To Pause At The Threshold Reflections On Living On The Border:

To Pause at the Threshold Esther de Waal, 2004-07 A threshold is a sacred thing goes the traditional saying of ancient wisdom In some corners of the earth in some traditional cultures and in monastic life this is still remembered But in our fast paced modern world this wisdom is often lost on us It is important for us to remember the significance of the threshold While it is certainly true that thresholds mark the end of one thing and the beginning of another they also act as borders the places in between the points of transition These can be physical such as the geographical borders of a country others such as the spiritual border between the inner and outer world between ourselves and others are intangible In To Pause at the Threshold Esther de Waal looks at what it is like to live in actual border country the Welsh countryside with its slower rhythms and earth linked textures and explores the importance of opening up and being receptive to one's surroundings whatever they may be

The Geography of God's Incarnation Ann Pederson, 2013-07-25 What does geography have to do with the incarnation of God and with our spiritual lives as Christians We will embark on a theological road trip that explores how geographies are at the heart of understanding of God's incarnation in the world It is no surprise to Christians that the center of the incarnation is the person of Jesus Christ God in flesh made manifest However it might be a stretch for some Christians to imagine that the promise that God has become flesh is not only in a person but also in a place in the creation Christians need to expand what incarnation means and what it means to be created in the image of God so that the scope of God's creative and redemptive action and work indeed reaches to the scope of all things from the outer reaches of space to the inner reaches of our hearts To be the creatures of God that God calls us to be requires a kind of dual citizenship within the details of our daily life attending to the needs of our neighbors simultaneously knowing we are part of a greater cosmos whose future is still unfolding

Belonging to Borders Bonnie B. Thurston, 2011-07-01 When the scholar and the poet wrestles in you Bonnie Thurston was once asked by a friend at Tymawr who wins The poems in Belonging to Borders are her response In these poems Thurston reverences the borders literal and metaphorical that have been a part of her life since childhood This reverence shines in her deep appreciation for holy space for nature infused with the divine for roots that are deep These prayerful meditations on Celtic saints and places invite the reader to honor the borders in their own lives and to recognize the holiness of living on the borders

Living on the Border Esther De Waal, 2014-07-31 Esther de Waal draws on the ancient traditions of Celtic and monastic spirituality to explore thresholds between people between cultures between the human and the divine Ancient spiritual wisdom teaches that thresholds are sacred places and Esther encourages readers to become more receptive to their surroundings and to learn to pause reflect and meet God at the places of encounter and change in our lives

The Living Church, 2004-07 Where Two Or Three Are Gathered Daniel L. Prechtel, 2012-04 Much has been written about the practice of one to one spiritual directions but much less about small group communities that offer in depth mutual spiritual support and guidance to its members But small groups are most likely the more usual setting for spiritual companionship and have strong biblical theological and historical foundation in the Christian tradition This book offers a detailed presentation of ten small group models plus guidance in group leadership dynamics It also presents material related to group retreat work spiritual guidance with organizations and peer supervision consultation model for supporting leaders of spiritual companionship groups and retreats Church leaders spiritual directors and educators are looking for the kinds of resources this book provides to assist them in understanding and leading groups and retreats

A Different Kind of Fast Christine Valters Paintner,2024-01-02 Clarify your true hungers and nourish your soul Fasting is not just the physical practice of giving up food Fasting can also be a way to combat our culture of endless distractions and busyness Fasting is an act of letting go of making more internal space to listen to the sacred whispers of our lives Join Christine Valters Paintner online abbess of Abbey of the Arts on a spiritual journey through seven different kinds of fasts including fasting from control from our attachments from our grasping and more When we practice these fasts we can discover unexpected spiritual gifts as well as answers to deeper questions leading us to ask What is my true hunger Perfect for Lent or any period when a deeper intention to clarify your true hunger is needed A Different Kind of Fast helps us enter our hearts stripping away old patterns and habits Featuring striking woodcuts from artist Kreg Yingst the book draws on the wisdom of the desert elders Paintner offers practical contemplative practices like lectio divina breath prayer visio divina meditation with desert wisdom contemplative walks and creative rituals As we fast from rushing planning being strong holding it all together seeking certainty and control we can softly reorient ourselves toward that which nourishes and fulfills us for the reflective Lenten season and beyond

Speaking to the Soul Vicki K. Black,2009-10-01 The flourishing website EpiscopalCafe.org produced by the Diocese of Washington attracts several thousand visitors a day Its popular column Speaking to the Soul which contains a concise well developed spiritual reflection for every day of the year draws from many different sources including scripture church history saints biographies books of prayers liturgies and ancient and contemporary theologians and spiritual writers This daily reader grew out of that column It follows the Episcopal Church's liturgical seasons and includes observation of major feast days as well as saints days The reading for a particular saint's day might be taken from the saint's writings prayers or biography or might develop a theme such as martyrdom or growth in the spirit Other readings focus on particular emphases of the seasons the Incarnation during Advent and Christmas spiritual disciplines during Lent or speak more generally to the Christian life prayer discipleship ministry the sacraments conflict and reconciliation and so on Readings are taken from every century of the church's life with particular attention to how the writings and experiences of earlier Christians can shed light on the difficulties joys and concerns of the church today Excerpts are long enough to give a satisfying and complete context of the writer's intended meaning

Calling on God Peter Bankson,Deborah Sokolove,2014-09-10 Fresh inclusive creation conscious prayers to nourish your soul and the soul of your worship community We are called to name the extravagant wildness of God the overflowing abundance of creation and the deep aching need of a broken world in new words and images that speak to contemporary concerns These prayers are an invitation to pray boldly from the Introduction This special prayerbook is for today's Christians who find comfort in the rhythm of the traditional lectionary but long to connect with God in ways that are satisfying to the modern heart and mind Founded on creativity inclusivity and sharing it encourages us to remember the divine elements of the natural world around us as we express our hopes and fears for others and ourselves Inspiring words help us give thanks for human inventions and lament the evils of poverty violence and oppression of all kinds while remaining mindful of God's promises of healing for a broken world Following the annual procession of the seasons with prayers that are appropriate for personal devotion as well as for use in leading worship these new ways to call on God will feed your soul and inspire you to find your own fresh language for thanksgiving praise intercession and petition whether in your community or personal spiritual life Pastoral Bearings Mary Clark Moschella, Jane F. Maynard, Leonard Hummel, 2010-03-18 The study of lived religion is an enterprise which attempts to elucidate how ordinary men and women in all times and places draw on religious behavior media and meanings to make sense of themselves and their world Through the influence of liberation theology and postmodernism pastoral theologians like other scholars of religion have begun more closely to examine the particularity of religious practice that is reflected through the rubric of lived religion Pastoral Bearings offers up ten studies that exemplify the usefulness of the lived religion paradigm to the field of pastoral theology The volume presents detailed qualitative research focused on the everyday beliefs and practices of individuals and groups and explores the implications of lived religion for interdisciplinary conversation intercultural and gender analysis and congregational studies Reflecting upon the utility of this approach for pastoral theological research education and pastoral care the studies collected in Pastoral Bearings demonstrate the importance of the study of lived religion
