

Is It Normal to Lose Interest in Sexual Intimacy?

It is normal for sexual intimacy to change over the course of a long-term relationship. Most relationships go through dry spells for many reasons. The demands of raising children, a health or medical issue, lack of an emotional connection, resentment, communication issues, changes in lifestyle, pornography, having an affair, and work stress can all contribute to a change in sexual intimacy.

Cézanne's Bathers: Biography and the Erotics of Paint Aruna D'Souza, 1999 Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism The Feminine Subject in Children's Literature

Christine Wilkie-Stibbs, 2013-12-16 This book builds upon and contributes to the growing academic interest in feminism within the field of children's literature studies Christie Wilkie Stibbs draws upon the work of Luce Irigaray Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Jacques Lacan in her analysis of particular children's literature texts to demonstrate how a feminist analysis opens up textual possibilities that may be applied to works of children's fiction in general extending the range of textual engagements in children's literature through the application of a new poststructural critical apparatus Braided Selves Pamela Cooper-White, 2011-06-10 What if we are more multiple as persons than traditional psychology has taught us to believe And what if our multiplicity is a part of how we are made in the very image of a loving relational multiple God How have modern Western notions of Oneness caused harm to both individuals and society And how can an appreciation of our multiplicity help liberate the voices of those who live at the margins both of society and within our own complex selves Braided Selves explores these questions from the perspectives of postmodern pastoral psychology and Trinitarian theology with implications for the practice of spiritual care counseling and psychotherapy This volume gathers ten years of essays on this theme by preeminent pastoral theologian Pamela Cooper White whose writings bring into dialogue postmodern feminist and psychoanalytic theory and constructive theology A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof, 1991 Lesbianism in literature has been dealt with rather indirectly in the past Editors have led readers to the artistry of a work containing lesbianism emphasizing instead the literary history and historical context of the work rather than the representations of lesbianism The editor for Colette's The Pure and the Impure for instance affirms that Colette has a knowledge of a strange sisterhood but assures readers she has never strayed from the normal In the groundbreaking A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof demonstrates that representations of lesbian sexuality occupy specific locations or positions in the arguments subject matter and rhetoric of Western European and American literary criticism She examines the political context of representations how lesbian sexuality is used as a signifier and why it appears when and where it does Roof argues that attempts to depict or explain lesbian sexuality spur anxieties about knowledge and identity In reaction to and denial of these anxieties lesbian sexuality is represented in film literature theory and criticism as foreplay as simulated heterosexuality as erotic excess as joking inauthenticity as artful compromise or as masculine mask in a specific repertoire of neutralization and evasion Challenging the heterosexism of film theory and feminist theory this book analyzes the rhetorical use of lesbian sexuality Roof explores a range of discourses from the works of such authors as Anaïs Nin Olga Broumas Julia Kristeva Jane Rule Luce Irigaray and Sigmund Freud to films such as Emmanuelle Desert Hearts Entre Nous and I've Heard the Mermaids Singing to professional tennis

The Feminization of Dr. Faustus Helga Druxes, 2010-11 While the decline of the male hero in nineteenth and twentieth century literature is usually studied in isolation Druxes uses a major manifestation of this phenomenon the failing power of the Faust myth as an interpretive lens through which to illuminate the corresponding rise in the viability of female Faustian heroes or would-be heroes Her study of the female Faust figure in the realist novels of Stendhal Gauthier Keller James and the contemporary writer Morgner is further unusual in that she carries out her analyses both against the background of the sociohistorical factors conditioning these female figures and with reference to the mutual interaction of plot and novel form Since nineteenth century writers make female subjectivity the arena in which the conflicts of male subjecthood are debated their attempts to create female versions of the heroic quest for self knowledge speak not only to the crisis of the male model but also to the crisis of the realistic novel Using psychoanalytic theory and French feminist and deconstructionist theory Helga Druxes shows how the female Faustian quest for worldly knowledge and subjecthood develops a new concept of identity that takes its social constructedness into account and she demonstrates some of the transgressive narrative strategies that male and female writers have employed embodying their dissent not only in the creation of a female Faust but in their visions of an authentic female desire for selfhood and socially regenerative female bonding

Feminist Philosophy Herta Nagl-Docekal, 2018-03-08 Are we in a post feminist era Has the term feminist grown out of its resisted stance What from today's standpoint is an appropriate concept of feminist philosophy And is it not the case that all people thinking democratically must share its central concern In this book internationally acclaimed philosopher Herta Nagl-Docekal discusses and critiques the theories of today Her study ranges across philosophical anthropology aesthetics philosophy of science the critique of reason political theory and philosophy of law Continually confronting the persistent problem of the hierarchical relations of the sexes Nagl Docekal affirms the importance of feminist thought as she presses for effective approaches to common problems Feminist Thought Rosemarie Tong, 2013-10-08 In this survey of feminist theory Rosemarie Tong provides coverage of the psychoanalytic existential and postmodern schools of feminism The author guides the reader through the complexities of even the most notoriously difficult thinkers Students will meet and become familiar with many of the essential figures in the feminist tradition from Wollstonecraft and Engel on through de Beauvoir Dinnerstein and Daly and up to Mitchell and Cixous The text treats all views with respect and encourages students to think critically and sympathetically about a wide range of views that have a direct relevance to their own lives
