa in the twenty first century its status research agenda and approaches and place It is divided into two parts the first entitled

Globalisation Studies and African Studies and the second African Studies in Regional Contexts Topics addressed in part one include trans boundary formations and the study of Africa global economic liberalisation and development in Africa African diasporas academics and the struggle for a global epistemic presence and the problem of translation in African studies Part two considers African and area studies in France the US the UK Australia Germany and Sweden anti colonialism and Russian soviet African studies African studies in the Caribbean in historical perspective the teaching of African history and the history of Africa in Brazil African studies in India African studies and historiography in China in the twenty first century and African studies and contemporary scholarship in Japan
