

Find My Way Home

Gregorian Chants

I'll find my way home-Gregorian
You ask me where to begin
Am I so lost in my sin
You ask me where did I fall
I'll say I can't tell you when
But if my spirit is lost
Don't question I'm not alone
Somehow I'll find my way home
My sun shall rise in the east
So shall my heart be at peace
And if you're asking me when
I'll say it starts at the end
You know your will to be free
Is matched with secretly
And talk will alter your prayer
Somehow you'll find you are there.
Your friend is close by your side
And speaks in far ancient tongue
All seasons begin with you
A world we melt into one
Just hold my hand and we're there
Somehow we're going somewhere
Somehow we're going somewhere

~ Music ~

You ask me where to begin
You ask me where did I fall
I'll say I can't tell you when
But if my spirit is strong
I know it can't be long
No questions I'm not alone
Sometime I'll find my way home
Sometime I'll find my way home
Sometime I'll find my way home
Sometime I'll find my way home

Can't Find My Way Home Carlene Thompson, 2015-02-01 A woman returns to her Chesapeake Bay hometown to face the demons of her past in this romantic suspense novel, an excellent read. Publishers Weekly starred review. Twelve-year-old Brynn Wilder and her brother Mark receive a traumatic double shock when their father is found dead in the woods and then identified as Maryland's notorious Genessa Point Killer. Eighteen years later, the emotional scars still haven't healed for the Wilder family, and now Mark is back in Genessa Point to clear his father's name. Though Brynn swore she'd never return, a series of cryptic phone messages suggest that her brother needs her. Then Mark suddenly goes missing, and Brynn must turn to Genessa Point's new Sheriff Garret Dane for help. Brynn has good reason not to trust the Dane family: after all, it was Garret's father who convinced the town of her own father's guilt. But as they work together to find Mark, Brynn and Garret discover that deadly danger still lurks in Genessa Point. And uncovering the truth of the past may also lead them to a future together.

Can't Find My Way Home Martin Torgoff, 2004-05-13 Can't Find My Way Home is a history of illicit drug use in America in the second half of the twentieth century and a personal journey through the drug experience. It's the remarkable story of how America got high, the epic tale of how the American Century transformed into the Great Stoned Age. Martin Torgoff begins with the avant-garde worlds of bebop jazz and the emerging Beat writers who embraced the consciousness-altering properties of marijuana and other underground drugs. These musicians and writers midwived the age of marijuana in the 1960s, even as Timothy Leary and Richard Alpert (later Ram Dass) discovered the power of LSD, ushering in the psychedelic era. While President John Kennedy proclaimed a New Frontier and NASA journeyed to the moon, millions of young Americans began discovering their own new frontiers on a voyage to inner space. What had been the province of a fringe avant-garde only a decade earlier became a mass movement that affected and altered mainstream America. And so America sped through the century dropping acid and eating magic mushrooms at home, shooting heroin and ingesting amphetamines in Vietnam, snorting cocaine in the disco era, smoking crack cocaine in the devastated inner cities of the 1980s, discovering MDMA (Ecstasy) in the rave culture of the 1990s. Can't Find My Way Home tells this extraordinary story by weaving together first person accounts and historical background into a narrative vast in scope yet rich in intimate detail Among those who describe their experiments with consciousness are Allen Ginsberg Timothy Leary Robert Stone Wavy Gravy Grace Slick Oliver Stone Peter Coyote David Crosby and many others from Haight Ashbury to Studio 54 to housing projects and rave warehouses But Can t Find My Way Home does not neglect the recovery movement the war on drugs and the ongoing debate over drug policy And even as Martin Torgoff tells the story of his own addiction and recovery he neither romanticizes nor demonizes drugs If he finds them less dangerous than the moral crusaders say they are he also finds them less benign than advocates insist Illegal drugs changed the cultural landscape of America and they continue to shape our country with enormous consequences This ambitious fascinating book is the story of how that happened Finding Your Way Home Lucynda Koesters,2005 Find Your Way Home What is keeping YOU from coming home to your family Are you a working parent looking for a way to leave the paid workforce to become a stay at home parent Or are you a stay at home parent looking for a way to successfully maintain your home based lifestyle Whether you are currently at home or in the process of looking for a way to come home this is the book for you Finding Your Way Home offers comprehensive step by step strategies to help you plan and implement an exit from the workforce and create a sustainable life at home with your family In this book you will Learn why a stay at home parent is so beneficial to children of all ages Discover how having a parent at home can improve your health marriage family life and yes even your budget Analyze your options for working full time part time home based business free lance or stay at home parenting full time Learn how to cut household expenses Create a new one income household budget Conquer fear and turn in your resignation Maintain your self esteem and overcome resistance once at home Create new home based routines and become a successful household manager Create a safe haven a relaxed secure and sustainable home based lifestyle for the whole family Based on the author s extensive research interviews with dozens of parents and her highly personal account of her own struggle to find her way home this book offers everything a parent needs to come home successfully Finding Your Way Home will be referred to again and again as you transition to the calmer less hurried and family focused lifestyle of your dreams *Can You Help Me Find My Way Home?
