

A photograph of a small, rustic house with a corrugated metal roof, situated on a grassy hillside within a dense forest. Sunlight filters through the trees, creating a warm, dappled light effect. The house has a porch and is surrounded by tall, thin trees. The overall scene conveys a sense of peace and seclusion.

This Holler Is My Home:

Old Misery Hugh Pendexter, 1924 I'd Give My Left Boob for That ... Oh, Wait, I Already Did Kim Fairchild, 2009-07
On December 7 2001 thirty five year old Kimberly Fairchild's world turned upside down when she heard the life changing words You've got cancer I'd Give My Left Boob for That Oh Wait I Already Did details one woman's journey before during and after her courageous battle with Invasive Ductal Carcinoma the most common form of breast cancer With no family history and a fairly healthy life Fairchild shares how she got past the shocking diagnosis and subsequently relied on laughter and humor to help her through one of the most difficult and darkest times of her life As she faced new challenges fears and physical discomfort Fairchild describes how her diagnosis affected everyone around her all in different ways and how she learned to accept their comforting words and return the favor when they too needed reassurance From surgery to chemotherapy to reconstructive surgery Fairchild provides an emotional sometimes humorous yet intensely honest portrayal of what it's like to experience breast cancer Written with the desire to help others this eye opening glimpse into the world of breast cancer shares the compelling story of how an ordinary girl fought the extraordinary fight of her life and won

Adventure, 1917 Bowen's Road Cheryl Bowen Hance, 2012-05-18 Come if you dare and walk with Cheryl through her past Step onto the path of Bowen's all consuming fire There are events in life that draw you in like fire Can you feel the heat Can you see the flames dancing and calling out to you Bowen's Road will take you on a journey through flames that dance and promise beauty but in truth lead straight to the very gates of Hell consuming her instead and leaving her broken and alone Yet along the path of mystical flames she finds a ray of hope Wisconsin, My Home Erna Oleson Xan, 1975-10
Wisconsin My Home is the story of Thurine Oleson born in Wisconsin in 1866 to parents who had emigrated from Telemarken Norway This much loved book was first published in 1950 when Thurine was a spry octogenarian In it she not only vividly recalls the pioneer life of her childhood in a Norwegian American settlement but also tells her parents stories of their life in Norway and their reasons for emigration This new edition restores the twenty nine photographs that appeared in the original 1950 hardcover edition and includes an introduction by emigration historian Odd Lovell Ghosts across Kentucky William Montell, 2010-09-12 Lynwood Montell has collected ghost tales all over the state of Kentucky from coal mining settlements to river landings from highways to battlefields He presents these suspense filled stories just as he first heard or read them as bona fide personal experiences or as events witnessed by family members or friends There are over 250 stories in Ghosts across Kentucky that are set in specific places and times They include tales of graveyards haunted dormitories animal ghosts and vanishing hitchhikers Montell describes weird lights unexplained sounds felt presences and disappearing apparitions Phantom workmen fallen soldiers young lovers and executed criminals appear in these pages along with the living who chance upon them Though the focus is on the stories themselves Montell also includes a chapter explaining our fascination with the supernatural and the deep truths these storytelling traditions reveal about our lives and our pasts

William Lynwood Montell emeritus professor of folk studies at Western Kentucky University is the author of several books including Killings and Our Roots Run Deep as Ironweed Shannon Elizabeth Bell, 2013-10-30 Motivated by a deeply rooted sense of place and community Appalachian women have long fought against the damaging effects of industrialization In this collection of interviews sociologist Shannon Elizabeth Bell presents the voices of twelve Central Appalachian women environmental justice activists fighting against mountaintop removal mining and its devastating effects on public health regional ecology and community well being Each woman narrates her own personal story of injustice and tells how that experience led her to activism The interviews many of them illustrated by the women's photostories describe obstacles losses and tragedies But they also tell of new communities and personal transformations catalyzed through activism Bell supplements each narrative with careful notes that aid the reader while amplifying the power and flow of the activists stories Bell's analysis outlines the relationship between Appalachian women's activism and the gendered responsibilities they feel within their families and communities Ultimately Bell argues that these women draw upon a broader protector identity that both encompasses and extends the identity of motherhood that has often been associated with grassroots women's activism As protectors the women challenge dominant Appalachian gender expectations and guard not only their families but also their homeplaces their communities their heritage and the endangered mountains that surround them 30% of the proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to organizations fighting for environmental justice in Central Appalachia

Wonderful West Virginia ,2009 Patio Time Sandra Evans, 2022-04-06 I never realized that when I started writing my first Patio Time that it would be what brings me healing from God All of us have a past Not all of us have trust issues but I did I always said that if I couldn't trust my own father how could I trust my Father in heaven But not all of us grow from our childhood surroundings without some type of damage I can honestly say that I used my upbringing as a crutch and an excuse for not growing Everything I thought I was failing at I blamed on my life as a child in West Virginia That's how I began most of my Patio Time Growing up as a child in West Virginia I blamed failed relationships lack of financial gain and listening to the wrong people I also spent years of trying to fix everyone who had alcoholism because my father was an alcoholic and wanting to heal everyone who had cancer because I watched my mother die of that horrible disease When you're a child you can't process death or addiction I realized I was holding myself back because I could never get close to anyone Whenever I tried I would always push them away Maybe because I was thinking everyone leaves One day I went on my patio sat in my rocking chair and started writing about things that went on in my home and my small community Patio Time is a collection of my life and circumstances in that little rural area with a lot of dysfunctions I guess it's true what goes on behind closed doors stays behind closed doors But with this writing I realized that I had all I needed just by my surroundings and the love of the community I often found that my solace came from playing in the mountains and creeks Patio Time is my perception of the lessons that I learned from every situation I am hoping that this little collection will move the heart of others who need to realize they are exactly where they needed to be at that time All the situations that happened to me can clearly and has taught me a lesson of life I never realized it at that time but as an adult I see it clearly now My goal is for someone to read any page of my book and see their own life and be able to look back and see the beauty and how they were molded as an adult What my readers don't know is that I was an Italian child who was given away to a white couple in West Virginia in the fifties Skin color was never an issue in my family but so prevalent in that era My parents showed nothing but love to me But a lot of burden comes with that scenario I grew up with molestation alcoholism physical and emotional abuse along with bullying But with all of that exposure I still could find something to be thankful for in every one of those situations I lost both of my parents my mother when I graduated from high school and my father shortly after

Time has been a way to express the memories that I was trying to forget Now I'm grateful for my writings I am hoping that my journey is a light for others

A Time for Change Martha R. Bireda, 2021-06-09 How did America become a nation obsessed with race A Time for Change How White Supremacy Ideology Harms All Americans explores America's beginnings as a class based society the creation of America's racial consciousness through the invention of the social construction of whiteness and the ways in which white supremacist ideology has been infused reinforced and perpetuated in the collective American mind and culture through the utilization of stereotypical images of blacks The purpose of this book is to explore how the ideology of white supremacy has done immeasurable damage to all Americans whites as well as blacks and other persons of color In this context the relationship between racism and classism is explored This book provides an opportunity by which those Americans who identify and are perceived as white can engage in a process of self reflection to transcend one's attachment to the social construction of whiteness and white supremacy ideology that have been forced upon them It is the premise of this book that racial healing in this nation can only occur through a true examination of America's history as well as individual and collective responsibility and efforts to undo over 300 years of racist cultural conditioning
