Wanderlust A History Of Walking Solnit Rebecca Author Paperback 2001:

Wanderlust Rebecca Solnit, 2001-06-01 A passionate thought provoking exploration of walking as a political and cultural activity from the author of Orwell's Roses Drawing together many histories of anatomical evolution and city design of treadmills and labyrinths of walking clubs and sexual mores Rebecca Solnit creates a fascinating portrait of the range of possibilities presented by walking Arguing that the history of walking includes walking for pleasure as well as for political aesthetic and social meaning Solnit focuses on the walkers whose everyday and extreme acts have shaped our culture from philosophers to poets to mountaineers She profiles some of the most significant walkers in history and fiction from Wordsworth to Gary Snyder from Jane Austen's Elizabeth Bennet to Andre Breton's Nadja finding a profound relationship between walking and thinking and walking and culture Solnit argues for the necessity of preserving the time and space in which to walk in our ever more car dependent and accelerated world

Born to Walk Dan Rubinstein, 2015-04-01 The case for getting back on our feet The humble act of putting one foot in front of the other transcends age geography culture and class and is one of the most economical and environmentally responsible modes of transit Yet with our modern fixation on speed this healthy pedestrian activity has been largely left behind At a personal and professional crossroads writer editor and obsessive walker Dan Rubinstein travelled throughout the U S U K and Canada to walk with people who saw the act not only as a form of transportation and recreation but also as a path to a better world There are no magic bullet solutions to modern epidemics like obesity anxiety alienation and climate change But what if there is a simple way to take a step in the right direction Combining fascinating reportage eye opening research and Rubinstein's own discoveries Born to Walk explores how far this ancient habit can take us how much repair is within range and guarantees that you'll never again take walking for granted

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Canadian Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2017-08-08 The third Canadian edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing There is also a focus on issues of great importance in twenty first century Canada such as climate change the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Jian Ghomeshi trial Facebook police discrimination trans rights and postsecondary education in the humanities Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated prose writers of the modern era from Susan Sontag Eula Biss and Michel Foucault to Anne Carson and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology also offers increased diversity of representation including for example a larger proportion of First Nations writers and women writers than previous Canadian editions Unobtrusive explanatory notes appear at the bottom of the page and each selection is preceded by a headnote that provides students with information regarding the context in which the piece was written Each reading is also followed by questions for discussion A unique feature is the inclusion of a set of additional notes on the anthology s companion website notes designed to be of particular help to EAL students and or students who have little familiarity with Canadian culture The anthology is accompanied by two companion websites The student website features additional readings and interactive writing exercises as well as the additional notes The instructor website provides additional discussion questions and for a number of the anthology selections background information that may be of interest

