Re-mapping World Literature Gesine Müller, Jorge J. Locane, Benjamin Loy, 2018-03-05 How can we talk about World Literature if we do not actually examine the world as a whole Research on World Literature commonly focuses on the dynamics of a western center and a southern periphery ignoring the fact that numerous literary relationships exist beyond these established constellations of thinking and reading within the Global South Re Mapping World Literature suggests a different approach that aims to investigate new navigational tools that extend beyond the known poles and meridians of current literary maps Using the example of Latin American literatures this study provides innovative insights into the literary modeling of shared historical experiences epistemological crosscurrents and book market processes within the Global South which thus far have received scant attention The contributions to this volume from renowned scholars in the fields of World and Latin American literatures assess travelling aesthetics and genres processes of translation and circulation of literary works as well as the complex epistemological entanglements and shared worldviews between Latin America Africa and Asia A timely book that embraces highly innovative perspectives it will be a must read for all scholars involved in the field of the global dimensions of literature

Naming and Mapping the Gods in the Ancient Mediterranean Thomas Galoppin, Elodie Guillon, Max Luaces, Asuman Lätzer-Lasar, Sylvain Lebreton, Fabio Porzia, Jörg Rüpke, Emiliano Rubens Urciuoli, Corinne Bonnet, 2022-12-31 Ancient religions are definitely complex systems of gods which resist our understanding Divine names provide fundamental keys to gain access to the multiples ways gods were conceived characterized and organized Among the names given to the gods many of them refer to spaces cities landscapes sanctuaries houses cosmic elements They reflect mental maps which need to be explored in order to gain new knowledge on both the structure of the pantheons and the human agency in the cultic dimension By considering the intersection between naming and mapping this book opens up new perspectives on how tradition and innovation appropriation and creation play a role in the making of polytheistic and monotheistic religions Far from being confined to sanctuaries in fact gods dwell in human environments in multiple ways They move into imaginary spaces and explore the cosmos By proposing a new and interdisciplinary angle of approach which involves texts images spatial and archaeological data this book sheds light on ritual practices and representations of gods in the whole Mediterranean from Italy to Mesopotamia from Greece to North Africa and Egypt Names and spaces enable to better define differentiate and connect gods

Mapping the Academic Debate Johannes Duschka, Christoph Kleine, Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Florian Zemmin, 2024-12-16 This volume maps the international academic debate on secularity It places seminal contributions from within Western academia alongside less well known texts from various parts of the world in several cases this is the first time that they have been translated into English The volume demonstrates that the academic debate on secularity was and is a global debate with contributions from many regions The collected texts relate to each other either directly or indirectly by referring to similar arguments whether reinforcing or criticising them and thus create a discourse When speaking of global secularity we therefore do not insinuate a uniform world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of Western norms ideas and concepts It is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references These references are not evenly distributed the development in the West is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves But the references are not completely unidirectional We also present texts from Europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on Thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references World Mapping Today Bob

Parry,Chris Perkins,2011-12-22 No detailed description available for World Mapping Today Mapping Narrations – Narrating Maps Ingrid Baumgärtner,2022-06-06 This volume offers the author s central articles on the medieval and early modern history of cartography for the first time in English translation A first group of essays gives an overview of medieval cartography and illustrates the methods of cartographers Another analyzes world maps and travel accounts in relation to mapped spaces A third examines land surveying cartographical practices of exploration and the production of Portolan atlases Manuscript Cultures: Mapping the Field Jörg Quenzer,Dmitry Bondarev,Jan-Ulrich Sobisch,2014-12-12 Script and writing were among the most important inventions in human history and until the invention of printing the handwritten book was the primary medium of literary and cultural transmission Although the study of manuscripts is already quite advanced for many regions of the world no unified discipline of manuscript studies has yet evolved which is capable of treating handwritten books from East Asia India and the Islamic world equally alongside the European manuscript tradition This book which aims to begin the interdisciplinary dialogue needed to arrive at a truly systematic and comparative approach to manuscript cultures worldwide brings together papers by leading researchers concerned with material philological and cultural aspects of different manuscript traditions Mapping The Faerie Queene Wayne Erickson,2013-10-28 This book analyzes the Faerie Queene s setting examining Spenser s quest structures and his ideas about epic romance and history Critics almost invariably treat Spenser s Faeryland as coextensive with the world of the poem but this is not the case rather Faeryland is part of an epic cosmos reaching from heaven and the abode of the classical deities to demonic underground realms Spenser situates Faeryland within a specific spatial and temporal terrestrial geography in which locations outside Faeryland represent various heroic settings in political history The politico historical world built around Faeryland is ripe for analysis by contemporary historicist critics Spenser uses political geography in conjunction with the time inclusive medium of Faeryland to coordinate several transhistorical quests that create a pattern of temporal mediations among sixth century British 16th century English and biblical and prophetic versions of history He juxtaposes chronicle history empirical historiography and cultural myth while manipulating genre to create a world capable of accommodating his grand romantic epic design In mapping the world of The Faerie Queene the book provides a widened context for Spenser's quest structures a significant contribution to the study of the poem's relation to history and a new perspective from which to view Spenser's debts to classical epic Italian romantic epic and his native medieval inheritance Index Bibliography      Language Mapping Jürgen Erich Schmidt, 2011-03-30 The Handbook of Language Mapping aims to explore the core methodological and theoretical approaches of linguistic cartography In both empirical and theoretical linguistics the spatial variation of language is of increasing interest and the visualization of language in space is therefore also of growing significance It is the precondition for correct data interpretation But how does it work What has to be considered when drawing a map And how has the problem been tackled so far This book provides answers to such questions by taking a closer look at the theoretical issues surrounding cartography and at the concrete practice of mapping The fundamental issues raised are addressed particularly well since linguistic geography is not only one of the domains with a lengthy tradition it is also one of the most progressive fields in linguistics At the same time because of their visual primacy linguistic maps directly confront the challenges of human perception and aesthetics In this context envisioning the fruits of language mapping is a fascinating and inspiring endeavor not just for experts With its accessible texts and wealth of full color images the handbook not only represents a comprehensive manual serving the interests of a variety of readers it also fills a gap in the ongoing linguistic discourse      Mapping Islamic Studies Azim Nanji, 2011-09-20 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline
