Daphne N. Winland

This Time We Knew Western Responses To Genocide In Bosnia:

This Time We Knew Thomas Cushman, Stjepan Gabriel Meštrović, 1996-10 This book punctures once and for all common excuses for Western inaction in the face of incontrovertible evidence of the most egregious crimes against humanity to occur in Europe since World War II The Postmodern Challenge: Perspectives East and West, 2023-12-04 This volume is designed to bridge a gap in the current theoretical debate about the nature scope and relevance of postmodern perspectives in the humanist and social sciences in Eastern and Western Europe While the debate has been reasonably comprehensive and certainly abrasive in Western European and Anglophone countries it has signally failed to incorporate the viewpoints of Eastern European scholars and intellectuals Even the current appropriation of Mikhail Bakhtin as a prophet of the postmodern is paradoxically a monologic engagement with his thought rather than a dialogic encounter of cultures Doubtless different historical experiences ideology and social aspirations go some way to account for the weariness of Eastern Europe with postmodern challenge and its glad embrace by Western scholars The volume comprises some fifteen essays by leading historians literary theorists and social scientists from Western and Eastern Europe and America It has a threefold aim firstly to illuminate the distinctiveness of current Western and Eastern European theorizing about history and society secondly to reveal points of tension and disagreement and finally to open up a space for a meeting of seemingly incompatible worlds

Geography and Ethics James D. Proctor, David M. Smith, 2002-09-11 This book represents a landmark exploration of the common terrain of geography and ethics Drawing together specially commissioned contributions from distinguished geographers across the UK North America and Australasia the place of geography in ethics and of ethics in geography is examined through wide ranging thematic chapters Geography and Ethics is divided into four sections for discussion and exploration of ideas Ethics and Space Ethics and Place Ethics and Nature and Ethics and knowledge all of which point to the rich interplay between geography and moral philosophy or ethics Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century British and American War Literature Adam Piette, 2012-03-07 The first reference to literary and cultural representations of war in 20th century English Bodies Behaviours Cultures The Cultural Impact of the Technologies of Modern War The Spaces of Modern War Genres of War Culture Key Features All new original essays commissioned from major critics and cultural historians Reflects the way war studies are currently being taught and researched in the volume s approach structure and breadth of coverage For scholars core arguments and detailed research topics For students Historically grounded topic and genre based essays useful for studying the modern period and war modules Activism across Borders since 1870 Daniel Laqua, 2023-08-10 From the Occupy protests to the Black Lives Matter movement and school strikes for climate action the twenty first century has been rife with activism Although very different from one another each of these movements has created alliances across borders with activists stressing that their concerns are not confined to individual nation states In this book Daniel Laqua shows that global efforts of this kind are not a recent phenomenon and that as long as there have been borders activists have sought to cross them Activism Across Borders since 1870 explores how individuals groups and organisations have fostered bonds in their quest for political and social change and considers the impact of national and ideological boundaries on their efforts Focusing on Europe but with a global outlook the book acknowledges the importance of imperial and postcolonial settings for groups and individuals that expressed far reaching ambitions From feminism and socialism to anti war campaigns and green politics this book approaches transnational activism with an emphasis on four features connectedness ambivalence transience and marginality In doing so it demonstrates the intertwined nature of different movements problematizes transnational action discusses the temporary nature of some alliances and shows how transnationalism has been used by those marginalized at the national level With a broad chronological perspective and thematic chapters it provides historical context clarifies terms and concepts and offers an alternative history of modern Europe through the lens of activists movements and campaigns Reading War, Making Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Jessica Ortner, Fedja Wierød Borčak, 2025-11 A clarifying analysis of how authors from Bosnia Herzegovina translate and transmit the memory of the Bosnian War into their fiction Reading War Making Memory spotlights a vital new framework for understanding the impact of conflict upon diasporic literature from the region of the former Yugoslavia mnemonic migration Rethinking the Nature of War Isabelle Duyvesteyn, Jan Angstrom, 2005 Have globalization virulent ethnic differences and globally operating insurgents fundamentally changed the nature of war in the last decade Interpretations of war as driven by politics and state rationale formulated most importantly by the 19th century practitioner Carl von Clausewitz have received strong criticism Political explanations have been said to fall short in explaining conflicts in the Balkans Africa Asia and the attacks of 11 September 2001 in the United States This book re evaluates these criticisms not only by scrutinising Clausewitz s arguments and their applicability but also by a careful reading of the criticism itself In doing so it presents empirical evidence on the basis of several case studies addressing various aspects of modern war such as the actors conduct and purposes of war Confronting the Yugoslav Controversies Charles W. Ingrao, Thomas Allan Emmert, 2013 This collection of essays examines Yugoslavia s dissolution and the subsequent wars The Politics of Genocide Jeffrey S. Bachman, 2022-09-16 Since the adoption of the Genocide Convention in 1948 and through the present day the United Nations P 5 have ensured that holding any of them accountable for genocide would be practically impossible The Politics of Genocide is the first book to explicitly demonstrate how the permanent member nations have exploited the Genocide Convention to isolate themselves from the reach of the law marking them as outlaw states We are Now a Nation Daphne N. Winland, 2007-01-01 The Yugoslav War of Succession had untold ramifications for those living in the embattled region What often goes overlooked however is the impact that the war had on people from the former Yugoslavia who were living abroad We are Now a Nation considers the effect that the war and the independence of Croatia had on Croatian diaspora homeland relations In doing so it confronts complex questions of ideology nostalgia social suffering nationalism and identity politics as manifested in the relationship between diaspora and homeland Croats Daphne Winland draws upon extensive multi sited ethnographic research in both Toronto and Croatia from 1992 to the present exploring the problematic nature of Croatian identity The occasion of Croatian independence she suggests resulted in the emergence of a politics of desire and disdain which further complicated efforts to define Croatness Hrvatsstvo both at home and abroad The idea of the Croatian homeland has become therefore an ambiguous space of identification a source of either conflict and tension or unity and pride a place to remember to forget or to return to The first book length examination of North American Croatian diaspora responses to war and independence We are Now a Nation highlights the contradictions and paradoxes of contemporary debates about identity politics and place