Hello World Sue Thomas, 2004-03-10 Hello World is the story of a life online Part travelogue part memoir Sue Thomas draws on her online travels as well as her physical journeys in the USA Australia Spain and England While the book is non fiction it is a direct descendent of Correspondence Thomas extraordinary novel that also deals with the synergies between digital and physical worlds Like its fictional counterpart Hello World will trigger feelings in readers of recognition and will stimulate debate on the nature of the physical in a wired world for years to come First published in 2004 This is a book about a love affair It s also a meditation on a phenomenon that has changed not just our lives but our perceptions of ourselves The Independent an essential tour guide to the poetics of time space and gender in the Information Age This book is quite simply a Baedeker to the cyber realm Carolyn Guertin engagingly and warmly written Hello World combines first person meditations with a wealth of information Highly recommended for first time users and those who want to try dipping their toes into the cyberwaters N Katherine Hayles embracing digital media for its freedom and life beyond the physical page her writings fuse the surfaces textures histories and interactions of our bodies and minds Robin Rimbaud Scanner Sue Thomas is one of the most innovation thinkers promoters and facilitators on the web Stelarc anyone who feels both seduced and appalled by the complexities of embedded technology will empathise with this account of the personal highs and lows of an intimate relationship with technology Jenny Wolmark Speaking with ease and authority earned through years of immersive investigation Sue Thomas critiques virtuality in a manner which makes this book accessible to those who are new to the networked world as well as a must read for those already there Melinda Rackham Hello World is fascinating almost hypnotic Thomas travels all over the physical world and all over the virtual world visiting sights and sites of intrinsic and historical interest She describes what she sees tells us how the experience affects her and recounts how past travelers have marked these conceptual landscapes Thomas invokes Thoreau throughout the book and the comparison is apt As Thoreau's observations of the activity around Walden Pond always told us as much about him as they did about the nature he studied so too Thomas's observations reveal much about herself The intensity of her love for cyberspace is manifest in her attentiveness to the detail of each virtual experience Tekka Thomas offers a way of being in the world that refuses hierarchies and primacies and offers us a model of an engaged and creative practice that is both virtual and real RealTime As a mix it's intense and entrancing and it demonstrates the ease with which computers electronic communications and lives all intertwine beyond the home Alan Sondheim Originally published in paperback by Raw Nerve Books Web Supplement <http://travelsinvirtuality.typepad.com/helloworld> The Gathering Place Mary Colwell, 2023-04-13 SHORTLISTED FOR THE EDWARD STANFORD TRAVEL BOOK OF THE YEAR 2024 Deeply poetic CAROLINE LUCAS MP A masterpiece of storytelling NICK MAYHEW SMITH Mary Colwell is a candle of open minded curiosity PATRICK LAURIE An unforgettable story MICHAEL MCCARTHY Mary Colwell makes a solo pilgrimage along the Camino Franc's winding through forests mountains farmland industrial sprawls and places of worship Pilgrims have always walked in times of upheaval pitching themselves against weather hunger thirst and sometimes pain as they tread the paths their ancestors once followed In the winter of 2020 author nature campaigner and veteran solo walker Mary Colwell walked a 500 mile pilgrimage along the Camino Franc's in northern Spain In a typical year many thousands of people walk this route but Mary had it virtually to herself at a unique historical moment a time of profound political change escalating climate and biodiversity emergencies and global pandemic The modern world weaves in and out of the Camino's worn trackway providing a focus for contemplation and a place for memories and experiences to gather In her delightful book Mary weaves experiences from her solo winter pilgrimage with stories from a walk millions have undertaken over the centuries Her thoughtful and at times humorous journey of body and soul includes moments of intense spirituality meetings with a demon slayer strange goings on and magical tales and Mary's exquisite descriptions of the constant backdrop of nature in all its complexity and wonder The Vagabond's Way Rolf Potts, 2023-10-03 Thought provoking encouraging and inspiring Gretchen Rubin reflections on the power of travel to transform our daily lives from the iconoclastic travel writer scholar and author of Vagabonding For readers who dream of travel yearn to get back out on the road or want to enrich a journey they're currently on The Vagabond's Way explores and celebrates the life altering essence of travel all year long Each day of the year features a meditation on an aspect of the journey anchored by words of wisdom from a variety of thinkers from Stoic philosopher Seneca and poet Maya Angelou to

Trappist monk Thomas Merton and Grover from Sesame Street Iconoclastic travel writer and scholar Rolf Potts embraces the ragged edged harder to quantify aspects of travel that inevitably change travelers lives for the better in unexpected ways The book s various sections mirror the phases of a trip including dreaming and planning the journey All life affecting journeys and the unexpected wonders they promise become real the moment you decide they will happen embracing the rhythms of the journey The most poignant experiences on the road occur in those quiet moments when we recognize beauty in the ordinary finding richer travel experiences Developing an instinct to venture beyond the obvious on the road allows you to see places as mysteries to be investigated expanding your comfort zone No moment of instant gratification can compare to savoring an experience that has been earned by enduring the adversity that comes with it The Vagabond s Way encourages you to sustain the mindset of a journey even when you aren t able to travel and affirms that travel is as much a way of being as it is an act of movement

A Space of Their Own Katie Baker,Naomi Walker,2023-03-31 This collection explores how nineteenth and twentieth century women writers incorporated the idea of place into their writing Whether writing from a specific location or focusing upon a particular geographical or imaginary place women writers working between 1850 and 1950 valued a space of their own in which to work The period on which this collection focuses straddles two main areas of study nineteenth century writing and early twentieth century modernist writing so it enables discussion of how ideas of space progressed alongside changes in styles of writing It looks to the many ways women writers explored concepts of space and place and how they expressed these through their writings for example how they interpreted both urban and rural landscapes and how they presented domestic spaces A Space of Their Own will be of interest to those studying Victorian literature and modernist works as it covers a period of immense change for women's rights in society. It is also not limited to just one type or definition of space. Therefore, it may also be of interest to academics outside of literature, for example, in gender studies, cultural geography, place writing, and digital humanities.
